TEAM ANNOUNCES LAUNCH OF THE ARIZONA CARDINALS FOUNDATION

In July, the Cardinals announced the launch of the Arizona Cardinals Foundation, marking a powerful new chapter in the team's legacy of charitable giving.

Replacing what fans and partners have previously known as Cardinals Charities, this new Foundation will be specifically focused on supporting Arizona's special needs community and will serve as the central hub for all of the organization's charitable giving efforts.

"For decades, Cardinals Charities has made a meaningful difference across Arizona," said Cardinals Owner Michael Bidwill. "With the creation of the Arizona Cardinals Foundation, we're building on that legacy and taking our commitment to the next level. This focused approach allows us to deepen our impact and build relationships with organizations serving the special needs community, ensuring that our support can aid in their development of transformational programs that elevate the care and support available for individuals with special needs."

This strategic shift included the hiring of Bob Hamer as the Foundation's Executive Director earlier this year. Hamer and the Foundation team will focus their efforts on supporting families and individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDDs), including autism, down syndrome, traumatic brain injuries, and cerebral palsy.

"An estimated 1 in 20 people in the U.S. lives with an IDD," said Hamer. "As this community grows and ages, more support will be needed – and we aim to lead that effort. This mission is personal for so many people across our football operations, business front office, and fanbase and we're committed to making a lasting, sustainable impact for the IDD community throughout Arizona."

A centerpiece of the Foundation's launch is the announcement of four Cornerstone Beneficiaries, each of which will receive a three-year commitment from the Foundation to fund new and innovative programs that expand services, promote inclusion and create equal opportunities for those living with an IDD.

Those four partners are:

- SARRC (Southwest Autism Research & Resource Center)
- Barrow Neurological Foundation
- Special Olympics Arizona
- Treasure House

These partners were selected for their proven track records in the space and visionary ideas. Funding will support bold, innovative programs that bring long-term impact to individuals and families navigating life with special needs.

In addition to these Cornerstone Charitable partners, the Foundation will open its grant application process this fall for other nonprofits in the special needs community. In order to be considered for funding, interested organizations are encouraged to complete the form at www.AZCardinals.com/foundation.

The Cardinals are proud to have two founding partners - Dignity Health and Desert Financial Credit Union - supporting the Arizona Cardinals Foundation and our mission. Their longstanding dedication to the Arizona community and shared commitment to improving lives make them invaluable partners in the launch of the Foundation. Dignity Health's leadership in providing world-class healthcare, combined with Desert Financial Credit Union's deep-rooted focus on community empowerment and financial well-being, helps amplify the Foundation's ability to deliver meaningful, lasting impact within the special needs community.

Funds raised from the 50/50 raffle at all Cardinals home games this season will now benefit the Arizona Cardinals Foundation, giving fans a direct way to contribute and participate in these efforts.

Stay tuned for additional announcements about ways in which the Cardinals community can support the Foundation including a major inaugural event. To learn more and sign up to join this cause, please visit www.AZCardinals.com/foundation.

This vision of acceptance and inclusion is realized through health, leadership, and advocacy programs, as well as providing year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-style sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities, giving more opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy, and participate in a sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community.

MICHAEL J. BIDWILL
OWNER

NOTECARDS

- After 13 seasons (2007-19) as team president, Bidwill became owner following the 2019 passing of his father, Bill. Michael continues a tradition of Bidwill ownership of the Cardinals that dates back to his grandfather, Hall of Famer Charles Bidwill in 1933. After taking over as team president in 2007, Bidwill's leadership transformed the Cardinals both on and off the field.
- Over the last three years, that transformation has led to the significant and successful restructuring of both the football and business sides of the organization. That has included Bidwill's hiring of GM Monti Ossenfort and Head Coach Jonathan Gannon to lead the football operation and Chief Operating Officer Jeremy Walls to guide a revamped business structure.
- In the last two years, the transformation that Bidwill spearheaded has seen the team open new business offices and hire more than 100 new staff members, mostly in the areas of sales and service. After ranking third in the NFL in new season-ticket sales in 2024, the team has sold over 10,000 new season tickets in 2025, which is on pace to lead the league. That figure also represents the most season tickets sold during an off-season since State Farm Stadium opened in 2006.
- On the whole, Bidwill's most substantial accomplishment in his time leading the Cardinals is the creation of State Farm Stadium itself. The world-class venue has not only been critical for the franchise but has also resulted in over $6 billion in economic impact for the state of Arizona.
- In response to the devastating wildfires that broke out in Los Angeles County in January of 2025, Bidwill led a remarkable effort to have State Farm Stadium serve as host to the Rams for their Wild Card matchup vs. the Vikings. Despite a short turnaround, State Farm Stadium hosted a sellout crowd in the first postseason game in NFL history to be moved due to a natural disaster.
- In April of 2025 Bidwill was inducted into the Arizona Sports Hall of Fame, which honors athletes, coaches, administrators and others who have made exceptional contributions to sports in Arizona. Michael joined his late father, Bill, as one of six members of the Cardinals organization ever selected for the honor.
- In May of 2025 Bidwill was named the recipient of the McCain Institute's "In The Arena Award". According to the McCain Institute, the honor is given to an individual who reflects the ways in which the late Senator John McCain proudly modeled and espoused the philosophy set forth in Teddy Roosevelt's famous 1910 "Man in the Arena" speech praising those who have the courage and determination to get In The Arena and fight for a cause, rather than critiquing from the sidelines.
- Under Michael's direction in 2025, the organization launched Cardinals Premier Travel, a first-of-its-kind, elevated travel experience to give all fans the opportunity to see the team play on the road in unmatched comfort and convenience. The all-inclusive experience includes round-trip private air transportation aboard the team's wide-body Boeing 777-200ER aircraft, two-night hotel accommodations, in-city transportation, a pre-game tailgate experience, game tickets and an immediate return to Phoenix after the game, among many other perks.
- On February 12, 2023 State Farm Stadium hosted its third Super Bowl when a then-record 115.1 million viewers watched Super Bowl LVII. State Farm Stadium also hosted Super Bowls XLII (following 2007 season) and XLIX (following 2014 season).
- In addition to his role in helping Arizona land three Super Bowls, Michael was also instrumental in getting the 2015 Pro Bowl moved to State Farm Stadium; played a week before Super Bowl XLIX, the two events combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.
- Since State Farm Stadium opened in 2006 the Cardinals have sold out every non-pandemic game played at the venue.
- Bidwill also created the highly-successful Civics Matters Arizona community initiative which sends hundreds of high school students from across the state aboard the Cardinals team plane on an educational trip to Washington D.C. The fourth-annual Civics Matters Arizona trip took place in July of 2025 and saw 275 students visit the nation's capital where they were given a red coat tour of the U.S. Capitol and a private tour of the Supreme Court, where they met with Supreme Court Justice Brett Kavanaugh. They also met with elected representatives and experienced instructor-led visits to monuments, memorials, museums, and government institutions, providing them an opportunity to learn about civics in a way that is both educational and fun.
- Of the franchise's seven all-time postseason wins, five have come during Michael's tenure leading the organization. Arizona has played in 10 postseason contests over the last 18 seasons (2007-24), after having appeared in just seven total playoff games prior.
- Arizona has appeared in the NFC Championship Game twice since 2008 including a victory in the 2008 conference title game that led to the franchise's first-ever Super Bowl appearance (Super Bowl XLIII).

Michael Bidwill practiced law for six years as a federal prosecutor but in 1996 returned to the team for which he had once been a ball boy. He represents his family's third generation of franchise leadership, following in the footsteps of grandfather Charles - a Pro Football Hall of Famer who purchased the team in 1933 - and his dad Bill, who handled day-to-day operations for decades.

CARDINALS LEADERSHIP: After initially serving as Vice President/General Counsel, Michael immediately transformed the franchise when he took over as team president in 2007. Since that time, the Cardinals have posted five double-digit win seasons (none in previous 20 years), including a franchise-record 13 victories in 2015. Of the Cardinals' seven postseason wins, five have come during Bidwill's tenure leading the franchise.

In 2021, Arizona posted an 11-6 record on its way to its fifth postseason berth under Michael's leadership. It marked the third time (13 in 2015; 11 in 2014) during Bidwill's tenure that the Cardinals won 11+ games in a season. The franchise had won 11+ games in a season just three times prior.

Over the last three years in particular, Bidwill has led a transformation involving highly-regarded additions on both the football and business sides of the organization. That effort has included his hiring of general manager Monti Ossenfort and head coach Jonathan Gannon to lead the football operation while bringing in Chief Operating Officer Jeremy Walls to guide a revamped business structure.

In the last two years, the re-making of the organization's front office has seen the team open new business offices and hire more than 100 new staff members, mostly in the areas of sales and service. After ranking third in the NFL in new season-ticket sales last year, the team has sold over 10,000 new season tickets in 2025, which is on pace to lead the league. That figure also represents the most season tickets sold during an off-season since State Farm Stadium opened in 2006.

Most recently, under Michael's direction, the organization launched Cardinals Premier Travel, a first-of-its-kind travel experience to give all fans the opportunity to see the team play on the road in unmatched comfort and convenience starting this season. Cardinals Premier Travel will make its debut with the Cardinals November 3rd Monday Night Football game against the Dallas Cowboys at AT&T Stadium. The all-inclusive experience includes round-trip private air transportation aboard a Boeing 777-200ER aircraft, hotel accommodations, transportation, a pre-game tailgate experience, game tickets and an immediate return to Phoenix after the game, among many other perks.

The Cardinals success under Bidwill has greatly elevated the team's profile both locally and nationally. Michael oversaw the team's appearance in the groundbreaking Amazon Original series 'All or Nothing: A Season with the Arizona Cardinals', which chronicled the 2015 Cardinals season from the NFL Draft through the NFC Championship game. Produced by NFL Films, the eight-episode series was awarded the Sports Emmy for Outstanding Serialized Sports Documentary in May of 2017. In February of 2018, the Cardinals launched 'Cardinals Flight Plan', a first-of-its-kind documentary series available on Facebook Watch and YouTube that takes fans behind the scenes at the team's offseason. The first seven seasons of 'Flight Plan' garnered over 21 million views between Facebook and YouTube.

IF YOU BUILD IT: Among Michael's most significant accomplishments with the Cardinals was leading the effort that led to the creation of State Farm Stadium. The venue has been an integral factor in the transformation of the Cardinals and a catalyst for the franchise's success. Prior to the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020 that impacted sporting venues around the world, the team had sold out every game played since the opening of the iconic stadium that has welcomed millions of Cardinals fans. With fans back in attendance the last five seasons, Arizona sold out every game (regular season and preseason) at the venue during that span.

During the 2024 postseason, Bidwill led an effort that resulted in the Wild Card Playoff matchup between the L.A. Rams and Minnesota Vikings being played at State Farm Stadium in response to the devastating wildfires that broke out in Los Angeles County in January. On the Thursday of that week it was announced that the scheduled Monday game would be moved from SoFi Stadium to State Farm Stadium. Despite the short turnaround, the venue hosted a sellout crowd of 64,515 as the Rams defeated the Vikings in the first postseason game in NFL history to be moved due to a natural disaster. Bidwill also arranged for the Cardinals team planes to transport the Rams players, staff and their families to Arizona in preparation for the game.

State Farm Stadium has also given Arizona the opportunity to host three Super Bowls in a 15-year span, something that would not have been possible previously. After hosting Super Bowl XLII in 2008, the stadium staged Super Bowl XLIX in 2015 and Super Bowl LVII on February 12, 2023. Super Bowl XLIX and surrounding events delivered an economic impact of $720 million, the highest for any Super Bowl on record and the largest for any special event in the state of Arizona.

In addition to those Super Bowls, State Farm Stadium also hosted the second-ever College Football Playoff (CFP) National Championship Game in January of 2015 as well as the NCAA's Men's Basketball Final Four in both 2017 and 2024. The 2017 Final Four was the first since 1995 held west of Texas and capped an unprecedented run of major sporting events at the stadium. That grand slam (Super Bowl XLIX, 2015 Pro Bowl, CFP Championship, and Final Four) poured $1.3 billion into the Valley's economy according to a study completed by the Seidman Research Institute, W.P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University.

In the lead-up to Super Bowl LVII, State Farm Stadium underwent $150 million in improvements including parking infrastructure, a new outdoor dining and entertainment venue, state-of-the-art wi-fi, video boards, sound system upgrades and club-area enhancements.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO ARIZONA AND GREATER PHOENIX: In addition to his prominent role with the Cardinals, Bidwill has established himself as one of the most influential leaders in the greater Phoenix business community where he has been a strong advocate for economic growth and development.

In 2025, he joined forces with former U.S. Senator Kyrsten Sinema to establish Arizona's Business Roundtable and serves as Chairman of the advocacy group that connects 30 of the largest corporations and industries in the state.

He has also been a member of the Arizona Commerce Authority's Board of Directors since it was founded in 2011 and currently serves as Co-Chairman of the group. Since its inception, ACA has landed nearly 1,400 projects that have resulted in 328,207 jobs and $297.5 billion worth of capital investment.

From 2019-22, Bidwill was Chairman of the Greater Phoenix Leadership (GPL), an organization composed of the region's top business and civic leaders. From 2008-10, Bidwill served back-to-back terms as Chairman of the Greater Phoenix Economic Council (GPEC).

In June of 2022, in partnership with then-Arizona Governor Doug Ducey and State Farm, Bidwill spearheaded the first-ever "Civics Matters Arizona" trip which sent 241 Arizona students mostly from Title I schools and 30 of their teachers on a once-in-a-lifetime trip to Washington, D.C. aboard the Cardinals team plane. "Civics Matters Arizona" returned the last three years in a partnership with Arizona Governor Katie Hobbs and the Close Up Foundation. In 2025, Civics Matters Arizona sent 275 high school students selected by their teachers to Washington, D.C. The students participating in this year's Civics Matters Arizona trip represented 35 schools, 14 school districts, 9 cities, and 6 of the 15 counties across Arizona.

Under Bidwill's leadership, the Cardinals took a lead role in a number of initiatives to assist those in Arizona impacted during the COVID-19 outbreak. That March, the Cardinals made a $1 million founding donation to the Arizona Coronavirus Relief Fund and shortly thereafter, the team organized three major blood drives at State Farm Stadium to meet the dire need to replenish the Valley's dwindling blood supply. In early April of 2020, at the height of the outbreak when demand for assistance from food banks in Arizona more than doubled, the Cardinals joined State Farm to provide one million meals to five local food banks. To assist local businesses during the crisis, the Cardinals made a $100,000 donation to Local First Arizona, Arizona's Coronavirus Micro Grant Fund and also helped promote local restaurants through the Cards Carryout initiative. Through the Cards Carryout program, Cardinals players and staff joined fans in helping promote independent, locally-owned restaurants hit hard by the coronavirus crisis while also recognizing those working on the front lines of the pandemic.

HONORS: In May of 2025, Bidwill was named the recipient of the McCain Institute's "In The Arena Award". The honor is given annually to "salute extraordinary, character-driven leaders who conspicuously and bravely fight to defend human rights, foster security and advance freedom through action." The award reflects the ways in which the late Senator John McCain proudly modeled the philosophy set forth in Teddy Roosevelt's famous 1910 "Man in the Arena" speech praising those who have the courage and determination to get In The Arena and fight for a cause, rather than critiquing from the sidelines.

In April of 2025, Bidwill was among eight individuals inducted into the Arizona Sports Hall of Fame, which honors athletes, coaches, administrators and others who have made exceptional contributions to sports in Arizona. He became the sixth member of the Cardinals organization to be elected to the Arizona Sports Hall of Fame, joining his late father, Bill Bidwill, WR Larry Fitzgerald, S Pat Tillman, S Adrian Wilson and QB Jake Plummer.

In January of 2019, Michael received the Paul Tagliabue Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance for demonstrating integrity and leadership in the area of career development for minorities and advocating for diversity. In May of 2019, the Arizona Lodging and Tourism Association named Bidwill its Honoree of the Year for his efforts to unify the tourism industry by convening industry leadership throughout the state to advance economic development and increase visitation.

In September of 2018, Bidwill was chosen as the Grand Marshal of the Desert Financial Fiesta Bowl parade joining a notable list of Grand Marshals that includes Diamondbacks Hall of Fame pitcher Randy Johnson, former Cardinals QB and Hall of Famer Kurt Warner and former Suns/Diamondbacks owner Jerry Colangelo.

In November of 2017, Bidwill returned to St. Louis where he was honored at the prestigious Musial Awards after stepping up to fund the city's high school football awards when the previous sponsor pulled out. In January of 2016, Bidwill and Arizona Governor Doug Ducey were inducted into the National Football Foundation (NFF) Hall of Fame for their roles in helping shape the economic future of the state. In March of 2016, Bidwill was chosen to serve as the Grand Marshal of the 33rd annual St. Patrick's Day parade, one of the most popular and longest running such events in Phoenix.

In May of 2015, Michael was presented with the esteemed Vision Award from the Greater Phoenix Convention & Visitors Bureau, an honor bestowed just three times previously: Phoenix mayors Skip Rimsza and Phil Gordon plus former Suns and Diamondbacks owner Jerry Colangelo.

Bidwill received the 2014 Transformational Leader Award from the Arizona Chamber of Commerce & Industry. In November of 2013, he received the "West Valley Regional Advancement Award" from Western Maricopa Coalition, which cited continued positive impact in that community. Bidwill was selected by the Phoenix Business Journal as one of its 25 "Most Admired CEO's" in 2010.

NFL LEADERSHIP: Within the National Football League, Bidwill's considerable influence is illustrated by his appointment to numerous and notable league committees, including two of the most prestigious – the Compensation Committee as well as the Management Council Executive Committee that represents the league in labor discussions with the NFLPA. He also chairs the league's Security and Conduct Committee and serves on four others: Business Ventures, Social Justice, Health and Safety, and Diversity.

BACKGROUND: Bidwill earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from St. Louis University in 1987 and in 1990 earned a law degree from Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. In May of 2015 – 25 years after his own graduation from the school – Michael delivered the commencement address at Catholic University's School of Law and was also awarded an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters.

A flying enthusiast and licensed pilot since he was a teenager, Bidwill regularly flies himself to road games as well as other team and league business. In 2020, the Cardinals became the second NFL franchise with its own aircraft following the team's purchase of a Boeing 777-200ER wide body jet.

Michael is an emeritus member of the board for the Pat Tillman Foundation, which carries on the legacy of the former Cardinals safety killed in Afghanistan in 2004. Bidwill has also previously served as a member of the Air Force Chief of Staff Civic Leader Program whose membership "comprises respected community leaders (who) provide ideas and feedback to advise the secretary of the Air Force, the Air Force chief of staff and Air Force senior leaders."

MONTI OSSENFORT

GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: Minnesota-Morris
HOMETOWN: Luverne, MN
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 24/3
DOB: February 24, 1978

NOTECARDS

- Ossenfort enters his third season with the Cardinals after being hired as the team's General Manager on January 16, 2023. He was hired in Arizona following three seasons (2020-22) as the Director of Player Personnel for the Tennessee Titans.
- In his second season as GM in 2024 Arizona finished the year with eight wins, doubling its total from 2023 (4) despite facing the NFL's fifth-toughest schedule based on opponent winning percentage. Of the teams who faced the top-five toughest schedules in 2024 (AZ, San Francisco, Chicago, Las Vegas and NY Giants) only the Cardinals finished with more than six wins.
- Over the span of just five months in 2024, Ossenfort signed four of the Cardinals core players to contract extensions: S Budda Baker (12/28), RB James Conner (11/30), OL Hjalte Froholdt (8/21) and LB Zaven Collins (8/3). In April of 2025, Ossenfort signed Pro Bowl TE Trey McBride to a four-year contract extension.
- In his first three drafts as the Cardinals GM, he executed seven draft-day trades that resulted in the team selecting 28 total players – including 14 who were taken in the first three rounds. Only the Packers (31), Jaguars (30), Patriots (30) and Rams (29) had more total draft picks over the last three years (2023-25).
- Since being hired as GM in 2023, Ossenfort has completely re-shaped the Cardinals roster through the draft, trades and free agency. Arizona's 90-man roster heading into training camp in 2025 featured just 11 players who were with the team prior to Ossenfort's arrival.
- Arizona's 2025 free agency period was Ossenfort's busiest one yet and included the signings of DL Calais Campbell, LB Josh Sweat and DL Dalvin Tomlinson among others.
- The Cardinals 2024 NFL Draft class featured a league-high 12 total picks and seven selections in the top-90. Arizona's 12 picks were the most in a single draft for the team since 1992 (12), when the draft consisted of 10 rounds. The Cardinals became the first team since the 1991 Dallas Cowboys (7) to have at least seven picks in the top-90 of a single draft.
- In 2023, Ossenfort built a rookie class that led the NFL in combined starts (64) and combined snaps on offense and defense (4,654). The Cardinals were the only team in the NFL to have rookies combine for 2,000+ snaps on offense and 2,000+ snaps on defense that season.
- Ossenfort's tenure in Arizona follows a highly successful three-year run in Tennessee. During that stretch, the Titans tied for fifth in the NFL in total wins (30), won a pair of AFC South titles and had two seasons of 11+ wins.
- Prior to Tennessee, Ossenfort had a 14-year run with the Patriots (2006-19) and worked his way up from Area Scout to Director of College Scouting. During those 14 seasons, New England won an NFL-high 199 games in the regular season, made 13 playoff appearances, played in 10 AFC Championship games and won three Super Bowls (XLIX, LI, LIII).

Monti Ossenfort was hired as the Cardinals General Manager on January 16, 2023 following three seasons (2020-22) as Director of Player Personnel with the Tennessee Titans.

During his two-plus season as GM, the 47-year old Ossenfort has re-shaped and solidified the Cardinals roster, signing core veterans to contract extensions and utilizing the draft, free agency and trades to add new talent. Since being hired in Arizona, Ossenfort and his staff have orchestrated over 450 roster moves and 14 trades (including seven draft day trades) while accumulating 28 total draft picks and signing key veterans TE Trey McBride, S Budda Baker, RB James Conner, OL Hjalte Froholdt and LB Zaven Collins to contract extensions.

Arizona's 2025 free agency period was Ossenfort's busiest one yet and included the signings of DL Calais Campbell, LB Josh Sweat, DL Dalvin Tomlinson and LB Akeem Davis-Gaither among others.

The defense remained a focus during the 2025 NFL Draft, which saw Arizona use each of its first five picks on defensive players for just the third time (1991, 1983) in the Modern Era Draft (since 1967). The Cardinals 2025 draft class was highlighted by the selection of 2024 consensus first-team All-American DL Walter Nolen III in the first round and the players named Defensive MVP of the last two CFP National Championship Games in CB Will Johnson (2nd round) and LB Cody Simon (4th round).

Ossenfort spent the '25 offseason building on the momentum of 2024 when Arizona won eight games, doubling its win total from 2023 (4). The Cardinals did so despite, for the second straight year, facing one of the NFL's toughest schedules based on opponent winning percentage. Arizona also had to overcome an injury-filled season, with 33 different players missing a combined 197 gamed due to injury and 18 players landing on injured reserve. Despite the obstacles, Arizona outscored its opponents 400-379 last season and finished with the best point differential among NFC West teams.

The Cardinals 2024 campaign was set up by a historic draft haul that featured an NFL-high 12 total players being selected by Arizona. Included in that group was WR Marvin Harrison Jr., who the Cardinals selected #4 overall. In his debut season in 2024, Harrison tied the franchise rookie record for TD receptions (8) matching the totals of WRs Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald.

The 2024 season marked the second straight year in which Arizona fielded one of the NFL's youngest rosters. Entering the final week of the season the average age of a player on the Cardinals roster was 26.51 years old, giving Arizona the league's eighth-youngest roster. In 2023 the average age of a player on the final roster was 26.26 years, giving the Cardinals the third-youngest roster.

In 2023, Ossenfort put together a rookie class – which in the final weeks of the season numbered 14 – that was one of the most productive in the NFL, with Arizona getting an NFL-high 4,654 combined snaps from rookies on offense and defense that season. The Cardinals were the only team in the NFL to have rookies combine for 2,000+ snaps on offense and 2,000+ snaps on defense. Arizona also led the NFL in total starts by rookies (64) and had a league-high 11 different rookies start at least one game that season. Arizona's rookie class in 2023 finished the year with 151 games played, 7 TDs, 73 receptions, 847 receiving yards, 314 rushing yards, 206 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 15 tackles for loss, 13 passes defensed, a fumble recovery and an INT.

Ossenfort came to Arizona with 21 years of experience in the NFL (2002-22). That includes his three seasons in Tennessee and 15 years (2003; 2006-19) with the New England Patriots. During his time in New England, Ossenfort helped the Patriots win four Super Bowl titles (XXXVIII, XLIX, LI, LIII) and advance to seven Super Bowls overall. In Ossenfort's 23 total NFL seasons, his teams have earned a postseason berth 16 times.

His tenure in Arizona follows a highly successful three-year run in Tennessee. During that stretch, the Titans tied for fifth in the NFL in total wins (30), won a pair of AFC South titles and had two seasons of 11+ wins. Ossenfort's first season with Tennessee in 2020 saw the team win 11 games and earn its first AFC South title since 2008. The Titans followed that up with a 12-5 record and second straight AFC South crown in 2021. It marked the first time the franchise won back-to-back division titles since the 1970 merger.

Over the course of his 15 seasons with New England, Ossenfort served as the Director of College Scouting (2014-19), Assistant Director of College Scouting (2011-13), National Scout (2008-10), Area Scout (2006-07) and a Personnel Assistant (2003). In between his two tenures with the Patriots, Ossenfort worked with the Houston Texans as a pro and college scouting assistant in 2004 prior to being promoted to a college scout in 2005.

Ossenfort started his career in the NFL with the Minnesota Vikings as a training camp intern in 2001 and worked with the Texans during their inaugural season in 2002 as a pro personnel intern under general manager Charley Casserly.

His first full-time job in the NFL came with New England as a personnel assistant under then head coach Bill Belichick in 2003, a year that concluded with a Patriots victory over Carolina in Super Bowl XXXVIII. He returned to New England in 2006, beginning a 14-year run with the Patriots that saw him work his way up from Area Scout to Director of College Scouting. During those 14 seasons New England won an NFL-high 199 games during the regular season, made 13 playoff appearances, played in 10 AFC Championship games and won three Super Bowls.

Ossenfort was a four-year letterman and two-year starter at quarterback for the University of Minnesota-Morris, where he completed 411-of-923 pass attempts for 4,263 yards and 21 TDs. He continues to rank first in program history in pass attempts, fourth in completions and fifth in total passing yards.

He graduated from Minnesota-Morris in 2000 with a degree in Economics and Management. Ossenfort earned a master's degree in Business Administration and Sports Management from Ohio University in 2002. In May of 2025, Ossenfort was invited to serve as the commencement speaker at Minnesota-Morris' 62nd commencement ceremony.

A native of Luverne, MN, Ossenfort and his wife, Shannon, have three daughters, Emery, Finley and Landry.

ARIZONA AND DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

Every year people across the country turn their clocks ahead in the spring and back in the fall, except in Arizona.

Although Arizona stays on standard time throughout the year, never changing its clock forward or back, the time change, or lack thereof, does affect the Cardinals local kickoff times during the season.

In 2025, daylight saving time was observed on the second Sunday in March (March 9) and ends on the first Sunday in November (November 2). When daylight saving time is in effect, Arizona is three hours behind the east coast, making a 4:00 p.m. kickoff in New York a 1:00 p.m. kickoff in Arizona. However, when daylight saving time ends, Arizona is only two hours behind the east coast, making a 4:00 p.m. kickoff in New York a 2:00 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

In 1967, the Uniform Time Act was instituted, putting the entire country on daylight saving time. After one year, states could opt out, and Arizona went back to standard time and stayed there. Residents and lawmakers of Arizona knew there was an abundance of sunshine and did not see the need to move their clocks ahead in order to save any. The only other state that does not observe Daylight Saving Time is Hawaii.

JEREMY WALLS
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Hired as the team's Chief Operating Officer in August of 2023, Jeremy Walls oversees the Cardinals business operations.

In collaboration with team owner Michael Bidwill, since joining the organization Walls has led a substantial restructuring of the Cardinals business practices to strategically realign and refocus the team's various business departments. This has included a reorganization of the business departments, hiring over 100+ new staff members – many in senior leadership positions – to best serve Cardinals fans and business partners, building out a new business intelligence team, implementing a strategic business planning process, and moving the entire business staff into a new open concept office down the street from the Dignity Health Arizona Cardinals Training Center.

Among the more significant of these efforts over the last two seasons has been the creation of three innovative, new seating options at State Farm Stadium that provide some of the most unique and luxurious experiences available across the sports landscape. These offerings allow fans to view Cardinals games from first-of-their-kind luxury endzone casitas and field-level seats and suites that were introduced in 2024, along with the Casita Garden Club and the Morgan Athletic Club, a 1920's style supper club hosted by The Global Ambassador. Adding to those exclusive options where guests can enjoy hand-crafted cocktails and high-end menu options, in 2025 the team unveiled Casa Roja at the Fifty, offering both an unparallelled midfield view of the game as well as access to a Spanish-inspired dining experience featuring exceptional food and beverage selections.

Since joining the Cardinals, Walls has assisted in leading several initiatives to re-imagine the game day experience at State Farm Stadium. This has included the implementation of 12 new local restaurant concepts, a reimagination of the game entertainment experience, replacing new LED ribbon boards and rebranding the concession areas throughout the venue. In addition, the Cardinals developed the Cardinals Flag Football Campus on site at State Farm Stadium and partnered with Arizona's Family to broadcast a high school girls flag football game of the week, both NFL firsts.

In August of 2025, the organization announced the launch of the Cardinals Foundation, specifically focused on supporting Arizona's special needs community and marking a powerful new chapter in the team's legacy of charitable giving.

Walls' efforts to significantly expand the Cardinals ticket sales and service department have also achieved remarkable results with enthusiasm reaching historic levels in 2025. After ranking third in the NFL in new season-ticket sales last year, the team has sold over 10,000 new season tickets in 2025, which is on pace to again finish top three in the NFL. That figure also represents the most season tickets sold during an offseason since State Farm Stadium opened in 2006. Additionally, the team's season ticket renewal rate of over 90% in the 2025 offseason is its highest in over a decade. On the corporate partnership side, the Cardinals have seen their largest year-over year growth since the stadium's opening, welcoming 16 new corporate partners, including five new entitlement partners.

The 46-year-old Walls joined the Cardinals after spending the previous 10 seasons (2013-22) with the Miami Dolphins, most recently as the organization's Senior Vice President, Chief Revenue Officer (2020-22). In that role, Walls led the team's corporate partnerships, marketing, ticket sales and operations, member services, suites and food/beverage operations. He also led the commercial and marketing teams for the Formula 1 Miami Grand Prix and along with IMG co-led the Miami Open tennis tournament. Walls previously served in the role of Senior Vice President & Chief Marketing Officer with Miami.

Before joining the Dolphins, Walls worked with the San Diego Padres as Vice President of Ticket Sales, Service & Operations (2012-13). He also held roles as the Director of Team Marketing and Business Operations (TMBO) for the National Basketball Association (2009-11), Director of Groups, Suites and Inside Sales for the Arizona Diamondbacks (2007-09) and as Group Sales Manager with the Phoenix Suns (2002-06).

Walls earned a degree in Sports Management from Mount Vernon Nazarene University. In 2017, he was honored by the Sports Business Journal as a member of its 40-Under-40 Class, which recognizes the best and brightest industry executives under the age of 40.

Jeremy and his wife, Maile - an Arizona native - have two children – Kaelin (16) and Kostner (12) and reside in south Tempe.

- Between 2021-22, the Eagles defense led the NFL with 99 sacks, ranked 3rd in total defense (315.1 ypg), 3rd in pass defense (200.4 ypg), 6th in tackles for loss (168) and tied for 4th in total return TDs (7) and INT return TDs (4).
- In 2022, the Eagles easily led the NFL with a franchise single-season record 70 sacks in the regular season. Philadelphia became the first team ever to have four different players with 10.0+ sacks in a single season.

ARIZONA: In Gannon's second season with Arizona in 2024, the Cardinals finished with eight wins, doubling their win total from 2023 (4). Arizona did so despite facing one of the NFL toughest schedules for the second straight season (8 games vs. playoff teams in '23; 9 games in '24).

Arizona finished the 2024 season with a 6-3 record at home, winning five of its last six games at State Farm Stadium. It marked the first time since 2015 that the Cardinals had at least six home wins in a season. Four of Arizona's six home wins were decided by 20+ points, the most such home wins in a season in team history.

Under Gannon, the Cardinals totaled eight wins in 2024 despite ending the season with 18 players on injured reserve, including seven Week 1 starters. Arizona had 33 different players miss a combined 196 games due to injury.

Gannon presided over a historic season by the Cardinals offense in 2024. Arizona finished the year with 6,090 total net yards, marking just the 5th time in franchise history the Cardinals accumulated 6,000+ total net yards in a season. Arizona had a 3,000-yard passer (Kyler Murray), 1,000-yard rusher (James Conner) and 1,000-yard receiver (Trey McBride) in a single season for just the 5th time in franchise history.

For the 2nd consecutive season, Gannon oversaw one of the NFL's best rushing attacks in 2024. Arizona rushed for 2,451 rushing yards and 18 TDs on 463 carries (5.29 avg.). in 2024. The Cardinals 2,451 rushing yards represent the 3rd-highest single-season total in franchise history – and the highest since the team ran for a franchise record 2,582 yards in 1979.

Arizona's 5.29 rushing yards per attempt in 2024 is easily the highest single-season rushing average in franchise history, shattering the previous record of 5.03 yards per attempt in 2019. In 2023, Arizona ranked 4th in the NFL in rushing yards (2,365) and 2nd in rushing average (5.02) while leading the league with four games of 200+ rushing yards.

Defensively, the Cardinals had one of the NFL's best units in the second half of the 2024 season. Over the final 11 games, the Cards ranked 4th in the NFL allowing an average of just 19.6 points per game. Arizona's defense allowed the fewest total TDs (20) and passing TDs (10) in the NFL during that span. Between Weeks 7-18, Arizona's defense was also among the top 10 in the NFL in sacks (30), forced fumbles (13), first downs allowed (206), total defense (325.7 ypg) and pass defense (213.8 ypg).

Under Gannon in 2024, the Cardinals were one of the league's most disciplined teams. Arizona was penalized just 92 times last season, with only the Rams (91) being called for fewer penalties. The Cardinals were penalized five times or fewer in an NFL-high 12 games in 2024, including two games in which it was penalized just once.

In his first season with Arizona in 2023, Gannon led the NFL's 3rd-youngest team that relied heavily on rookies but was also highly competitive. Despite playing the league's 2nd-toughest schedule with eight games vs. playoff teams, the Cardinals held a lead in 14-of-17 games played.

Gannon's debut NFL season saw him help to develop the Cardinals rookie class, which led the NFL in combined starts (64) and combined snaps on offense and defense (4,654) in 2023. The 2023 rookie class combined for: 151 games played, 7 TDs, 73 receptions, 847 receiving yards, 314 rushing yards, 206 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 15 tackles for loss, 13 passes defensed, a fumble recovery and an INT in 2023.

PHILADELPHIA: Prior to being hired in Arizona, Gannon spent two seasons (2021-22) as the defensive coordinator with the Philadelphia Eagles. Under his direction, the Eagles boasted a top-10 defense in each season, ranking 2nd in total defense in 2022 (301.5 ypg) and 10th in the NFL in 2021 (328.8 ypg). In 2022 the Eagles also featured the NFL's top-ranked pass defense (179.8 ypg) and the league's 8th ranked scoring defense (20.2 ppg).

Philadelphia advanced to Super Bowl LVII at State Farm Stadium after beating San Francisco in the NFC Championship and won the NFC East in 2022. The Eagles qualified for the postseason in both years Gannon was the defensive coordinator.

In 2022, the Eagles easily led the NFL with a franchise single-season record 70 sacks in the regular season. No other team in the NFL had more than 55. Philadelphia's 70 sacks in 2022 were the most by any team in a single season since the 1989 Minnesota Vikings (71). Combined with their eight sacks in the postseason, the Eagles 78 total sacks in 2022 were the third-most in NFL history behind only the 1984 (82 sacks) and 1985 Chicago Bears (80 sacks). Philadelphia also tied for 4th in the NFL in both total takeaways (27) and INTs during the regular season.

In his two seasons as defensive coordinator with Philadelphia, four different Eagles players combined for five Pro Bowl selections: Darius Slay (2), Haason Reddick (1), Javon Hargrave (1) and current Cardinal Josh Sweat (1). Reddick, Hargrave and Sweat all earned their first career Pro Bowl selections playing in Gannon's defense. Reddick and CB James Bradberry were each named second-team All-Pro in 2022.

Under Gannon's tutelage, Reddick ranked 2nd in the NFL with a career-high 16.0 sacks in 2022. He also led the NFL with five strip-sacks and tied for the NFL lead with five forced fumbles. At age 34, Graham had double-digit sacks for the first time in his career in 2022. He became the oldest player with 11.0+ sacks since Julius Peppers (37) and Terrell Suggs (35) in 2017.

Another player who had a career year under Gannon in 2022 was LB T.J. Edwards, who finished the regular season with 159 tackles, 2.0 sacks, seven passes defensed, 10 tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. His 159 tackles were a career high and also were the highest single-season total for an Eagles defender since Byron Evans (175) in 1992.

Following three seasons in New Orleans, S C.J. Gardner-Johnson established a career high and tied for the NFL lead with six INTs in his first season with the Eagles in 2022. Playing in Gannon's defense, Gardner-Johnson had more INTs in 2022 (6) than he had in his first three NFL seasons combined (5). Bradberry (3 INTs, 17 PD) and Slay (3 INTs, 14 PD) finished the 2022 season as the only cornerback tandem in the NFL each with 14+ passes defensed and 3+ interceptions. Bradberry's 17 passes defensed ranked 3rd in the NFL.

Philadelphia (7 points allowed vs. NYG; 7 points allowed vs. SF) became the first team to allow seven points or fewer in multiple postseason games since the 2010 Baltimore Ravens (3 times). Prior to 2022, the last time Philadelphia gave up seven points or fewer in consecutive postseason games was during the 1948 and 1949 NFL Championships.

In his first season with the Eagles in 2021, Gannon directed the NFL's 10th-ranked defense (328.8 ypg). Philadelphia had the 2nd-most defensive TDs (5), allowed the 5th-fewest explosive plays (117) in the league and finished 9th in opponent rushing yards per game (107.9) and opponent three-and-out percentage (33.1%). Slay led the team with five takeaways and had an NFL-best three defensive TDs that season.

OTHER NFL EXPERIENCE: Prior to working with the Cardinals and Eagles, he was the defensive backs/cornerbacks coach with the Indianapolis Colts (2018-20) and the assistant defensive backs/quality control coach with the Minnesota Vikings (2014-17) after working as a defensive assistant with the Tennessee Titans (2012-13). He spent three seasons (2009-11) as a scout with the St. Louis Rams after beginning his NFL coaching career as a defensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons in 2007.

During his three seasons with Indianapolis (2018-20), Gannon oversaw a secondary that helped the Colts rank 6th in the NFL in INTs (45, tied), 9th in scoring defense (22.5 ppg) and 10th in total defense (339.5 ypg) and red zone defense (55.9%, tied) during that span. In Gannon's final season with Indianapolis in 2020, the Colts defense had the 5th-most takeaways (25) in the NFL and ranked 7th in INTs (15, tied), 8th in total yards allowed per game (332.1) and 10th in points allowed per game (22.6, tied). CB Kenny Moore (79 tackles, 13 PD, 4 INTs and 2.0 sacks) was the only defensive back in the NFL in 2020 with at least four INTs and 2.0 sacks that season.

In 2019, the Colts had the 7th-most INTs (15) and 10th-most takeaways (23, tied) in the NFL. The previous year, Gannon assisted a defense that amassed the 9th-most INTs (15, tied) in the league and ranked 10th in takeaways (26, tied) and points allowed per game (21.5).

As an assistant with the Vikings for four seasons (2014-17), Gannon helped Minnesota's defense rank 2nd in the NFL in redzone defense (48.6%), 3rd in total defense (319.9 ypg), scoring defense (18.8 ppg), passing defense (214.6 ypg) and third-down defense (35.1%). CB Xavier Rhodes (2016-17) and S Harrison Smith (2015-17) were selected to multiple Pro Bowls during Gannon's tenure in Minnesota.

Gannon got his start in the NFL with the Falcons as a defensive assistant under head coach Bobby Petrino who was his head coach while he was a student at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE: Gannon played collegiately as a safety at Louisville and appeared in nine games as a redshirt freshman in 2002 before suffering a career-ending hip injury in his first career start at Cincinnati. As a true freshman in 2001, he was named the Cardinals defensive scout team player of the year. Following the injury, he worked as a student assistant at Louisville for three seasons (2003-05) and one season as a graduate assistant (2006) under Petrino.

PERSONAL: Gannon attended Saint Ignatius (Cleveland, OH) High School where he was an All-State defensive back and a standout in basketball and track & field. As a senior in 2001, he helped lead the basketball team to the school's first state championship and starred in the long jump and 110-meter hurdles, helping Saint Ignatius to their first track & field state championship that same year. Gannon was inducted into the Saint Ignatius Sports Hall of Fame in 2011.

Long-time veteran K Matt Prater had a lot of success under Rodgers with the Cardinals. He totaled 106 points in 2023, his 12th career season with 100+ points. Prater also set a franchise single-season record (and a career-high) with nine FGs of 50+ yards in 2023, including an NFL single-season record of six FGs of 55+ yards. Arizona featured one of the league's explosive rushing attacks again last season, with the Cardinals (4) joining the Ravens (4), Bills (4) and Eagles (4) as the only teams in the NFL with at least four TD runs of 40+ yards.

Petzing coordinated an Arizona offense that piled up 6,090 total net yards in 2024, marking just the 5th time in franchise history the team had 6,000+ total net yards in a season. Arizona featured a 3,000-yard passer (QB Kyler Murray), a 1,000-yard rusher (RB James Conner) and a 1,000-yard receiver (TE Trey McBride) in a single season for just the 5th-time in team history.

TE Trey McBride was selected to his first Pro Bowl after catching 111 passes for 1,146 yards and four total TDs. He shattered his own franchise single-season record for receptions by a tight end (81 in 2023) and joined Hall of Famer Jackie Smith as the only TEs in franchise history with 1,000+ receiving yards in a season. McBride's 111 receptions are the second-most in franchise history by a player at any position and also marked the 4th-best total in NFL history by a TE. McBride had three outings with 12 receptions last season, becoming the first TE in NFL history to have at least three games of 12+ receptions in a single season. He also became the first TE in league annals to have 12+ catches in back-to-back games. McBride's performance last season followed a breakout campaign under Petzing in 2023, one which saw the second-year TE lead the team with 81 receptions for 825 yards.

RB James Conner had his second consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,094 yards) after doing so for the first time in 2023 (1,040). He also had a career-high 1,508 scrimmage yards in 2024, his fifth-career season with 1,000+ scrimmage yards and fourth in a row with Arizona. Conner became just the third player in team history (Ottis Anderson, Edgerrin James) with multiple 1,000-yard seasons.

QB Kyler Murray started all 17 games in 2024 and completed 372-of-541 passes (68.8%) for 3,851 yards, 21 TDs and a 93.5 passer rating. He also ran for 572 yards and five TDs on 78 carries (7.3 yard avg.). It was Murray's 4th season with 20+ TD passes and his 4th with 3,000+ passing yards. He tied Neil Lomax for the most seasons in franchise history with 3,000+ passing and the most seasons with 20+ TD passes. In 2024, Murray became the third-youngest player in NFL history to reach 19,000+ passing yards and 3,000+ rushing yards in his career. In 2023, Muray started the final eight games of the season after returning from a serious knee injury that kept him out of action for 335 days. Murray threw for 1,799 yards and 10 TDs that season while rushing for 244 yards and three TDs. With Murray in the lineup, Arizona had the 9th ranked offense in the NFL.

Arizona had one of the top rushing attacks in 2023 after finishing the season 4th in the NFL in rushing (2,365 yards) and 2nd in rushing average (5.02) while leading the league with four games of 200+ rushing yards. The 2023 season marked just the second time since 1970 – and first time in 44 years – the Cardinals finished a season ranked in the top-5 in the league in rushing yards (3rd in 1979). The Cardinals led the NFL with 23 runs of 20+ yards in 2023, becoming one of only three teams in a 10-year span to have at least 23 runs of 20+ yards.

As QBs coach with the Browns in 2022, QB Jacoby Brissett started 11 games and completed 236-of-369 passes for 2,608 yards, 12 TDs, six INTs and an 88.9 QB rating. Brissett's 63.9 completion percentage and 88.9 passer rating were both career highs. QB Deshaun Watson started the final six games of the season and threw for 1,102 yards, seven TDs and five INTs. Both QBs combined to run for 418 yards and three TDs in 2022.

As tight ends coach with Cleveland for two seasons, Petzing's group helped the Browns become the only team in the league in 2021 to have at least three different tight ends each record at least three TDs as TE David Njoku led the team with four TDs. They also helped the Browns lead the NFL in rushing average (5.09-yard avg.) in 2021, the highest rushing average for the team since 1966.

In 2020, the Browns had three tight ends record multiple TDs, led by TE Austin Hooper who tied for second on the team with four TDs. Rookie TE Harrison Bryant led all rookie tight ends with three receiving TDs while Njoku had two TD receptions. Cleveland finished 3rrd in the league in rushing (148.4 ypg) in 2020, the best average for the Browns since 1978.

During his tenure with Minnesota, Petzing helped the Vikings win two NFC North division titles (2015 & 2017) while also qualifying for the postseason as a Wild Card team in 2019. The 2017 Vikings went 13-3 and advanced to the NFC Championship. As Vikings wide receivers coach in 2019, WR Stefon Diggs set a then career-high with 1,130 receiving yards, his second consecutive 1,000-yard season. He finished 4th in the league that season with a 17.9-yard average on 63 receptions. Working with Kirk Cousins in 2018, the Vikings QB set a team record for completions (425), threw for the third-most passing yards (4,298), had the second-highest completion percentage (70.1) and recorded the fourth-highest passer rating (99.7) by a Viking in team history. He became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for at least 4,000 yards, at least 30 passing TDs, 10 or fewer INTs and complete at least 70% of his passes in a season.

Petzing helped develop WR Adam Thielen, who began his career as an undrafted rookie free agent. In 2017, Thielen made his first Pro Bowl and was a second-team All-Pro selection after finishing 5th in the NFL (2nd in NFC) with a then career-high 1,276 receiving yards on 91 receptions. Diggs reached 200 career catches in 40 games, the fastest in team history to reach that milestone (record has since been eclipsed by Justin Jefferson). In addition to working with wide receivers in his first season in Minnesota, Petzing also helped coach Vikings running backs in 2014. As a rookie, RB Jerick McKinnon tied for 5th in the NFL with a 4.8-yard average (min 100 carries).

Petzing served as a graduate assistant at Boston College for two years (2010-11) after working as a volunteer assistant coach at Harvard in 2009. He then worked for one season (2012) as the outside linebackers coach at Yale before spending the 2013 season with the Browns as a football operations intern where he assisted the offense.

As a player, Petzing spent his first two years (2005-06) at Middlebury College as a defensive back before injuries cut short his playing career. A Wellesley, MA native, Petzing then served as a student assistant the next two years before graduating in 2009 with a degree in Economics and minors in Math and Philosophy. His brother, Dean, is an offensive assistant coach with the Carolina Panthers. He and his wife, Louisa, have a daughter, Emilia and son, Owen.

NOTECARDS

- Hired as the Cardinals defensive coordinator in 2023 after spending two seasons (2021-22) as the linebackers coach with the Philadelphia Eagles.
- Coached Cardinals S Budda Baker as he was selected to the Pro Bowl in both 2023 and 2024 as a starter at safety. It was his 7th Pro Bowl following the 2024 season and his 6th consecutive selection as a starter.
- Baker led all NFL defensive backs with a career-high 164 tackles in 2024, a total that ranked second among all NFL players behind only Colts LB Zaire Franklin (173).
- Helped Eagles LB T.J. Edwards to a career season in 2022 as he finished with 159 tackles, 2.0 sacks, seven passes defensed, 10 tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. His 159 tackles ranked 7th in the NFL in 2022 and represented the highest single-season total for an Eagles defender since Byron Evans (175) in 1992.
- With the Vikings, coached LB Eric Kendricks who was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro in 2019 after having a career-high and team-leading 110 tackles to go along with 12 passes defensed, tied for the most among NFL linebackers.

Nick Rallis was hired as Arizona's defensive coordinator on 2/21/23 after spending two seasons (2021-22) coaching linebackers with the Philadelphia Eagles. Prior to working in Philadelphia, Rallis spent three seasons (2018-20) with the Minnesota Vikings as a defensive quality control/assistant linebackers coach.

Last season with the Cardinals, Rallis helped direct a defense that was one of the best in the NFL in the second half of the season. Over the final 11 games, the Cardinals were 4th in the league allowing an average of just 19.6 points per game. They also allowed the fewest total TDs (20) and passing TDs (10) in the NFL during that span. Between Weeks 7-18, Arizona's defense was also among the top 10 in the NFL in sacks (30), forced fumbles (13), first downs allowed (206), total defense (325.7 ypg) and pass defense (213.8 ypg).

Arizona had an NFL-high 12 different players record 2.0 or more sacks in 2024 and also tied for the NFL lead with 17 different players who had at least 1.0 sack.

S Budda Baker made his 7th Pro Bowl and his 6th consecutive selection at safety. He also earned 2nd team All-Pro honors last season after establishing a career-high with 164 tackles and 10 tackles for loss to go along with 2.0 sacks, five passes defensed, three QB hits and a forced fumble. His 164 tackles led all NFL defensive backs and ranked 2nd in the NFL among all defenders (Zaire Franklin-173). LB Kyzir White started all 17 games and had 137 tackles while also setting career highs in sacks (2.5) and QB hits (eight). White also added nine tackles for loss, an INT, three passes defensed and his first career fumble recovery.

In his first season with the Cardinals in 2023, Rallis worked with Baker who was selected to his 6th Pro Bowl and earned his 5th selection as a starter. Despite missing five games due to injury, Baker finished second on the team with 87 tackles and had a team-high four games with double-digit tackles. Fellow S Jalen Thompson set career-highs with four INTs, nine passes defensed and five tackles for loss while also collecting his first career sack and forced fumble. White led the Cardinals with 90 tackles despite missing the final six games of the season due to injury. He also had 2.0 sacks, two QB hits, three passes defensed and the game-sealing INT in Arizona's win vs. Dallas.

Working under current Cardinals head coach Jonathan Gannon for two years in Philadelphia, Rallis helped the Eagles advance to Super Bowl LVII at State Farm Stadium after beating San Francisco in the NFC Championship, win the NFC East in 2022 and earn the #1 seed in the NFC with a 14-3 record. The Eagles made the postseason in both seasons Rallis coached with Philadelphia.

LB T.J. Edwards had a career-season with the Eagles in 2022 after finishing the regular season with 159 tackles, 2.0 sacks, seven passes defensed, 10 tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. His 159 tackles ranked 7th in the NFL in 2022 and represented the highest single-season total for an Eagles defender since Byron Evans (175) in 1992. Kyzir White had 110 tackles, the second-most on the team, to go along with 1.5 sacks, seven passes defensed and five QB pressures in 2022.

The Eagles had a top-10 defense in each season Rallis coached there, ranking 2nd in total defense in 2022 (301.5 ypg) and 10th in the NFL in 2021 (328.8 ypg). In 2022, Philadelphia also featured the NFL's top-ranked pass defense (179.8 ypg) and the league's 8th ranked scoring defense (20.2 ppg). Between 2021-22, the Eagles defense led the NFL with 99 sacks, ranked 3rd in total defense (315.1 ypg), 3rd in pass defense (200.4 ypg), 6th in tackles for loss (168), tied for 4th in total return TDs (7) and interception return TDs (4) and tied for 10th in INTs (29).

In 2022, the Eagles easily led the NFL with a franchise single-season record 70 sacks in the regular season. No other team in the NFL had more than 55. Philadelphia's 70 sacks in 2022 were the most by any team in a single season since the 1989 Minnesota Vikings (71). Combined with their eight sacks in the postseason, the Eagles 78 total sacks in 2022 were the third-most in NFL history behind only the 1984 (82 sacks) and 1985 Chicago Bears (80 sacks). Philadelphia also tied for 4th in the NFL in both total takeaways (27) and INTs during the regular season.

Since individual sacks became an official stat in 1982, Philadelphia became the first team ever to have four different players with 10.0+ sacks in a single season when they did so in 2022: LB Haason Reddick (16.0), DE Brandon Graham (11.0), DT Javon Hargrave (11.0) and DE Josh Sweat (11.0).

In his first season with the Eagles in 2021, Rallis helped Philadelphia to the NFL's 10th-ranked defense (328.8 ypg) in addition to having the 2nd-most defensive TDs (5) and allowing the 5th-fewest explosive plays (117) in the league while also finishing 9th in opponent rushing yards per game (107.9) and opponent three-and-out percentage (33.1%). Under his guidance, LB Alex Singleton had a team-high 130 tackles and Edwards had 125 tackles in 2021. The duo finished as two of five NFL players to have 125+ tackles, one interception and one fumble recovery in the regular season.

He spent his first two seasons (2018-19) with the Vikings as a defensive quality control coach and added the title of assistant linebackers in 2020. He helped Eric Kendricks and Eric Wilson become the only pair of linebackers in the league in 2020 to have 100+ tackles and 3+ INTs that season. In 2019, Kendricks was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro after having a career-high and team-leading 110 tackles to go along with 12 passes defensed, tied for the most among NFL linebackers. Pro Football Focus named Kendricks as the league's highest-graded linebacker in 2019.

Rallis (RAW-liss) started his coaching career as a quality control coach at Wake Forest in 2017. He played at Edina (MN) High School and was the #8 recruit in the state of Minnesota as a senior according to Rivals.com prior to playing linebacker collegiately at the University of Minnesota (2012-16). As a Golden Gopher, Rallis appeared in 26 games, including starting three games as a senior. His older brother, Mike, also played linebacker at Minnesota (2008-12).

He graduated with a degree in Business Marketing from Minnesota and earned his master's in Sport and Exercise Science. Rallis and his wife, Devin, have two sons, Kendrick and Dominick.

- Played four seasons (2009-12) at Stanford and led the team in receiving yards in 2012 when the Cardinals were 12-2 and won both the Pac-12 championship and the Rose Bowl.

Drew Terrell is in his eighth season in the NFL and third with the Cardinals as passing game coordinator/wide receivers. He came to Arizona in 2023 after coaching wide receivers in Washington the previous three years (2020-22).

Last year, rookie WR Marvin Harrison Jr. had 62 receptions for 885 yards and 8 TDs. His 8 TDs tied the franchise rookie record (Anquan Boldin & Larry Fitzgerald) while he finished second in team history in receptions and receiving yards by a rookie (Boldin). Arizona finished the year with over 6,000 total yards (6,090) for just the fifth time in team history and the Cardinals had a 3,000-yard passer (Kyler Murray), a 1,000-yard receiver (Trey McBride) and a 1,000-yard rusher (James Conner) in a single-season for just the fifth-time in team annals.

Third-year TE Trey McBride finished with 111 receptions for 1,146 yards in 2024, shattering his own franchise single-season record for receptions by a tight end (81 in 2023) and joining Hall of Famer Jackie Smith as the only TEs in franchise history with 1,000+ receiving yards in a season. That followed up his 2023 season as he led the team with 81 receptions for 825 yards.

During his three seasons in Washington, Terrell helped guide the development of standout WR Terry McLaurin – one of just eight players in the NFL with 1,000+ receiving yards in each of the three previous seasons (2020-22). In 2022, McLaurin set single-season career highs in receiving yards (1,191) and scrimmage yards (1,220) while joining Gary Clark (1989-91), Art Monk (1984-86) and Henry Ellard (1994-96) as the only players in franchise history with three consecutive seasons of 1,000+ receiving yards. His performance in 2022 earned McLaurin his first Pro Bowl selection. Working with Terrell for the first time in 2020, McLaurin established a career high with 87 receptions while becoming the first Commanders players with a 1,000-yard receiving season (1,118) since 2016.

Terrell also worked with Washington rookie WR Jahan Dotson in 2022. The Commanders first-round pick in the 2022 NFL Draft, Dotson finished his debut season with 35 receptions for 523 yards and a team-high seven TD receptions. His seven TD catches tied Green Bay's Christian Watson for the most among NFL rookies that season and was just one shy of tying Washington's franchise rookie record (8).

Prior to the Commanders, Terrell was an offensive quality control coach in Carolina for two seasons (2018-19). In 2018, the Panthers had 5,972 offensive yards, the second highest total in franchise history.

He joined the Panthers following three seasons (2015-17) as a graduate assistant at the University of Michigan. In his first two years, Terrell worked with wide receivers and returners and tutored cornerbacks and returners in his final season. While with the Wolverines, Terrell worked with two receivers who were selected in the 2017 NFL Draft—Amara Darboh by Seattle in the third round and Jehu Chesson by Kansas City in the fourth round.

In his final season at Michigan in 2017, Terrell helped coach future professionals CB David Long and CB Lavert Hill who were named by Pro Football Focus as one of the top cornerback duos in the country with Long posting the nation's lowest passer rating when targeted at 17.6. Terrell began his coaching career in 2014 as an offensive graduate assistant working with wide receivers at Virginia Tech. While with the Hokies, he assisted in the development of wideouts Cam Phillips and Isaiah Ford, who finished their collegiate careers ranked first and second respectively for the most receptions in school history.

Terrell played four seasons as a wide receiver and punt returner at Stanford (2009-12), earning honorable mention All-Pac 12 honors as a returner three times (2010-12). He posted a breakout season as a senior, leading the team with 33 receptions for 463 yards and four TDs while adding 291 return yards. Stanford finished the 2012 season with a 12-2 record and won both the Pac-12 Championship and the Rose Bowl. He graduated from Stanford with a degree in Political Science.

A Chandler, AZ native, Terrell (tuh-RELL) attended Stanford

following a decorated career at Hamilton (Chandler, AZ) High School. An All-State selection as both a wide receiver and punt returner as a senior in 2008, he was rated as the top wide receiver recruit in the state of Arizona and the 10th rated overall prospect by Rivals.com. Terrell helped the Huskies win three regional championships and two 5A Division I state titles.

Cardinals RB James Conner ran for a career-high 1,094 yards and eight TDs on 236 carries (4.6 avg.) in 2024 while adding 414 receiving yards and a TD on 47 receptions. He finished last year with a career-best 1,508 scrimmage yards. It was Conner's second consecutive 1,000-yard season, joining Ottis Anderson and Edgerrin James as the only players in team history with multiple seasons of 1,000+ rushing yards. Conner also became the first player in franchise history to have 1,000+ scrimmage yards in each of his first four seasons with the team. He had six games of 100+ rushing yards in 2024, the most for a Cardinals player since Ottis Anderson (7) in 1983.

In 2024, the Cardinals had 2,451 rushing yards and 18 TDs on 463 carries (5.29 avg.). The 2,451 rushing yards represent the 3rd-highest single-season total in franchise history and the most rushing yards in a season since 1979. Arizona's 5.29 yards per carry average is the highest in team history, breaking the mark of 5.09 in 2019, and is the 16th-best single season average in NFL history.

Conner had his first 1,000-yard season (1,040) in 2023 and had his third consecutive year with the Cardinals of 1,000+ scrimmage yards (1,205). He led the NFL in runs of 20+ yards (11), ranked 2nd in rushing yards/game (80.0) and 3rd in runs of 10+ yards. The Cardinals led the NFL with 23 runs of 20+ yards, becoming one of only three teams to have at least 23 runs of 20+ yards in the last 10 years. Arizona finished the season 4th in the NFL in rushing yards (2,365) and 2nd in rushing average (5.02) while leading the league with four games of 200+ rushing yards. The 2023 season marked just the second time since 1970 – and first time in 44 years – the Cardinals finished a season ranked in the top-5 in the league in rushing yards (3rd in 1979).

In the 2024 offseason, Denson was selected to serve as the running backs coach for the American team at the Senior Bowl.

Before coming to the NFL, Denson coached running backs at his alma mater, Notre Dame, for four seasons (2015-18) prior to taking the job at Charleston Southern. Denson also was a two-time participant of the NFL's Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship (Indianapolis 2012-13). As head coach at Charleston Southern, Denson had a 6-6 record in his first season (2019) and had 12 players on the Big South All-Conference team that season, including All-American S Cody Cline. After a shortened season in 2020 due to COVID, the Buccaneers finished the next two seasons with a combined 6-14 record.

As a Notre Dame assistant, Denson helped the Fighting Irish to an undefeated regular season in 2018 and a spot in the College Football Playoff semifinals at the Cotton Bowl. Notre Dame ran for 2,695 yards that year, paced by RB Dexter Williams' team-leading 995 rushing yards and 12 TDs. Prosise, who was drafted by Seattle in the third-round of the 2016 NFL Draft, eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards faster than any Irish running back in school history outside of All-American Reggie Brooks (1992). Adams rushed for a freshman school record 835 yards in 2015, including a freshman program single-game record 168 yards at Stanford. Notre Dame averaged 207.6 rushing yards per game that season.

Denson returned to Notre Dame as an assistant in 2015 after coaching running backs at Miami (OH) University (2014) and Bethune-Cookman (2011-13). While at Bethune-Cookman, Denson helped the Wildcats to a 10-3 record and berth in the FCS playoffs in 2013. In 2012, RB Isidore Jackson ran for 1,069 yards, becoming the first Wildcat to eclipse 1,000 rushing yards since 1997. His running back group that season ran for 2,928 yards and 28 TDs, helping Bethune-Cookman lead the conference and rank 10th nationally in rushing (244.4 ypg). The previous year, the Wildcats ran for 2,058 yards and finished 5th in the FCS in rushing offense (259.3 ypg). While in the CFL in 2004, he finished 8th in the league with 772 rushing yards and nine TDs.

Denson finished his record-setting Notre Dame playing career with MVP honors at the 1999 Gator Bowl and was a two-time team MVP (1997-98). A three-year starter, he had 100+ rushing yards in 21 games in his four years with the Irish, had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons and was an All-American selection as a senior in 1998.

Frye helped the Buckeyes win the College Football National Championship in 2024 as he had two players selected as All-Americans and first-team All-Big Ten (C Seth McLaughlin & G Donovan Jackson). Ohio State had two running backs each go over 1,000 yards and 10 rushing TDs (Quinshon Judkins-1,060 & 14 TDs, TreVeyon Henderson-1,016 & 10 TDs) for only the second time in school history (2013). McLaughlin won the 2024 Rimington Trophy, given to the top center in Division I football.

He added the title of run game coordinator in 2023 and helped three Ohio State offensive linemen get named all-conference. Jackson was a first-team selection while G Matt Jones was second-team and T Josh Fryar was third-team. Frye joined the Buckeyes in 2022 as the associate head coach for offensive/offensive line coach and tutored current Cardinals T Paris Johnson Jr. as he was named a first-team All-American and first-team All-Big Ten. Frye helped five players earn All-Big Ten honors in 2022 as the Buckeyes ranked 11$^{th}$ in the nation and second in the Big Ten in rushing yards per carry (5.37). The Buckeyes offensive line also helped protect QB C.J. Stroud as Ohio State was one of just two Power 5 schools nationally to finish in the top 10 in both fewest sacks allowed (7th) and fewest tackles for loss allowed (6th).

Prior to Ohio State, Frye spent four seasons (2018-21) at UCLA where he worked as the Bruins offensive line coach and also the team's offensive coordinator for his final three years in Westwood. UCLA ranked top-15 nationally in both 2021 and 2020 after averaging over 200 rushing yards per game each year. Current Seahawks RB Zach Charbonnet led the conference with seven 100-yard rushing games and was third in rushing yards (1,137 yards) while RB Brittain Brown topped the conference by averaging 6.03 yards per carry. The Bruins led the conference in scoring (36.5 ppg) and were second in total offense (441.2 ypg). Felton set school records for a running back with 55 receptions and four scoring plays of 75+ yards. UCLA improved its rushing average per game by 40 yards from 2018 and T Sean Rhyan was named a consensus freshman All-American selection. With Arizona in 2023, K Matt Prater set a franchise record with nine FGs of 50+ yards, including an NFL single-season record six FGs of 55+ yards. Prater connected on a 62-yard FG in Week 3 vs. Dallas, tying his own franchise record for the longest FG. Evans ranked 4th in the conference with 13 rushing TDs while adding three passing TDs and 19 receptions for 107 yards. In 2020, Sewell helped the Eagles offense amass 2,438 total yards (406.3 ypg), the 4th best finish in school history. EMU also added 23 TDs, the 2nd best mark in program history, and averaged 22.3 first downs per game (134 total) which ranked 6th in program history.

In his first stint at Colorado State-Pueblo, Sewell coached tight ends/special teams (2010-12) before returning to the program in 2015 as running backs coach/co-special teams coordinator. During his first stint at CSU-Pueblo, the ThunderWolves won two consecutive RMAC Championships and combined for a 23-2 record. In 2015, the ThunderWolves ranked 6th nationally in rushing (291.0 ypg). Brothers Cameron and Bernard McDondle combined for 3,674 rushing yards, establishing a new NCAA record for rushing yards by two RBs on the same team. Cameron finished third for the Harlon Hill Trophy, given to the top player in Division II, after finishing 2nd nationally in rushing yards, rushing yards per game and rushing TDs. ## TIGHT ENDS

COLLEGE: Mesa State
HOMETOWN: Palisade, CO
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 14/3
DOB: May 27, 1978

Ben Steele is in his 18th season coaching and 12th in the NFL after joining Arizona's staff on 3/1/23 as tight ends coach. He came to the Cardinals from Denver after working as the Broncos assistant offensive line coach in 2022.

Over the past two seasons, TE Trey McBride has re-written the Cardinals record books for a tight end. In 2024, he was named to his first Pro Bowl after catching 111 passes for 1,146 yards and four total TDs. He shattered his own franchise single-season record for receptions by a tight end (81 in 2023) and joined Hall of Famer Jackie Smith as the only TEs in franchise history with 1,000+ receiving yards in a season.

McBride's 111 receptions are the second-most in franchise history by a player at any position and also marked the 4th-best total in NFL history by a TE. His 221 career receptions are the most by a TE in their first three seasons in NFL history (216, George Kittle; 2017-19). He finished second in the league last season in receptions and receiving yards by a TE (Brock Bowers). McBride also had three games in 2024 with double-digit receptions, tied for the second-most in a single-season in team history. He has five total games with double-digit receptions in his career, tied for the fifth-most in franchise history.

In 2023, McBride led the team in receptions (81) and receiving yards (825) while also adding three TDs. He also had two games of 100+ receiving yards that season after it hadn't been done by a Cardinals TE in the past 34 years and had two games with 10+ receptions, a first in team history for a TE.

In 2024, the Cardinals had 2,451 rushing yards and 18 TDs on 463 carries (5.29 avg.). The 2,451 rushing yards represent the 3rd-highest single-season total in franchise history and the most rushing yards in a season since 1979. Arizona's 5.29 yards per carry average is the highest in team history, breaking the mark of 5.09 in 2019, and is the 16th-best single season average in NFL history. Arizona finished the 2023 season 4th in the NFL in rushing yards (2,365) and 2nd in rushing average (5.02) while leading the league with four games of 200+ rushing yards. The 2023 season marked just the second time since 1970 – and first time in 44 years – the Cardinals finished a season ranked in the top-5 in the league in rushing yards (3rd in 1979). It was the fourth-most rushing yards in a single-season in Cardinals history and the second-best rushing average in team annals.

Prior to coaching in Denver in 2022, Steele spent one season (2021) as the assistant offensive line coach with the Minnesota Vikings following two seasons with the Atlanta Falcons where he was an offensive assistant (2019) and tight ends coach (2020). Steele entered the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and worked for three seasons (2014-16) as an offensive quality control coach before coaching tight ends for two years (2017-18).

During his time in Minnesota, Steele helped mentor an offensive line that paved the way for RB Dalvin Cook and WR Justin Jefferson to produce 1,000-yard rushing and receiving seasons and QB Kirk Cousins to throw for over 4,000 yards and 33 TDs. All three were named to the Pro Bowl in 2021, as was Vikings RT Brian O'Neill, who earned his first career Pro Bowl selection that season. Behind an offensive line that allowed the fifth-fewest sacks in the NFL (30), the Vikings offense was one of just three (Dallas, Cincinnati) to feature a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher.

During his tenure in Atlanta, Steele coached TE Austin Hooper to his second Pro Bowl after catching 75 passes for 787 yards and six TDs in 2019. TE Hayden Hurst had a career-high 56 receptions for 571 yards (10.2-yard avg.) and six TDs in 2020.

In 2021, the Falcons were 6th in the NFL passing attempts, 2nd in passing yards and 3rd in total TDs while the team ranked 4th in passing attempts and 5th in passing yards in 2020. Steele entered the NFL with the Buccaneers where he spent five seasons (2014-18), including his final two years overseeing tight ends. While coaching tight ends in 2018, he helped TEs Cameron Brate and O.J. Howard combine for 64 receptions, 865 receiving yards and 11 TDs.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Steele spent six seasons at the collegiate level. He worked at the University of California-Davis as the tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator (2013) and as an offensive assistant at the University of California from 2011-12. Steele spent two years at the University of Colorado as an operations & recruiting assistant (2009) and as a graduate assistant (2010). He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Mesa State, as an offensive assistant in 2008.

Steele played tight end in the NFL after entering the league as an undrafted rookie free agent with San Francisco in 2001. Following a stint with the Frankfurt Galaxy NFL Europe in 2002, he spent time with the Vikings during training camp in 2003 and 2004 before appearing in 17 career regular season games and one postseason contest with Green Bay (2004-05) where he had four receptions for 42 yards and a fumble recovery.

He played two seasons collegiately at Fort Lewis College (1997-98) before finishing his career at Mesa State University (1999-2000). As a senior at Mesa State, Steele received All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference honors.

A native of Palisade, CO, Steele graduated from Mesa State with a bachelor's degree in Communications with an emphasis in Broadcasting. He and his wife, Rachel, have three daughters: Cora, Theresa and Elise; and two sons: Creed and Luke.

CARDINALS UNVEIL LATEST STADIUM INNOVATION: CASA ROJA AT THE FIFTY

In 2025 the Cardinals are again elevating the gameday experience at State Farm Stadium with the unveiling of "Casa Roja at the Fifty," an exclusive collaboration with acclaimed restaurateur and hotelier Sam Fox, Arizona's visionary hospitality innovator.

Casa Roja
AT THE FIFTY
A Sam Fox Experience

Nestled beneath the stadium's east side at the coveted 50-yard line, Casa Roja at the Fifty redefines premium sports entertainment. This underground experience is accessible only to an exclusive set of ticket holders, with entry granted solely through one of the 500 premium seats positioned at midfield.

When descending into Casa Roja, guests are transported into a sophisticated oasis where modern Spanish design meets urban energy. Multiple culinary stations showcase an all-inclusive, thoughtfully-crafted menu that reflects Fox's renowned culinary vision, providing ticket holders with an exceptional dining journey before returning to their prime midfield seats for unparalleled views of the action.

The entire design and development of the club – from inception to completion – is being executed by Fox and his team behind The Global Ambassador Hotel in Phoenix, Arizona, and The Twelve Thirty Club in Nashville, Tennessee.

"As an organization, we're striving to make forward progress in every aspect of our operation and that certainly includes at State Farm Stadium on game days," said Cardinals Chief Operating Officer Jeremy Walls. "It is important for us to provide the best possible experience for fans with varying preferences and the moves we've made in recent years demonstrate that commitment. We're proud to offer pricing that is among the most affordable in the NFL. At the same time, there's clearly high interest among some fans for a more elevated experience and we are intentional about providing options to meet that demand as well. We are thrilled to introduce Casa Roja at the Fifty as the latest initiative in this on-going effort."

"We're creating something truly special with Casa Roja at the Fifty that goes beyond what fans expect at a sporting venue," said Sam Fox. "It's an honor to partner with the Cardinals once again, building on the success we had with the Morgan Athletic Club. This new collaboration gives us the opportunity to bring the same level of hospitality, design and culinary excellence that guests experience at our properties to State Farm Stadium."

Casa Roja at the Fifty will welcome ticket holders 90 minutes before kickoff and extend its hospitality for a full hour after the final whistle. Beyond gameday exclusivity, members will enjoy premium benefits year-round, including reserved preferred parking spaces on game days and priority access to third-party events at State Farm Stadium, from headline concerts to major sporting events.

Beyond luxury spaces, the stadium's complete refresh includes vibrant new concessions featuring five celebrated local restaurant partners—innovations that propelled the Cardinals to #7 in the NFL's Voice of the Fan surveys.

THE VISIONARY BEHIND THE EXPERIENCE: Sam Fox brings unparalleled hospitality expertise to Casa Roja at the Fifty. With over 170 restaurants opened throughout his career and 12 James Beard Award nominations, Fox has established himself as one of the industry's most innovative minds. ## BIDWILL RECEIVES "IN THE ARENA AWARD" FROM THE MCCAIN INSTITUTE

In May, Cardinals owner Michael Bidwill received the 2025 "In The Arena Award" from the McCain Institute at the organization's signature annual event, the Sedona Forum, at the Enchantment Resort in Sedona, AZ.

According to the McCain Institute, its "In The Arena Award" is given annually to "salute extraordinary, character-driven leaders who conspicuously and bravely fight to defend human rights, foster security and advance freedom through action. The award reflects the ways in which the late Senator John McCain proudly modeled and espoused the philosophy set forth in Teddy Roosevelt's famous 1910 "Man in the Arena" speech praising those who have the courage and determination to get In The Arena and fight for a cause, rather than critiquing from the sidelines."

The McCain Institute cited Michael's leadership following the wildfires that broke out in Los Angeles County in January of 2025 and for his longstanding commitment to public service and civic education. Senator McCain's wife, Cindy, and his son, Jack, were on hand to present the honor.

In response to the devastating wildfires in January, Bidwill spearheaded the Cardinals organization's efforts to host the Los Angeles Rams for their Wild Card playoff matchup vs. Minnesota. The extraordinary undertaking involved flying the Rams players, coaches, staff and families to Arizona, hosting practices at the Dignity Health Arizona Cardinals Training Center in Tempe and hosting the Monday night game at State Farm Stadium in front of a sellout crowd of 64,515 fans. It marked the first time in NFL history a postseason game had been relocated due to a natural disaster.

The McCain Institute also noted Bidwill's efforts to enhance civics education in Arizona schools through the team's Civics Matters Arizona program. Now in its fourth year, Civics Matters Arizona is the Cardinals civic education program that annually provides a life-changing experience for more than 275 students from Arizona high schools. Students from across the state, most of whom are from Title I communities, travel on the Cardinals team plane to Washington, D.C. for a four-day, all-expenses-paid trip to experience the nation's capital. The students meet with elected officials, experience historical sites and get a behind-the-scenes look at how government works in a way that is both educational and fun.

ABOUT THE MCCAIN INSTITUTE: Inspired by the legacy of Senator John McCain and his family's dedication to public service, the McCain Institute fights for democracy, human dignity, and security. Its vision is a world that is free, safe, and just for all people. A nonpartisan organization based in Washington, D.C., its programs aim to defend democracy, advance human rights, and empower character-driven leaders. The McCain Institute's unique power to convene leaders across the global political spectrum enables it to make a real impact on the world's most pressing challenges.

ABOUT THE SEDONA FORUM: As the McCain Institute's signature annual event, the Sedona Forum provides a unique opportunity for United States and world leaders to have informal, face-to-face discussions about real solutions to world problems. It is held each spring in the red rock country of Sedona, AZ, to bring about positive change in national and world affairs.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Offensive Lineman Kelvin Beachum is in his sixth season with the Cardinals after previously playing in New York, Jacksonville and Pittsburgh. One common theme for Beachum throughout his NFL career has been his community impact across the globe.

Beachum is a two-time Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee after he was honored by the Cardinals in 2021 following his first selection with the Jets in 2018. He was the first and only five-time NFLPA Community MVP winner (2016-2019, 2022) and the 2018 United Way Hometown Hero. Beachum also currently serves as a task force member for the Players Coalition where he focuses on education equity.

Closing the "digital divide" is of particular significance to Beachum and was the topic of an NFL.com op-ed that he penned where he expressed concern for minority students in underserved communities lacking access to the Internet and technology resources. During the 2021 season, he donated over 40 laptops and tablets to Arizona schools to address those concerns and help bridge that divide.

In October of 2021, he announced the NFL's Player Coalition's donation of $50,000 to help install new internet access points for 25 school campuses in the Ector County Independent School District in West Texas, and in 2020, he made a $15,000 donation through Donors Choose to fund 34 projects across Arizona school districts to support STEM education resources, diverse books for classroom libraries and clean water access.

Providing access to clean water has long been an important cause to Beachum as well. Last season, he supported World Vision and the organization's goal to ensure access to clean water for all through the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative. The collaboration was especially meaningful as the cleats were designed by a student at the Mesa Youth Creative Agency, a nonprofit organization that provides teens with part-time employment and helps fuel their passion for arts.

During the 2024 offseason, Beachum personally donated $30,000 and fundraised another $15,000 to build three water wells in Africa through World Vision to provide clean water access. In March of last year, he and his wife traveled to Zambia to see the functioning water wells and their impact in the community.

During his time with the New York Jets, he donated $10,000 to the United Way of Newark to provide 100,000 water bottles to residents in need following the Newark Water Crisis in 2019. During a November game at MetLife Stadium, he organized a 1-for-1 match challenge. For every water bottle sold, one would be donated to the United Way of Greater Newark. The initiative generated a donation of 26,000 water bottles to families with compromised water.

Beachum is also passionate about ending hunger and addressing food insecurity. A monthly volunteer at the United Food Bank, he has ensured that the Cardinals rookie class has gotten involved with the Phoenix community each of the last two seasons. Last November, he and Paris Johnson Jr. lead the 2024 rookie class in handing out turkeys, fresh produce and other food items to over 250 Phoenix area families. Beachum also personally donated $5,000 towards the cause. The year prior he hosted a food packing event at the United Food Bank in September where rookies and players in their first season with the team helped him serve their new home. In November of 2023, he again partnered with the United Food Bank for a holiday turkey drive that provided over 230 Arizona families with Thanksgiving dinner.

Beachum hosted an event in May of 2022 with some of his teammates where he partnered with Safeway/Albertsons to pack meals and donate 200,000 meals in Mesa. During the 2023 offseason, he hosted a food distribution for 500 families in his hometown (Mexia, TX) with the Central Texas Food Bank and HEB with each household receiving 75 pounds of food.

Working as Ambassador at Large for the Central Texas Food Bank, Beachum created a monthly mobile food pantry to feed families in his hometown of Mexia, and in 2017, helped raise $100,000 while matching that contribution. In 2019, he hosted a large scale, drive-thru food distribution in Mexia in partnership with HEB and the Central Texas Food Bank that fed over 3,000 families. Beachum has contributed his time and financial resources to the Houston Food Bank, Pittsburgh Food Bank, Feeding Northeast Florida Food Bank and the Food Bank of New York City (Harlem) in addition to his current work with United Food Bank in Arizona.

Beachum celebrated World Food Day 2018 with a fan match initiative that raised $75,000 for the above food banks, which helped serve more than 327,000 meals in his home state and every market he's played in. In 2015, he also partnered with the Bread for the World organization with the goal of ending hunger in the U.S. and around the world by lobbying Congress to improve summer food programs for school children and pass the Global Food Security Act in 2016.

In 2016, Beachum created "Kelvin Konnects," a STEAM initiative and program designed to increase minority access to careers within the Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Mathematics disciplines. As part of that program, Beachum adopted the Barack Obama Male Leadership Academy in Dallas. This adoption included hosting a speaker series with industry leaders, local and federally elected officials, providing STEAM programming and curriculum support, funding field trips and college visits, and providing teacher development opportunities.

In 2020, the Beachum family hosted a food and Christmas tree donation for 100 families at Sirrine Elementary School in Chandler, AZ through a partnership with Lowe's and the United Food Bank. In 2021, he partnered with World Vision to provide 500 backpacks filled with school supplies to Sun Valley Academy in Phoenix. In 2023, Beachum again supported students going back to school by donating backpacks, books and other school supplies to the Mesa Public Schools District.

In his capacity as a professional speaker, Beachum has delivered keynote addresses at the IT Senior Management Forum Conference, Walsh Hunger Summit at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton and Texas Project Lead the Way Summit. He has also contributed to numerous speaker series and panels on topics such as leadership, diversity and inclusion, web3 and crypto and technology. He also currently sits on the Advisory Board Committee for the U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Foundation.

Beachum and his wife, Jessica, are avid art collectors. Their "Beachum Family Collection" has loaned pieces to museums across the country. In February 2022 and May 2023, they opened two exhibitions featuring selections from their collection at SMU and Baylor, respectively. The two campuses are the alma maters of Kelvin and Jessica Beachum. In May 2023, he was awarded the "In the Arena award" from the McCain Institute at the Sedona Forum for his humanitarian work worldwide.

CARDINALS OPEN FLAG FOOTBALL CAMPUS AT STATE FARM STADIUM

Last September, the Cardinals announced that the team joined forces with State Farm to create the "Cardinals Flag Football Experience," the first-ever flag football campus located at an NFL stadium.

The incredibly-unique experience continues the Cardinals on-going efforts to grow the game of flag football and gives fans of all ages and skill levels the opportunity to play just steps away from where the professionals compete.

Located at the stadium's southwest side near 95th Avenue and the South Loop Road, the "Cardinals Flag Football Experience" features three painted fields lined for action. Games will be played on a manicured Bermuda grass surface like the one that the Cardinals and their opponents play on at State Farm Stadium. Each of the fields have shaded benches for the teams and grandstands for the fans to enjoy the action.

On game days, the action starts three hours prior to kickoff of each Cardinals home contest and fields can be reserved for one-hour timeslots. Participants will receive access to discounted group Cardinals tickets, parking passes, and everything needed to play a game – flags, footballs, referees, game clocks, and water provided by Dasani, the official "Hydration Partner" of the Cardinals Flag Football Experience.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Quarterback Jacoby Brissett enters his first season with the Cardinals in 2025. He has played for five other NFL franchises during his career, each of which he left a lasting impact on.

In March of 2023, Brissett on behalf of the Players Coalition donated $30,000 to elementary schools throughout his home state of Florida. The donation provided support to over 100 qualifying low-income families and provided students with free computers and two years of tech support.

Brissett's character and charitable efforts earned him the Colts Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nomination in 2020. Leading up to his selection, he attended every Colts Community Monday event in addition to promoting voting advocacy and societal change on his own. His community work resulted in 100% of the team registering to vote for the 2020 elections. He also again collaborated with the Players Coalition to donate $100,000 to public schools in Palm Beach and Indianapolis for Internet hotspots for students utilizing virtual educational methods at home during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Brissett also helped lead the way for the Colts Breaking Barriers initiative — which supports organizations and efforts that battle systemic racism and reduce barriers to opportunity with a focus on racial equity, economic and educational mobility, community/police relations, voter education and criminal justice reform.

As part of his own social change efforts, Brissett annually organizes a community bicycle ride called "Start the Cycle" in his hometown of West Palm Beach, FL in hopes to unify and create open dialogue between community members and local law enforcement. The event first began in 2020 and features hundreds of bicycles, backpacks and meals donated to local children.

In addition to his regular weekly community service with the Colts on Mondays, Brissett was a regular at the team's tentpole community events during his time in Indianapolis. In October of 2019, he hosted the team's first ever "haunted runway" where Colts players modeled different costumes for and celebrated Halloween with kids who are living with a life-threatening condition. Each December, he would partake in caroling at Riley Hospital for Children to spread holiday cheer to patients.

Throughout his NFL career, the two-time team captain has served as a leader both on the field and in the communities he lived in. From meal distributions to police relations to cancer awareness, Brissett has shared the love and used his platform to champion an array of deserving causes.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Defensive lineman Calais Campbell returns to Arizona for his 18th NFL season and 10th with the Cardinals. During his time in the NFL, Campbell has established himself as one of the league's leading philanthropists through his work with the franchises he played for as well as through his "CRC Foundation."

In 2019 with Jacksonville, Campbell was named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year. He was nominated for the award twice previously by the Cardinals in 2011 and 2014. Campbell also won the Alan Page Community Award in 2023, the Art Rooney Sportsmanship award in 2022 and the Bart Starr Award in 2019.

Calais founded the "CRC Foundation" in 2010, named after his late father, Charles Richard Campbell. The foundation aims to help their communities reach their full potential by investing in youth mentorship and education and providing resources to help every person with the opportunity to live out their dreams.

In December of 2024, he hosted the 16th annual "Christmas with Calais" holiday shopping event, sharing a meal and giving 50 Boys & Girls Club youth a shopping spree.

Earlier last year, he joined Dolphins teammates Terron Armstead and Jaylen Waddle in co-hosting and funding a holiday shopping event for local youth from Big Brothers Big Sisters and other South Florida nonprofits.

After recording his 100th career sack in 2023 with the Falcons, Campbell launched the "100 Sack Give Back" initiative, where he donated $100,000 across 100 teachers, 25 in each of the cities he played professional football in at the time – Phoenix, Jacksonville, Baltimore and Atlanta. Each teacher received $500 worth of school supplies and $500 to purchase additional resources for their classroom. In addition to his initial donation, Campbell donated a total of $20,000 to teachers in Denver, where he went to high school, and Miami, where he went to college.

In May of 2022 through his CRC Foundation, Campbell donated $20,000 during Mental Health Awareness Month to provide 12 Baltimore teens with three months of therapy sessions as part of strategic initiatives to expand access to mental health care.

While with Baltimore in 2021, Campbell joined multiple team initiatives including a campaign against opioid addition, voting advocacy and fundraising for COVID-19 relief. He also donated $30,000 to his alma mater – South High School in Denver – to fund the process of switching its nickname from the "Rebels" to the "Ravens" from new uniforms, gym flooring and school signage.

In 2020, Campbell led multiple initiatives addressing racism including a virtual discussion with a Baltimore area high school as well as partnering with Old Spice to host a discussion on the film "Black Boys" with local students. That November, he launched the "Charles Richard Campbell Lend-A-Hand Fund" to assist select Baltimore County households with emergency bill assistance.

He instituted "Campbell's Season of Giving" in 2019 during which he donated $1,000 for every Jaguars win, $5,000 for each of his sacks and $2,000 for every tackle for loss. Campbell finished the 2019 season with 6.5 sacks and 10 tackles for loss amassing a total donation of over $50,000.

In June 2019, he hosted 250 children at the Calais Campbell JaxPAL Youth Football STEM Camp. At the camp, Campbell served as an on-field instructor and helped promote the importance of STEM education.

Upon joining Jacksonville in 2017, he established the "CRC Book Club" through his foundation. As part of the program he made semi-weekly youth mentorship trips to local middle schools. Campbell also partnered with the Kids Hope Alliance to make appearances at Northeast Florida schools to discuss social justice issues.

Campbell took home the NFLPA Community MVP award for the first time in October of 2016 after passing out 300 turkeys and Thanksgiving dinners to those in need at South Pointe Elementary in Phoenix. Afterwards, he participated in the school's turkey trot at a local park.

In 2015, Campbell donated $1.6 million to his alma mater, the University of Miami, to establish the Calais Campbell Football Defensive Lineman Endowment and provide a full scholarship for a defensive lineman.

Campbell has hosted a variety of events through his foundation, including an annual golf tournament and Thanksgiving turkey drive that feeds approximately 500 families. Campbell also represented the Cardinals in 2014 and 2015 as part of the NFL's "PLAY 60" movement at the White House for the annual Easter Egg Roll on the South Lawn that was hosted by First Lady Michelle Obama. As one of eight children, Calais has continued to award two college scholarships each year to students from large families through his foundation.

During his first stint with the Cardinals, Campbell led a wide range of community events. In partnership with the Valley of the Sun United Way, 2015 was the first year of "Calais' Book Club," a month-long reading program for seventh graders at Long View Elementary School.

In 2015, Calais was named the Byron Whizzer White nominee from the Cardinals, the highest community service honor presented by the NFLPA. That followed up him being presented the Pop Warner Football Humanitarian Award in May of 2015 for his athletic achievements and work in the community.

Calais established the "Cheer for a Cause" program. At every Cardinals home game in 2013-15, CRC Foundation representatives selected one fan wearing a Campbell jersey as a winner. Winners received a donation to a charity of their choice from Calais, with the amount dependent on his game performance. (The CRC Foundation donated $500 for a team win, $1,000 for a one-sack game, and culminates with $15,000 for a five-sack game).

Campbell also partnered with United Way and the NFL as the Cardinals spokesperson to promote reading and the importance of education. In addition to helping to recruit volunteer readers, tutors and mentors, Campbell took part in the United Way's Great Phoenix Literacy Fair to promote the importance of literacy of elementary school students. In March of 2013, he was the keynote speaker to a group of college students at Deloitte and United Way's Alternate Spring Break. In February of 2014, he was the keynote speaker at a Generation United event for the Valley of the Sun United Way where he spoke to 200 young professionals about the importance of community service.

While in Arizona, Campbell made it his mission to empower local youth. He joined Cardinals teammates for a Christmas party in 2014 at the Mary Black Family and Child Services Agency. In 2013, Campbell and the CRC Foundation launched "Right Track," a daily after-school program that served students from the Roosevelt School District in South Phoenix. He also represented the team at Jefferson Elementary School in 2011 and led students in fitness activities as part of the NFL's PLAY 60 program. Jefferson was selected as a Super School and won a $10,000 grant from the NFL for health and wellness programming and equipment.

Previously, Campbell joined representatives from the Cardinals and Albertsons and distributed 50 meals to current and former residents of the Chicanos Por La Causa shelter during Thanksgiving of 2010. The CLPC shelter provides safe, temporary housing for women and their children who have been forced to leave their homes due to domestic violence. He also distributed 40 turkey dinners to families in the Chandler School District at Hamilton High School and Hancock Elementary to help brighten the holidays of those in need that same year.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Running back James Conner began his journey in Arizona in 2021 after spending eight years in the city of Pittsburgh as a Pittsburgh Panther and Pittsburgh Steeler. A published author, Conner's moving story as a cancer survivor has inspired many and created a significant impact in the community.

Last December, Conner took part in a bike donation event that provided 100 underserved children from Boys and Girls Clubs of the Valley with brand-new bicycles in celebration of the holiday season.

In May of 2024, he served on the Cardinals Leadership & Mental Health Awareness discussion panel in celebration of Mental Health Awareness month. The discussion gave 75 Arizona high school football coaches and administrators the knowledge and skills to improve their football programs, including how to help student-athletes take care of their mental health.

In August of 2023, Conner attended the Eastmark High School football team's home opener in support of Eastmark senior Kevin Winegar. Just weeks after winning the Arizona 3A State Championship last fall with the Firebirds, Winegar was diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia. To raise awareness and funds, the school hosted a special "Winegar Strong" night at the game benefiting the Children's Cancer Network and the Winegar Strong athletic scholarship. Having gone through a similar experience, Conner and Winegar quickly formed a bond. The two survivors re-connected at State Farm Stadium prior to the Cardinals-Bengals Week 5 matchup in October of 2023.

In 2022, he represented the Cardinals and participated in "Giving Tuesday" at Phoenix Children's Hospital. On the Tuesday following Thanksgiving each year, people can bring positive changes to their communities through charitable donations to their favorite nonprofit organizations. Conner helped raise money for Phoenix Children's as the Cardinals triple matched all donations that day.

In 2021 during training camp, Conner participated in a zoom meeting with members of the Cardinals and NFL Flag Football Girls program and shared his advice and experience as a professional athlete.

In November of 2020, he donated 200 turkeys to the Second Harvest Food Bank of Northwestern Pennsylvania in his hometown of Erie, PA. He also partnered with Steelers teammates Cameron Heyward, Maurkice Pouncey and JuJu Smith-Schuster to provide local agencies with turkeys and Thanksgiving meals, serving more than 950 families in Pittsburgh, Erie and Long Beach, CA.

In honor of World Cancer Day, Conner visited patients at UMPC Hillman Cancer Center in February of 2020. His goal was a simple one, to encourage and bring hope to patients battling cancer.

In January of 2020, he teamed up with USAA and the Air Force Sergeants Association to award Command Chief Master Sergeant Louis Boykin with a trip to Miami to watch Super Bowl LIV. Conner then met Boykin and other military members in the USAA Salute to Service Lounge during Super Bowl Weekend.

In October of 2019, as a frequent participant in the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Conner surprised Andre Jenkins, a 19-year-old undergoing treatment for leukemia with tickets to the Steelers Monday Night Football game.

That same month, Conner was named a recipient of the 2019 Ed Block Courage Award, an award voted on by teammates and given to a player who has shown courage either coming back from an injury or a life-altering situation.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Running back DeeJay Dallas joined the Cardinals in 2024 following four seasons in Seattle (2020-23), but wasted no time representing his new team in the community.

He participated in several Cardinals community events in his first year in Arizona, including the team's Salute to Service STEM Day where approximately 650 students enjoyed a variety of demonstrations led by players, members of the military and first responders that pertained to careers in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics).

Shortly after signing with Arizona as a free agent last March, Dallas joined his new teammate Trey McBride in Poland on an NFL-USO trip. The visit spanned four days. Dallas visited six different military bases and hundreds of troops where he observed military equipment demonstrations, participated in an Army combat fitness test, and joined in on a Madden gaming tournament – all while conducting meet and greets and sharing meals with service members. A special moment of the trip came when Dallas met with service members from the Arizona National Guard, who were all die-hard Cardinals fans. The trip was especially meaningful for Dallas as his brother, Amauri, is an active service member and is currently in Army Ranger School.

He established the DeeJay Dallas Foundation in 2023. The foundation's vision is to provide programs that enable youth to have experiences, develop skills and gain knowledge that will help them flourish in society. Since its inception, the DeeJay Dallas Foundation has been very active in the communities that DeeJay has lived and played in, primarily Brunswick, GA and Seattle, WA.

Events the foundation has hosted include a Charity Bowling Tournament, Silent Auction, Youth Football Camp, Winter Coat Drive, Health and Wellness Expo, Fundraising Gala, Scholarship Luncheon, Charity Golf Tournament and Mentoring Events, all of which Dallas hopes to host on an annual basis.

CARDINALS SEND HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS TO WASHINGTON D.C. ON TEAM PLANE

In June of 2025, the Cardinals joined forces with presenting partner Desert Financial Credit Union as well as Arizona Governor Katie Hobbs and the Close Up Foundation for the fourth annual "Civics Matters Arizona" trip to our nation's capital.

Through this highly-successful program, 275 high school students from across the state participated in an all-expenses-paid visit to Washington D.C. on the Cardinals team plane. The four-day, three-night trip took place from June 4-7.

The once-in-a-lifetime experience featured a red coat tour of the United States Capitol and private tour of the Supreme Court. The itinerary also included meetings with Supreme Court Justice Brett Kavanaugh and elected officials including Arizona Congressman Juan Ciscomani as well as issue deliberations and instructor-led visits to monuments, memorials, museums, and government institutions, providing students an opportunity to learn about civics in a way that is both educational and fun.

The Civics Matters Arizona program is a civic engagement initiative for high school students across the state. The program targets a diverse group of high schools and organizations serving Title I communities. Civics Matters Arizona engages students with their peers as well as their government and gives educators the tools and training to build positive dialogue in the classroom.

This year, 275 high school students from across the state were selected by their teachers to travel to Washington, D.C. The students who participated in Civics Matters Arizona represent 35 schools, 14 school districts, 9 cities, and 6 of the 15 counties across Arizona.

Ahead of the D.C. program, teachers worked with 10th and 11th grade students in a series of non-partisan lessons designed by Close Up. The lessons culminated in an essay contest in which students could write about (1) how young people can be engaged participants in their community even without the right to vote, (2) the importance of civic engagement by everyday people to the health of our democracy, or (3) how young people can contribute to creating positive community change.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Tackle Paris Johnson Jr. was the Cardinals first-round pick (6th overall) in the 2023 NFL Draft. Despite his age, Johnson has served the communities he's lived in for many years.

As a sophomore in high school in 2017, Johnson along with his mother, Monica, created his foundation - The Paris Johnson Jr. Foundation - with a focus on empowering and serving disabled veterans and disadvantaged student-athletes with dignity and respect.

Johnson took a leadership role in the locker room and in the community during his second NFL season. He had a prominent presence in two community events, the first of which was the team's Salute to Service STEM Day last October where approximately 650 students enjoyed a variety of demonstrations led by players, members of the military and first responders that pertained to careers in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics).

Last November, he and teammate Kelvin Beachum helped ensure that the Cardinals rookie class was getting involved with the Phoenix community. The veteran offensive linemen led the 2024 rookie class in handing out turkeys, fresh produce and other food items to over 250 Phoenix area families. Johnson also personally donated $5,000 towards the cause.

In December of 2023, Johnson helped honor a veteran, Sara Kerner, by providing her tickets to the Cardinals-Steelers game in partnership with the NFL's Salute to Service initiative. He spent time with Kerner and her family prior to the Cardinals, 24-10, victory. Johnson partnered with The Foster Alliance to help support the annual Cardinals Toy Drive a few weeks later prior to the Cardinals Week 15 matchup with the 49ers.

Johnson has joined forces with Coca-Cola each of the past three summers to host a Summer Water Drive benefiting UMOM New Day Centers, a provider of shelter, housing and services for those experiencing homelessness in Phoenix. In 2024, he was able to help donate 10,000 bottles of water.

In June of 2023, Johnson teamed up with Wilson Sporting Goods and the NFL to donate footballs, gear bags and apparel to two Cincinnati area high schools, including his alma mater Princeton (OH) High School.

Johnson's foundation was selected as the recipient of the 2022 Armed Forces Merit Award presented by the Football Writers Association of America for the assistance it provided to veterans. The award is presented annually to an individual or group within the realm of college football that has a military background or makes an impact on the military community. Prior to winning the award, Johnson and his foundation made regular visits to and helped raise money for the Cincinnati VA Hospital.

Johnson, inspired by his Ohio State teammate Harry Miller who has gone on a yearly mission to Nicaragua since he was a teenager, helped provide 100 beds for Nicaraguan children in need in February of 2022. The foundation also hosts several annual initiatives including youth football camps as well as holiday toy, coat and food drives.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Tight end Trey McBride enjoyed a record-setting season on the field in 2024. As he became one of Kyler Murray's favorite targets, McBride also found time to give back to the local community in a big way, earning the Cardinals/NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year nomination in 2024.

McBride recently established his own foundation, "McBride's Bridge." To kick off the nonprofit, he surprised two members of the Boys and Girls Club of Metro Louisiana with tickets to Super Bowl LIX in February during Super Bowl week.

Last November, he participated in the team's 22nd annual Feed the Hungry event which provided Thanksgiving dinner to hundreds of Arizonans who are escaping homelessness, addiction and poverty. The month before, McBride was also a part of a Salute to Service STEM event at Tillman Middle School where he taught students about inertia and gravity through the lens of film study.

He has also contributed to the Cardinals on-going pursuit to grow the game of girls flag football. In June of 2024, McBride hosted and helped instruct approximately 100 girls from four Arizona high school girls flag football programs during a series of agility drills and competition periods. In September of 2024, he had the honor of conducting the coin toss for the first-ever Cardinals Girls High School Flag Football Game of the Week that aired live across the state on Arizona's Family Sports.

During the 2024 offseason, McBride stayed engaged in the Phoenix community as well as the community that raised him. He returned to his hometown of Fort Morgan, CO to host his second annual free youth camp. Through the yearly camp, McBride provides mentorship and skills training to his hometown's next generation of players.

In March of 2024, McBride joined teammate DeeJay Dallas in Poland on an NFL-USO trip. The visit spanned four days. McBride visited six different military bases and hundreds of troops where he observed military equipment demonstrations, participated in an Army combat fitness test, and joined in on a Madden gaming tournament – all while conducting meet and greets and sharing meals with service members. A special moment of the trip came when McBride met with service members from the Arizona National Guard, who were all die-hard Cardinals fans.

Earlier that month, McBride joined Cardinals Cheerleaders in hosting the team's eighth annual "Tackle Reading Day". McBride read a book by beloved children's author Dr. Seuss to over 650 Valley elementary school students at Canyon Breeze Elementary School on what would have been the author's 120th birthday. The group from the Cardinals also donated books to individual students and the school's library. The events aim to inspire children at underserved schools to fall in love with reading.

In December of 2023, he hosted "A Catch For The Holidays", where 10 students from Bernard Black Elementary School in Phoenix were treated to a shopping spree at SCHEELS. Each child received a $1,000 gift card to spend at the store. McBride was joined by a dozen of his Cardinals teammates at the event, making it a truly memorable moment for all the students.

McBride's charitable efforts also centered around the holiday season in November that year when he attended the Annual Teen Thanksgiving Dinner at the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Scottsdale. McBride first served as a guest speaker and then served Thanksgiving dinner before sitting down and breaking bread with the group of underserved teens.

McBride is also a staple of team community events. He took part in an event at Hunkapi Horse Farm in November of 2023 when the Cardinals hosted 30 survivors from the Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) for a night of equine therapy and fun as part of the NFL's Salute to Service initiative. The players and participants rode and groomed horses and enjoyed a meal together.

In September of 2023, he attended a Phoenix Children's Hospital Birthday Party. All patients born in September were invited to join McBride and some of his teammates to celebrate their birthdays, play games and enjoy dessert in the hospital's child life zone. The visit to Phoenix Children's was McBride's second in a three-month span as he made bedside visits with pediatric patients in June of 2023.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Not one to seek recognition for his work in the community, Cardinals Pro Bowl quarterback Kyler Murray has quietly given back and supported those in need in Arizona, his home state of Texas and beyond during his career in the NFL.

In November of 2024, Murray established the Kyler Murray Foundation with a mission to inspire and support youth by providing educational resources and athletic opportunities, fostering a foundation for success in life. The KMF commitment to service also extends beyond youth empowerment with a deep dedication to supporting veterans.

To kick off the foundation's launch, Murray hosted seven Phoenix-based veterans at the Cardinals-Jets game on November 10 and met with the group on the field after the decisive win that earned him NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors.

Through a partnership with Call of Duty's charitable arm "Endowment," Murray has helped veterans' transition back into the workforce by securing high-quality job opportunities. His efforts included a $75,000 donation, which will create an estimated 125 job placements and an economic impact of $8.9 million through veterans' first-year salaries. His dedication to veterans embodies his belief in honoring those who have sacrificed for our freedom.

Though many of his community efforts have taken place behind the scenes, Murray brought together his teammates, fellow NFL stars and professional athletes and the phoenix community in May of 2025 when he hosted the first annual Kyler Murray Foundation Celebrity Softball Game at Salt River Fields. The star-studded event was attended by thousands of fans and helped raise money for a host of causes Murray supports through his foundation. In the lead up to the game, Murray visited the United Food Bank and helped pack meals for those in need.

Last March, Murray – whose maternal grandmother is from South Korea – gave back to his ancestral home through a pair of events put on by the KMF. In his first ever visit to Seoul, Murray visited a local children's hospital where he spent time with pediatric patients. Murray then held a youth football camp where he personally coached Korean QBs, WRs and DBs in an effort to spread the game he loves.

Later that month, Murray visited the Pacific Palisades Fire Department. In the aftermath of the L.A. Fires, he spent time with the fire fighters, signed autographs and toured the station all in appreciation of their service and sacrifices.

In December of 2023, he participated in the team's annual 'Shop with a Jock' event. Murray and a dozen of his Cardinals teammates partnered with Desert Financial Credit Union to treat 30 underserved youth from South Phoenix to a Holiday shopping spree. Each child received $1,000 to spend how they chose at a local Walmart prior to a pizza party.

In August of 2023, Murray participated in the opening coin toss at Mountain View High School in Mesa, AZ to commemorate one of the first Arizona Interscholastic Association (AIA) sanctioned girls flag football games in state history. In conjunction with the Cardinals, Nike provided a $100,000 check for Arizona high school girls flag football teams to purchase jerseys and turn what was once a dream into a reality.

In the final days before starting training camp in 2023, Murray surprised a group of four kids from A Permanent Voice with a back-to-school shopping spree at Dick's Sporting Goods. Founded in 2018, the organization is dedicated to giving underserved youth an opportunity to find their voice. The children Murray surprised were all being raised by their grandparents.

Particularly important to Murray is making special connections with his fans. During the 2020 season, he developed a friendship with 12-year-old Hector Nahle. Nahle, a youth quarterback from Mexico, was in the middle of getting treatment for cancer when the pair connected over Instagram. Murray sent him a special message over social media which started their relationship. The two stayed in touch over the past three years and when the Cardinals traveled to Mexico City to play the 49ers in 2022, Murray flew Hector as well as his father, mother and sister to the game and got them tickets and field passes.

Although he has lived in Arizona since being drafted by the Cardinals in 2019, Murray remains close to his hometown of Allen, TX. That was evident during the 2023 offseason following the tragic mass shooting in Allen. He donated $15,000 to one of the young survivors who lost his family in the shooting while also giving $10,000 to the general fund of the victims.

In February of 2021, Murray donated 60,000 meals to the North Texas Food Bank after that region's devastating winter storm that caused widespread power outages which resulted in residents not having heat or running water.

During the 2022 offseason, Murray took part in a $10,000 check presentation to the Arizona Educational Foundation on behalf of Kretschmar and Albertsons/Safeway. He also visited the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Valley for a youth skills camp and another $10,000 check presentation in support of the Boys & Girls Club's mission to provide a safe, positive and fun environment for kids during their time away from school.

Murray also actively served his community during the COVID-19 pandemic. With schools closing due to the outbreak, he pledged $25,000 to GENYOUth's COVID-19 Emergency School Nutrition Fund in April of 2020. He also participated in the NFL's Draft-a-Thon along with country music star Blake Shelton and NFL Network host Rich Eisen to help raise money for the fund. His generous contributions helped combat hunger by feeding children who depend on school meals, which were able to continue for thousands of students during the pandemic.

In January of 2020, Murray participated in the Twitch Rivals Streamer Bowl along with other NFL players. He finished second in the event and was awarded $80,000 to the charity of his choice – the Colon Cancer Coalition. Murray also joined Chase Edmonds and Christian Kirk for Twitch Stream Aid 2020 to raise money for charity and support COVID-19 relief efforts in March of 2021.

PATRICK PETERSON RETIRES A CARDINAL

In April, All-Pro CB Patrick Peterson announced his retirement from the NFL with the Cardinals at a press conference held in Arizona.

Peterson spent 10 seasons (2011-20) with the Cardinals after joining the team as a first-round selection (5th overall) in the 2011 NFL Draft out of LSU. An eight-time Pro Bowler and three-time first-team All-Pro selection – all with Arizona - Peterson was named to the 2010-19 All-Decade Team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame's selection committee.

• In 13 NFL seasons with the Cardinals (2011-20), Vikings (2021-22) and Steelers (2023), Peterson started 200-of-201 regular season games played and totaled 652 tackles, 36 interceptions, 122 passes defensed, 4.0 sacks, 15 tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

• He also had 195 punt returns for 1,816 yards, four kickoff returns for 75 yards, seven carries for 34 yards, 10 receptions for 64 yards and completed his lone career pass attempt for 17 yards.

• Peterson finished his NFL career with six total TDs -- four punt return TDs to go along with a pair of interception return TDs.

• In his 10 seasons in Arizona, the Pompano Beach, FL native was a five-time team captain (2013, 2015-18) and started all 154 games played, totaling 499 tackles, 28 interceptions, 91 passes defensed, 4.0 sacks, 2 forced fumbles, 10 tackles for loss and scored five TDs (4 punt return, 1 interception return).

• A two-time (2015 and '17) "Cardinals/Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year", Peterson established the "Patrick Peterson Foundation for Success" alongside his wife, Antonique. The foundation was created to provide low-income and inner-city youth with opportunities and resources to reach their full potential. In addition to his foundation work, he was also a regular participant in team community events, visiting the Phoenix Children's Hospital, Boys Hope Girls Hope, Phoenix Ronald McDonald House and countless local schools.

• He had multiple interceptions in nine of his 10 seasons in Arizona and joins Hall of Famers Larry Wilson and Aeneas Williams as the only players in team history that had multiple interceptions in each of his first six seasons.

• Peterson was selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first eight NFL seasons (2011-18), becoming the first player in team history to accomplish that feat. His eight consecutive Pro Bowl selections are also a franchise record. Peterson joins wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald (11) and Hall of Fame safety Larry Wilson (8) as the only players in Cardinals history to be named to the Pro Bowl at least eight times.

• He was named first-team All-Pro three times during his Cardinals tenure, with two selections at cornerback (2023. 2015) and one as a punt returner (2011).

• Peterson started all 128 games during his first eight seasons in Arizona, becoming the first Cardinal since at least the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to start 100+ consecutive games to begin his career.

• As a rookie in 2011, he tied an NFL record and became just the fourth player in league history to return four punts for TDs during a single season. He remains the lone player in NFL history with four punt return TDs of 80+ yards in a single season (80, 82, 89 and 90 yards).

CARDINALS HOST GIRLS FLAG FOOTBALL SKILLS AND EDUCATION CAMP

In June, the Cardinals hosted the team's annual Girls Flag Football Skills & Education Camp presented by Dignity Health at the Dignity Health Arizona Cardinals Training Center.

The Cardinals 2025 rookie class helped instruct approximately 100 girls from four Arizona high school girls flag football programs (Hamilton High School, Basha High School, Highland High School and Casa Grande Union High School) during a series of agility drills and competition periods.

Prior to the on-field activities, participants took part in an education session to promote healthy eating habits and lifestyle choices.

CARDINALS GIRLS FLAG FOOTBALL: Supporting girls flag football is a well-established priority for the Cardinals. The team impacts thousands of high school and youth girls flag football players across the state of Arizona annually through a variety of introductory programs, camps, showcases, tournaments and equipment donations. The Cardinals were the first NFL team to broadcast and fully produce a Girls High School Flag Football Game of the Week through a partnership with Arizona's Family. The Cardinals established a partnership with the Positive Coaching Alliance that pledged $70,000 to help support girls flag football in the state of Arizona and eliminate gender inequity in youth sports. The team has also held girls flag football games at State Farm Stadium during halftime of the Cardinals games each of the past three seasons.

GIRLS FLAG FOOTBALL IN ARIZONA: Arizona is one of 15 states to offer high school girls flag football as a sanctioned sport. In 2024, over 100 Arizona high schools offered girls flag football.

GROWTH OF FLAG FOOTBALL: Flag football is the most accessible and inclusive version of American football and is contributing to worldwide participation growth of the sport, particularly among women and girls. An estimated 20 million people in more than 100 countries currently participate in flag football. Flag football will be included in the 2028 Summer Olympics in Los Angeles marking the first time that the game of football in any capacity will be a part of the Olympic Games.

DEVLIN THE NEWEST RECIPIENT OF ROD GRAVES COLLEGE SCOUTING AWARD

In 2021 the Cardinals established the Rod Graves College Scouting Award. Named in honor of former Cardinals general manager, Rod Graves, and given annually to the team's top scout, the award is based on multiple years of analytical research and prospect grade accuracy.

Area Scout Zach Devlin, who has been with the Cardinals since 2017, received the award during the 2025 NFL Draft. Now in his ninth season with Arizona, and fifth as an area scout, Devlin originally joined the team's scouting department as a scouting assistant in 2017. He was then promoted and spent three years (2018-20) as the team's representative with the National Football Scouting service.

The Rod Graves College Scouting Awarde goes to the scout who most exhibits what it means to do such a job with the Cardinals, including passion and drive, hustle, competency in evaluations, and putting the team first.

After receiving the award, Cardinals GM Monti Ossenfort allowed Knight to make the phone call to inform UAB WR Tejhaun Palmer that the team was selecting him in the sixth round of this year's draft.

Graves spent 16 of his 31 NFL seasons with the Cardinals as the team's Assistant to the President (1997-2002), Vice President of Football Operations (2003-2006) and General Manager (2007-2012). Particularly successful at building rosters through the draft, Graves help lead the Cardinals to back-to-back NFC West titles and a Super Bowl XLIII appearance in his first two years as GM.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Defensive lineman Dalvin Tomlinson joined the Cardinals this past March and came to the Valley with a bevy of experience both on the gridiron and in the community. Tomlinson was nominated for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award with the Giants in 2020 for his dedication to community service.

He also won the NFLPA Community MVP award in Week 9 of 2022 with Minnesota after hosting six families from the Brighter Days Family Grief Center, an organization that provides support to kids and young adults who are grieving the death or terminal diagnosis of a family member, at a Vikings home game. The families had a special meet-and-greet on the field pre-game with Tomlinson, who took pictures, signed autographs and shared words of encouragement.

Tomlinson has a personal connection to that cause as he lost his father to cancer when he was five years old and his mother to complications from diabetes during his senior year in high school. He has connected with and served as a positive outlet for hundreds of grieving families in his home state of Georgia (Kate's Club) and the states in which he has played in his career: New Jersey (Good Grief) and Minnesota (Brighter Days).

Tomlinson has found ways to incorporate his passions into his service efforts. He is an avid gamer and in November of 2022, Tomlinson used video games to connect with veterans in celebration of Salute to Service month. He led veterans from the Wounded Warrior Project on a tour of the Vikings facility before playing video games with the group. While with the Giants, Tomlinson, a talented musician who plays piano, trumpet and the drums, participated in a virtual band class for students from Belleville (NJ) Middle School.

Leading up to his WPMOY nomination, Tomlinson served as the "team captain" of a group of ten players and three coaches focused on establishing relationships and programming in the borough of Queens, N.Y. Under his leadership with help from the New York City Police Department, an after-school academic tutoring and flag football program was established in an area that needed it most. Tomlinson regularly checked in with the kids participating in the program and helped find ways to provide resources and financial support for the cause.

Following his selection as the Giants WPMOY nominee, Tomlinson chose to support two organizations near and dear to his heart specifically to honor his late parents. For his mother, Tomlinson served as a member of American Diabetes Association's Team Tackle Initiative, a group of current and retired NFL players who raise support for diabetes funding and supported the American Cancer Society as a Crucial Catch Ambassador in memory of his dad. He was also nominated by the Giants for the 2019 Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award.

Tomlinson has supported a litany of causes during his time in the NFL both on his own and with the franchises he played for. From mental health to cancer awareness to youth development, the defensive tackle has cast a wide charitable net, filling several holes in the communities he called home.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Linebacker Mack Wilson Sr. came to the Valley in 2024 after spending time in New England (2022-23) and Cleveland (2019-21) to begin his NFL career. Wilson is no stranger to giving back, especially when it comes to Autism, a cause that is near-and-dear to his heart.

Wilson's godson and nephew are both impacted by autism. Upon entering the NFL in 2019 he immediately knew he wanted to get involved. While searching for an organization that worked with children on the spectrum, Wilson was directed to "KultureCity" by Basketball Hall of Famer Dominique Wilkins who currently serves as the non-profit's board chairman. KultureCity strives to "make the nevers possible" by creating sensory accessibility and inclusion for those with "invisible disabilities."

Wilson has supported the organization since his rookie season, representing KultureCity through the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative as he wears customized cleats promoting the nonprofit annually. Each year, Wilson sends one of his game-worn cleats to his nephew and the other to his godson.

Wilson has held charity celebrity sporting events in his hometown of Montgomery, AL and in Phoenix each of the last three summers. Wilson held a softball game in 2021 and 2022 prior to switching the event to a basketball game in 2023. He brought the celebrity basketball game to Phoenix in May of 2025. The event was accompanied by a community day featuring youth activities, face painting, food and more.

In May of 2024, Wilson held his first celebrity basketball game where he provided youth in attendance with free food, giveaways and fun activities including bouncy houses and face painting. Wilson was joined by some of his former teammates from his time in the NFL and at Alabama as well as Pro Football Hall of Famer Terrell Owens at the game. Last year's game was the main event of the Montgomery Health & Wellness City Fest.

All proceeds from his annual celebrity sporting events go to the Make a Difference Foundation, which was founded by Wilson's godfather, Todd Dowell. The Make a Difference Foundation strives to help youth achieve excellence by emphasizing character development, team building and leadership skills. The foundation pushes young athletes to compete in a safe nurturing environment. An environment that Wilson cites helping get him to where he is today.

Wilson also participated in several Cardinals community events during his first season with the team, including Youth Training Camps in September and December. Youth Training Camps are designed to teach football-related skills in a non-contact environment. The program conveys a message of teamwork and personal best while reinforcing the importance of education and physical activity. In

Prior to coming to the Cardinals, Wilson was an active member of the community during his time with the Patriots and Browns. He frequently volunteered at food banks, hospitals and schools with the teams and on his own.

| Buffalo Bills | 0 | 10 | 14 | 10 | — | 34 |

The Cardinals opened the 2024 regular season on a breezy and unseasonably chilly (60 degree) afternoon in Buffalo against the Bills. Led by QB Kyler Murray, Arizona scored on its first three possessions of the game (TD-FG-TD) and had a 17-3 with 2:40 left in the 2nd quarter. But Buffalo scored TDs to close the 2nd quarter and open the 3rd and led by 11 with 8:44 to go in the game. AZ battled back and DeeJay Dallas' 96-yard kickoff return – the NFL's first under the "dynamic kickoff" format - jump-started that effort. The Cards trailed by 6 with 1:56 to go and took over at their own 40. They would advance to the BUF29 but could not finish the comeback after turning it over on downs.

Arizona opened the game with the ball first and marched 70 yards in 13 plays; 8 of them involved RB James Conner who ran 6 times for 10 yards and caught a pair or passes for 31 yards on the drive. It ended when Murray found WR Michael Wilson in the end zone on 3rd-n-goal from the 5 to make it 7-0. Buffalo responded by moving to the AZ19 but DL Roy Lopez halted it there when he sacked QB Josh Allen, forcing a fumble that fellow DL Justin Jones recovered. From there, Murray moved the Cards 60 yards in 10 plays to set up a 29-yard FG from Matt Prater that made it 10-0. Buffalo again penetrated deep into AZ territory; after a 4-yard Allen rushing TD was wiped out by a facemask penalty, Tyler Bass' 37-yard FG trimmed Arizona's lead to 10-3. The Cards responded with another lengthy drive (13 plays, 71 yards) in which Murray completed 6 of 8 passes for 43 yards and ran once for 12. When Conner capped it with his 3-yard TD run, Arizona had scored on its first three drives of the season for the first time since 2006 and led 17-3 with 2:40 left in the half. With :45 to go before intermission, the Bills were at the AZ41 when LB Zaven Collins sacked Allen back to the 50 but referee Tra Blake threw a drive-changing flag for unnecessary roughness. Three plays later, Allen scored on a run from 7 yards out to make it a 17-10 game at halftime.

The Bills opened the second half with a game-tying TD drive; it covered 60 yards in 10 plays and Allen's 11-yard TD pass to WR Mack Hollins on 3rd-n-10 knotted the game at 17. With 5:30 to go in the 3rd, Murray lost the ball on a sack by Bills DE Greg Rousseau and Buffalo took over at the AZ21. Five plays later, WR Khalil Shakir caught a 10-yard TD pass from Allen and Buffalo led 24-17 with 2:37 to go in the 3rd quarter. Arizona responded by marching to the BUF12 and came away with three points on Prater's 31-yard FG that cut Buffalo's lead to 4 early in the 4th. The Bills margin grew back to 11 midway through the 4th when Allen's 6-yard TD run capped a 10-play, 70-yard drive and made it 31-20 with 8:31 remaining. But Arizona got an immediate jolt when Dallas returned the ensuing kickoff 96 yards for a TD; it was the Cards' first KOR TD since 2015 and also the NFL's first-ever of the "dynamic" variety. That TD and 2-point conversion on a Conner run trimmed the deficit to 3. After a 39-yard Buffalo FG made it 34-28 with 1:56 remaining, Arizona would get the ball back down 6. With 0:32 left, the Cards had advanced to the BUF29 and faced a 4th-n-7 from there. Facing a Buffalo blitz, Murray launched it down the left sideline to WR Greg Dortch near the goal-line; he was jostled by the Bills defender as the ball approached and couldn't haul it in, turning it over on downs and effectively ending the game.

Los Angeles Rams 10, Arizona Cardinals 41

| Los Angeles Rams | 0 | 3 | 7 | 0 | — | 10 |
| Arizona Cardinals | 14 | 10 | 10 | 7 | — | 41 |

In their 2024 home opener, the Cardinals evened their record at 1-1 with a dominant 41-10 victory over the Rams in which they were exceptional in all three phases. The Cards came within a yard of doubling LA's yardage total (489-245) thanks in large part to a truly remarkable performance from QB Kyler Murray. The signal-caller led the offense to scores on 7 of his 8 drives (5 TDs, 2 FGs), completing 17 of 21 passes for 266 yards, 3 TDs and no INTs for the first perfect 158.3 passer rating of his career and just the 2nd in franchise history. He also rushed 5 times for 59 yards and became only the 2nd NFL player ever with 250+ passing yards, 50+ rushing and 158.3 passer rating (CIN's Ken Anderson, 1974). Rookie WR Marvin Harrison Jr. had a breakout game with 4 catches for 130 yards and 2 TDs – all in the first quarter – while RB James Conner had 122 yards on 21 carries and scored a TD for a franchise-record-tying 7th straight game. The AZ defense limited the Rams offense to 192 net passing yards, 53 rushing and kept LA out of the end zone until the final minute of the 3rd quarter when it was 34-3. It held LA to 9 yards or fewer on 5 of its 10 possessions. LB Dennis Gardeck had 3.0 of AZ's five sacks while S Budda Baker was the leading tackler (8) and had two key tackles for losses. K Matt Prater was 2-2 on FGs (48 & 57) and 5-5 on PATs. It all added up to a 31-point margin of victory that was Arizona's largest since 2016 and represented the Cards first home win over the Rams since 2014.

The game opened in promising fashion for the Rams who returned the opening kickoff to the AZ49 and ran for 9 yards on the first play from scrimmage. It would be LA's longest run of the game. Baker's tackle for minus-1 was followed by a first down completion on 3rd down that was reversed to a "no catch" after an AZ challenge, setting up a 4th-n-2 at the AZ41. LA came away empty when Baker tackled WR Cooper Kupp short of the line to gain. Taking over at its own 40, AZ moved to the LA23 in 5 plays; on 2nd-n-8 from there, Murray lofted it down the middle of the end zone to Harrison who hauled it in near the end line and deftly dragged both feet for his first career TD. The ensuing LA drive went 3-n-out, ending on a Gardeck sack of Matthew Stafford. On AZ's next play from scrimmage, Murray scrambled until finding Harrison streaking deep down the right sideline; the rookie receiver hauled it in and out-raced the Rams defenders, diving and stretching the final 5 yards into the end zone. AZ then forced another Rams 3-n-out but LA downed the ensuing punt at the AZ1. Murray, however, remained hot and led the Cards to the LA18 where they faced 3rd-n-5; on that play, Kyler darted, dashed and slithered in the backfield to avoid the Rams rush before finding TE Elijah Higgins crossing the back of the end zone. The score came in the midst of a stretch where Murray completed 10 straight passes for 191 yards and 3 TDs, leading AZ to a 21-0 lead. The Rams got on the scoreboard with a 29-yard FG but Prater answered with one from 48 and AZ led 24-3 at intermission.

Arizona's lead grew to 31-3 on the first drive of the 3rd quarter when Conner scored on a 5-yard run that capped an 8-play, 70-yard drive. Prater, the NFL's all-time leader in FGs of both 50+ and 55+ yards, added to both of those totals with a 57-yarder on AZ's next possession. Late in the 3rd, a 4-yard TD run by Rams RB Kyren Williams made it 34-10 but the Cards again struck back. This time, Murray and the offense moved to the LA7 in 10 plays when Conner lost the ball but TE Trey McBride recovered in the end zone for a TD that provided the game's final margin.

In week 3, the Cardinals lost to the Lions by a score of 20-13 in Arizona. Detroit took a 20-10 lead into the halftime locker room on the strength of three lengthy 1st half touchdowns but was held scoreless after intermission. The Lions also benefitted from a pivotal play late in the second quarter that resulted in a 14-point swing. Rookie WR Marvin Harrison Jr. hauled in his 3rd TD pass in two games and the AZ defense pitched a second half shutout, as Detroit's 6 full possessions after halftime resulted in 4 punts, an INT and a turnover on downs.

The Lions opened the game with the football and moved 70 yards in 9 plays, capping the drive with RB David Montgomery's 1-yard TD run. The Cardinals would soon answer with their own 70-yard TD drive to tie the game at 7. On it, Kyler Murray was 4-4 passing for 40 yards, ran twice for 34 yards and ended it with a 10-yard scoring pass to Harrison. The ensuing possession saw the Lions respond with another lengthy drive (13 plays, 70 yards) and they re-claimed the lead on 3rd-n-goal from the 5 when Jared Goff found WR Amon-Ra St. Brown in the end zone; a missed PAT made it a 13-7 game early in the 2nd quarter. It remained that way until the closing minutes of the half when the game's biggest swing took place. With the clock ticking towards two minutes, Goff received the shotgun snap but was immediately pressured and his errant pass was picked off by LB Mack Wilson who had a clear path to the end zone. However, the apparent pick-6 was negated when referee Brad Rogers and his crew ruled that the snap had come after the 2:00 warning. Four plays later on 1st down at the AZ21, Goff threw a short pass to St. Brown; he quickly flipped it to RB Jahmyr Gibbs who completed the hook-and lateral for a TD that made it 20-7 with :36 left in the half. That proved to be enough time for Murray to move the offense 46 yards and into position for Matt Prater's 42-yard FG as the half expired, pulling Arizona to within 10 at intermission.

The Cards got the ball to open the 2nd half and advanced to the DET36; however, on 2nd-n-3 from there, Murray's deep pass to Harrison was intercepted by S Kerby Joseph in the end zone. Midway through the 3rd quarter, LB Dennis Gardeck picked off a Goff a pass and returned it to the DET33. Four plays later, AZ faced a 4th-n-1 from the 32 and Murray's run around the right side was initially ruled a first down. However, the call was reversed after a Lions challenge and the ball was turned over on downs. The Lions would then do the same on the next series when they went for it on 4th-n-1 at the AZ34; DL Dante Stills and others stuffed Montgomery for no gain to halt the drive. Still down by 10 with 11 minutes left, the Cards approached midfield and again went for it on 4th down; this time it was a 4th-n-6 from the AZ48 but Murray's pass to TE Trey McBride was incomplete. As the Cardinals defense continued to keep the Lions in check and off the scoreboard, Prater's 45-yard FG trimmed the Detroit lead to 7 with 3:48 left. The Cards had a chance to send the Lions offense off the field but on 3rd-n-12 at the DET28 with 2:20 left, Detroit moved the chains and sealed the game with Goff's 18-yard completion to St. Brown.

| Arizona Cardinals ..... | 7 | 0 | 7 | 0 | — | 14 |

The Cardinals closed a stretch of three straight home games with a week 4 date against the Commanders. Led by rookie QB Jayden Daniels, Washington would score on 7 of its 9 offensive possessions helping the Commanders post a 42-14 victory that improved their record to 3-1 while dropping Arizona to 1-3. Cards RB James Conner finished with a game-high 104 rushing yards on 18 carries and rookie WR Marvin Harrison Jr. scored the 4th receiving TD of his young career.

The Cardinals received the opening kickoff and for the 4th time in 4 games played in 2024, they found the end zone on their first offensive possession. The drive started at the WAS45 after a DeeJay Dallas kickoff return. Conner then gained 31 yards on 5 carries while Kyler Murray passed for 21 yards on 3 completions. The last of those completions came on 4th-n-goal at the 2 when Murray hit Harrison just across the goal line to give AZ the 7-0 early lead. The Commanders responded with a 9-play, 70-yard drive and tied the game when RB Brian Robinson scored on a 9-yard run. After an AZ punt forced the Commanders to start the next drive at own 7, Daniels led them 93 yards in 13 plays and Washington took a 14-7 lead when RB Jeremy McNichols raced 27 yards around the left side for a touchdown. An INT by Arizona CB Garrett Williams ended the next Washington drive and the one after that resulted in a Commanders punt for the first time since week 1. After that kick, AZ took over at its own 30 with 3:07 remaining in the half and down 7 and advanced to the WAS36. With 0:39 left the Cards went for it on 4th-n-2 but turned it over on downs when Murray was sacked. The Commanders then capitalized by adding a 45-yard Austin Seibert FG as the half expired to increase their lead 17-7.

The visitors got the ball to start the 3rd quarter and on the 3rd play from scrimmage, picked up 47 yards on a defensive pass interference penalty that took it to the 9. On the next play, Daniels kept it around the right side for a TD that made it 24-7. After a 3-n-out by AZ, the Commanders added another Seibert FG – this one from 38 yards – to go up 27-7 with 5:16 left in the 3rd. The Cards went into hurry-up mode and quickly moved 74 yards in 11 plays on a drive Conner ended with his 6-yard TD run late in the 3rd. But Daniels again led the Commanders downfield, ultimately throwing for a TD and 2-point conversion to put Washington up 35-14. After the Cards turned it over on a fumble, the Commanders provided the game's final points on a TD with 4:30 remaining.

In week 5 at San Francisco, the Cardinals trailed the defending NFC champions by 13 points at halftime and 10 entering the 4th quarter. But in the hottest game ever played at Levi's Stadium, Arizona kept its cool and emerged with a 24-23 victory, coming up with critical plays in all three phases. QB Kyler Murray and RB James Conner led the offensive effort while the defense limited San Francisco to just one TD in 6 red zone trips and held the 49ers scoreless in the 2nd half thanks in large part to 3 takeaways. And with veteran kicker Matt Prater missing the game (knee), replacement Chad Ryland joined the team on Wednesday and made 3 field goals, including the game-winner with 1:37 to play. The victory enabled Arizona to move to 2-3 on the season (2-0 in the division) and earn its 7th win at Levi's Stadium, the most by any team since it opened in 2014.

On the game's opening drive, AZ forced a Niners' 3-n-out after winning the opening coin toss and deferring. The Cards then took over at their own 28 and following a 22-yard pass to TE Trey McBride, Murray turned in another one of his signature plays. He kept the ball on a read option, raced around the right side and exploded for a 50-yard TD run. Down 7-0, the Niners answered with a Jake Moody FG of 28 yards on the ensuing drive. They then surged ahead on their next possession when QB Brock Purdy capped a 13-play, 76-yard scoring drive with his 4-yard TD pass to TE George Kittle late in the opening quarter. Early in the 2nd, Ryland tied the game at 10 by hitting from 30 yards out. Moody then put San Francisco up 13-10 with his 20-yard field goal with 6:59 to go before halftime. With about 5:00 left, the Cards had advanced to the SF27 and were positioned to tie it but Ryland's 45-yard FG attempt was blocked by defensive lineman Jordan Elliott and Deommodore Lenoir returned it 61 yards for a TD that made it 20-10. DeeJay Dallas took the ensuing kickoff to the AZ28 and on the return Moody was lost for the game with an ankle injury after attempting to make the tackle. Arizona then marched to the SF24 but on the first play after the 2:00 warning, Murray's attempted screen pass was INT'd by DE Nick Bosa who returned it 30 yards to the AZ40. The 49ers advanced to the AZ7 but were kept out of the end zone and forced to settle for a FG; this one was a 26-yarder by punter Mitch Wishnowsky that put San Francisco up 23-10 as the first half expired.

While the Cardinals went 3-n-out to start the 3rd quarter, Blake Gillikin's 60-yard punt flipped the field forcing SF to start at its own 12. Three plays later, DL Roy Lopez tipped a Purdy pass at the line and LB Mack Wilson intercepted it to set AZ up at the SF25. The takeaway led to a 42-yard Ryland FG that cut San Francisco's lead to 23-13. The next 49ers drive advanced to the AZ13 but a false start penalty by SF and sack by DL Naquan Jones pushed them into a 4th-n-23 at the AZ27. Without their kicker, the 49ers had to go for it but an incompletion led to a turnover on downs. Down 10, AZ took over at its own 27. On a drive that covered 73 yards in 12 plays, Conner ran 5 times for 36 yards and Murray threw for 37 yards, completing all 7 of his pass attempts. The last of them came on 1st-n-goal from the 2 when he faked a run before tossing it to TE Elijah Higgins in the back of the end zone. A roughing the passer on the play led the Cards to go for 2 and after Conner punched it in, the 49ers lead was down to 2 with 11:25 to play. Purdy and the 49ers would again move deep into the red zone and with 6:20 to play, had a 1st-n-goal at the AZ8. But LB Jesse Luketa, who was active for the first time all year, punched the ball from RB Jordan Mason and Wilson recovered to give the ball back to the offense. With 6:11 to go, the Cardinals took over at their own 9. Four straight Conner runs gained 26 yards to the 35. Three plays later, they faced a crucial 4th-n-5 at their own 40 with 2:49 remaining. Murray stood in the face of a 49ers blitz and lofted it to the left sideline where Marvin Harrison, Jr. brought it in for a 14-yard game-saving completion. Murray and Conner then ran for 13 and 10 yards on the next two plays, respectively, and at the 2:00 warning, the Cards had a first down at the SF23. Three straight runs gained 7 total yards and also caused San Fran to use all 3 of its timeouts. Ryland then split the uprights from 35 yards away to put AZ up 24-23. Still, 1:32 remained in the 1-point game when Purdy and the 49ers took over at their own 27. But on the 2nd play of the drive, S Jalen Thompson came on a blitz and hit Purdy's elbow as he threw, causing the ball to pop into the air and into the hands of LB Kyzir White to seal the win.

| Green Bay Packers | 7 | 17 | 7 | 3 | — | 34 |

On a chilly, rainy October day in Green Bay, the Cardinals (2-3) faced the Packers (3-2) with a chance to earn a share of first place in the NFC West with a victory. It was not meant to be. Green Bay jumped out to a 24-0 first-half lead as QB Jordan Love threw 3 of his 4 TD passes in that stretch. The Cards would then score 13 straight and pulled to within 11 early in the third quarter but would get no closer. Arizona's efforts were hampered by 3 lost fumbles, an uncharacteristic number of penalties (13-100) and five starters who would exit with injuries.

Green Bay's first points came on its second possession that started at the AZ44 thanks to a punt return and facemask penalty. The Packers advanced to the AZ5 in 4 plays and on 3rd-n-goal from there, Love hit WR Jayden Reed with a TD pass. After a 3-n-out by AZ, Green Bay moved 80 yards in 11 plays and Love again ended it with a TD toss, this one a 10-yarder to WR Romeo Doubs. After Brayden Narveson's 36-yard FG put the Packers up 17-0, momentum seemed to swing Arizona's way when the Cards recovered a fumbled punt return at the GB23. However, off-setting penalties wiped out the takeaway and on the re-kick, returner Keisean Nixon returned it 39 yards to the AZ44. On the next play, Love hit WR Christian Watson deep down the middle for a score that made it 24-0 with 4:32 left in the first half. QB Kyler Murray then marched the Cards to the GB18 at the 2:00 warning and on the first play after it, he hit WR Michael Wilson in the end zone for a TD. Less than a minute later, CB Sean Murphy-Bunting intercepted Love to turn the ball back to the AZ offense at the GB45 with 1:04 to go before intermission. That takeaway led to a 38-yard Chad Ryland FG that made the score 24-10 at halftime.

Arizona had a chance to further cut into the Packers' lead when it got the ball first in the 2nd half and advanced to the GB15. The Cards could not find the end zone but Ryland's 38-yard FG made it 24-13 with 9:03 to go in the 3rd quarter. It was as close as they would get. The ensuing Green Bay drive ended with another Love-to-Doubs TD connection, this one a 20-yard pass in the face of a heavy blitz that made it 31-13. Arizona's next three possessions ended with lost fumbles and Narveson's 41-yard FG in the 4th quarter provided the game's final points.

In a Monday Night tilt to close week 7, the 3-2 Chargers came to State Farm Stadium to face the 2-4 Cardinals. It was a game both teams needed badly and the physical, back-and-forth nature of the battle reflected that. The contest featured six total lead changes, including three in the fourth quarter and two in the final two minutes. The last of those lead changes came as time expired when Cards kicker Chad Ryland split the uprights from 32 yards out to give Arizona a dramatic 17-15 win. The Cardinals defense kept LA out of the end zone all night, limiting the Chargers to five Cameron Dicker field goals. LA's offense had been averaging 127.8 rushing yards per game but was held to just 59 on 22 carries (2.7 average). Meanwhile, Arizona's offense racked up 181 rushing yards against LA's 6th-ranked run defense that had been surrendering just 97.2 per game and surrendered zero sacks. It was led by RB James Conner, who finished with 152 total yards from scrimmage (101 rushing and 51 receiving) including 44 on the game-winning drive. With the win, AZ moved to 3-4 and just a game out of first place in the NFC West.

On the game's opening drive, the Cardinals offense reached the LA41 before Chargers DL Teair Tart snatched a tipped ball and was racing with it into AZ territory. However, Conner punched the ball out from behind and WR Michael Wilson recovered at the AZ28. The drive would end on a punt after which LA took over at its own 12. Five plays later, the Chargers had it at the AZ45 when Justin Herbert completed a pass deep down the left sideline to WR Jalen Reagor; however, as he approached the goal-line, Cards CB Starling Thomas V forced it out at the 1 and ball exited out of the end zone for a touchback. The next AZ drive also ended in a punt that again backed the Chargers up in their own territory, this time at the 10. LA would move 49 yards in 13 plays and Dicker's 59-yard FG put the visitors ahead 3-0. Arizona responded with a scoring drive of its own. On the 4th play of it, Conner caught a Murray pass and took it 19 yards before it was punched out; however, the Cards maintained possession when TE Trey McBride pounced on the loose ball at the LA44. The drive reached the LA5 and on 2nd-n-goal from there, Kyler Murray hit WR Greg Dortch with a TD pass that put the Cardinals up 7-3 with 5:40 left in the second quarter. On the final play of the 2nd quarter, Dicker's 50-yard FG capped a 9-play, 57-yard drive that made it a 7-6 game at halftime.

Arizona's defense forced a Chargers punt on the opening possession of the 3rd quarter. The Cards then moved into LA territory and had it at the 45; however, needing a yard on both 3rd and 4th down from there, the Chargers defense stopped sneaks by back-up QB Clayton Tune and AZ turned it over on downs. On the ensuing drive, Herbert passes moved the chains on a pair of 3rd-n-8 plays and the Chargers would eventually reach the AZ10. However, the Arizona defense kept them out of the end zone and Dicker's 3rd FG of the night – this one from 28 yards – put LA up 9-7 late in the 3rd. On the second play of the 4th, the Cards had a 1st-n-10 from the LA44 when Murray dropped back to pass. He eluded the rush and scrambled to his left before cruising untouched down the sideline for a 44-yard TD that gave AZ a 14-9 lead. The Chargers cut it to 14-12 with Dicker's 47-yarder and then went up 15-14 thanks to his 40-yarder just after the two-minute warning. With 1:54 left, AZ took over at its own 30 and down by 1. Murray's 2nd down pass to Marvin Harrison Jr. was incomplete but an unnecessary roughness penalty against the Chargers moved it to the AZ45. On the next snap, Murray tossed a short pass to Conner on a check down; the RB caught it behind the line of scrimmage, stiff-armed one tackler, broke free from another and took it for a 33-yard gain to the LA22. Conner runs of 5 and 6 yards on consecutive plays moved the chains and exhausted LA's final two timeouts. After a pair of kneeldowns, Ryland drilled the game-winner from 32 yards out to win the game.

Arizona Cardinals 28, Miami Dolphins 27

| Miami Dolphins | 10 | 3 | 7 | 7 | — | 27 |

Six days after rallying to beat the Chargers with a walk-off field goal at home on Monday Night Football, the Cardinals were in Miami for a week 8 showdown with the Dolphins. Again, they found themselves trailing in the 4th quarter. And again QB Kyler Murray would spearhead a comeback effort that ended on a Chad Ryland go-ahead FG as time expired. Murray was sensational, particularly in the 2nd half when he threw for 228 of his 307 yards against a Miami pass defense that ranked #1 in the NFL (154.5 yards/game). Murray's top two targets were TE Trey McBride (9-124) and rookie WR Marvin Harrison, Jr. (6-111 with a TD). That trio was a big reason the Cards were able to claw back from a 10-point deficit to again walk away with a dramatic victory. The win improved AZ to 4-4 and combined with a Seattle loss, put the Cards in first place in the NFC West.

The Dolphins were bolstered by the return of QB Tua Tagovailoa, who played for the first time since suffering a week 2 concussion and Miami jumped out to a 10-0 lead with scores on its first two possessions of the game. First they took the opening kickoff and moved 64 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with Raheem Mostert's 1-yard scoring run. After a 3-n-out by the Cardinals, Jason Sanders' 53-yard FG ended a Miami drive that had reached the AZ35. Down 10-0, Murray led the offense 70 yards in 9 plays, completing 5 of 5 passes for 58 yards. He ended the possession with a 6-yard TD pass to WR Michael Wilson, who Murray found alone in the back of the end zone after scrambling to buy time on 3rd-n-goal. Just before halftime, Tagovailoa led the Dolphins deep into AZ territory but they were halted at the 7 and Sanders' 25-yard FG made it 13-7 Miami at intermission.

On the opening scrimmage play in the 3rd quarter, Murray connected with McBride on a 37-yard completion to the MIA33. After a run play lost 10 yards, a holding penalty cost the Cards another 10 and created a 2nd-n-20 at the AZ47. Two plays gained 15 yards back into Miami territory enabling a long FG attempt. Ryland rewarded the effort by nailing it from a career-long distance of 57 yards and the Cards had trimmed the lead to 13-10 early in the third. On the next play from scrimmage, though, Dolphins RB De'Von Achane ran for 47 yards to the AZ23. Later, on 2nd-n-goal from the 12, Achane gathered a short pass from Tua and took it for a TD that made it 20-10 with 8:31 to go in the third. A Blake Gillikin punt backed Miami up to its own 13 to start the next Dolphins drive and two plays later, Tagovailoa mishandled a shotgun snap, resulting in a safety that made it 20-12. After the free kick, AZ moved 75 yards in 9 plays and ended the drive with a spectacular, diving grab from Harrison that was good for a 22-yard TD; after the two-point try came up short, the score was 20-18 with 2:08 to go in the 3rd. On the ensuing drive, Miami increased its lead to nine on Mostert's second TD of the day, this one a 6-yard run that capped a 9-play, 70-yard drive. Down 27-18 with 12:22 to go, the Cards needed points on the next possession to stay within striking distance. Murray rose to the challenge, completing 6 straight passes for 68 yards, including 16 and 22 yarders to Harrison; those led to a 2-yard TD run off the left side by RB James Conner that made it a 2-point game with 8:50 remaining. On the next drive, Miami would move in 7 plays from its 30 to the AZ47 but on 3rd-n-9 from there, S Budda Baker blitzed and hurried Tua, leading to an incompletion and punt. After the change of possession, Arizona took over at its own 11 with 5:01 to go and trailing by 2. Four plays into the drive, a holding penalty would result in a 1st-n-20 at the AZ27. But the Cards would overcome it thanks in part to an 18-yard Murray-to-Harrison pass to the 50. Three Conner runs gained 17, 5 and 1 yard and led to a pivotal 3rd-n-4 at the MIA27 with 1:48 left. Murray again delivered, keeping it around the right end and dodging defenders for a huge 7-yard gain. It not only moved the sticks but allowed the Cardinals to take the clock all the way down to zero on the game-winning 34-yard FG from Ryland, his 3rd in 4 games with the Cardinals.

Chicago Bears 9, Arizona Cardinals 29

| Arizona Cardinals | 7 | 14 | 3 | 5 | — | 29 |

In week 9, the Bears (4-3) came to State Farm Stadium to face the Cardinals (4-4) in a match-up of the only two remaining charter members of the NFL from its inception in 1920. For Arizona, it was a display of good, old-fashioned team football in all three phases. The offense rolled up 213 of its 350 total yards on the ground and got first-half rushing TDs from three different players for the first time in 101 years. The defense was all over Bears rookie QB Caleb Williams, notching a season-high six sacks as 16 different players had a QB pressure, most in the NFL since 2018. And special teams set-up scores, flipped the field and turned in another exceptional effort. It all added up to a decisive 29-9 Cardinals victory, Arizona's 3rd win in a row and 4th in 5 weeks. While the Cardinals did not allow a TD for the 2nd straight home game, they put up 29 against a Bears defense that had an NFL-best streak of 13 games surrendering 21 points or fewer. Playing in his 100th career game, RB James Conner topped 100 rushing yards for the 18th time and finished with 107 on 18 carries.

The Bears first drive of the game reached the AZ39 but was stymied by LB Kyzir White's 2-yard tackle for loss, a Bears penalty and a LB Zaven Collins sack that pushed them out of FG range and forced a punt. Later in the opening quarter, Greg Dortch returned a Chicago punt 27 yards to the Bears 23. Conner gains of 15, 4 and 5 yards were followed by a 15-yard completion to TE Trey McBride that took it to the 2. On the next play, McBride took a handoff on a sweep and scored his first career rushing TD, giving AZ a 7-0 lead. The next AZ series ended with a fumble at the end of a Marvin Harrison catch, giving Chicago possession at the AZ46; however, the Cards defense held the Bears to a 53-yard Cairo Santos FG that trimmed it to 7-3. Conner runs dominated the next AZ possession as he picked up 45 yards on 6 attempts and helped set-up a 32-yard FG try. Chad Ryland's kick was good but Chicago was flagged for a leverage foul and the AZ offense returned to the field. Three plays later, rookie RB Trey Benson took it in from a yard out for his first pro TD and a 14-3 Arizona lead. Another 53-yard Santos FG reduced the lead to 14-9 with :26 left in the half and after the ensuing touchback, many assumed AZ would be content to go into the half up 5. But after a 12-yard run by #3 RB Emari Demercado on 1st down and 5-yard Kyler Murray completion to McBride, the Cards were at their own 47 with :12 left. Demercado took a handoff from Murray and picked his way through the Bears defense, ultimately popping to the right sideline and racing to the end zone for a 53-yard score. The improbable TD put AZ up 21-9 at the half.

After Chicago's offense opened the 3rd quarter with a 3-n-out, Arizona took 7:54 off the clock with a 13-play, 69-yard drive that ended on Chad Ryland's 29-yard FG. Down 24-9, the Bears moved to the AZ44 early in the 4th and faced a 4th-n-11. They opted to go for it but Collins' 2nd sack of the day lost 16 yards in addition to turning it over on downs. Another Ryland FG – this one from 55 yards made it 27-9 with 14:02 remaining. About 5 minutes later, A Joey Blount made an amazing play to down Blake Gillikin's punt at the 1. Two plays later, a Bears penalty in the end zone resulted in a safety for AZ - its second in as many weeks - and provided the final points in the 20-point Cardinals victory.

The Cardinals improved to 6-4 before their bye week and maintained sole possession of first place in the NFC West with a convincing 31-6 victory over the Jets at State Farm Stadium. It was Arizona's 4th straight win and 5th in its last 6. The AZ offense scored on all four of its first half possessions (TD, TD, TD, FG) and for the second straight week – and third straight home game – held its opponent without a TD. QB Kyler Murray was sensational, completing 22 of 24 passes (91.7%) for 266 yards and a TD while adding another two TDs rushing. Kyler closed the game by completing his final 17 consecutive passes, setting a new franchise record. The Cards accomplished this against a Jets team that entered with the NFL's #2 passing defense and #4 defense overall. Arizona harassed Jets QB Aaron Rodgers, who was held to 7 or fewer points for just the 2nd time in 147 career starts vs. non-division opponents and lost by 25+ points for just the 7th time in 234 career starts overall. Leading that defensive effort was S Budda Baker who had 9 tackles, a career-best 3 for losses and a sack.

Arizona commenced the scoring on the game's opening drive when RB James Conner's 44-yard catch and run on a screen pass took it to the one and he punched it in from there to make it 7-0. The ensuing possession saw the Jets move to the AZ7 but they were forced to settle for a 25-yard Spencer Shrader FG. Arizona upped its lead to 14-3 on the next series thanks to Murray's TD run from the 1; they got there thanks in part to Kyler completions of 17 yards to Marvin Harrison, Jr. and 18 to TE Trey McBride and a defensive pass interference penalty in the end zone. The Jets then added another Shrader FG, this one from 45 yards out, to make it 14-6 early in the 2nd. But Murray and the Cards stayed hot. He completed 8 of 8 passes for 71 yards on the drive that included 2 very memorable plays. First, on 3rd-n-7 at the AZ33, McBride gathered in a short pass before tossing away one Jets defender and hurdling another to pick up 17 and a first down. Later, Jets LB Quincy Williams came on a blitz and sacked Murray so ferociously his helmet flew off and landed 10 yards away. But two plays later he threw a beautiful 13-yard pass to McBride on 3rd-n-11 and on the next snap had a perfect TD toss of 9 yards to Harrison in the back of the end zone to make it 21-6. The next Jets drive went 3-n-out thanks to a 3rd down sack of Rodgers by LB Jesse Luketa. After the punt, AZ took over at its own 32 with 4:09 remaining in the first half. The Cards would chew every second of that off the clock, moving 49 yards in 10 plays to set-up Chad Ryland's 37-yard FG as the first half expired and the Cards led 24-6 at intermission.

New York opened the second half by moving to the AZ6 in 7 plays but could not get it in the end zone after 3 plays and faced 4th-n-goal from the 3. The Jets went for it but Rodgers was flushed from the pocket before rookie LB Xavier Thomas sacked him, forcing a fumble that LB Kyzir White recovered at the AZ12. The Cards then moved from their own 12 to the NY12 in 9 plays thanks to Murray's 4-for-4 passing from 61 yards; from there, Kyler called his own number and kept it around the right side for a 12-yard TD run that made it 31-6. The next Jets series ended on a 3rd down sack of Rodgers by Baker and the Jets never threatened again.

Arizona Cardinals 6, Seattle Seahawks 16

| Arizona Cardinals ..... | 0 | 3 | 0 | 3 | — 6 |
| Seattle Seahawks ..... | 0 | 7 | 6 | 3 | — 16 |

Coming off their bye week, the Cardinals headed to Seattle in week 12 with a 6-4 record and one-game lead on the other three teams in the division. After a typical tight, tough NFC West battle, they left tied with the Seahawks at 6-5 following a 16-6 loss in a game that hinged on a couple key plays. Defensively, the Cardinals allowed just one TD – their first in almost a month – and took down Seattle QB Geno Smith 5 times. The offense was led by TE Trey McBride, who set a team receptions record for a TE with his 12 catches for 133 yards. By day's end, losses by the Rams and 49ers put Seattle and Arizona one game ahead of them in the division standings with six games to play. The defeat ended Arizona's four-game win streak and was just the team's second loss in its last seven games.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Cards appeared to take the lead on a 7-yard Kyler Murray to Michael Wilson TD pass; however, it was negated by a holding call. The next play saw Marvin Harrison, Jr. catch a pass in the end zone but he just missed getting his second foot down and Chad Ryland's 35-yard FG made it 3-0 with 9:43 to go in the second quarter. Just before the 2:00 warning, a 46-yard catch-n-run by WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba took it to the AZ 4 and two plays later he caught a 3-yard scoring pass from Smith that made it 7-3 at halftime.

Seattle's opening possession of the third quarter ended with a strip sack of Smith by LB Zaven Collins. The ensuing Cardinals drive saw Murray completions of 12, 11 and 18 yards to McBride help move the offense to the SEA40. In one of the game's most pivotal moments, AZ would go for it on 4th-n-1 from there. Murray kept it around the right side before flipping a pass downfield toward Wilson. The attempt, however, was intercepted by FS Koby Bryant who returned in 69 yards for a TD. After the PAT was no good, Seattle led 13-3 with 7:12 to play in the 3rd quarter. The Seahawks appeared poised to add to that lead on their next possession after advancing to the AZ18. But on 3rd-n-6, Smith's pass into the end zone was picked off by CB Garrett Williams, resulting in a touchback. From there, Murray led the AZ offense deep into Seattle territory; one key play was an over-the-shoulder catch by Wilson on 3rd-n-4 that gained 30 yards to the 10. The Cardinals could not get it into the end zone and Ryland's 22-yard FG made it 13-6 with 10:08 remaining in the game. Seattle's offense would then execute a lengthy, ball-controlled drive that converted three key 3rd downs and consumed over 8 minutes in 13 plays; it ended on Jason Myers' 50-yard FG just after the 2:00 warning to give the hosts a 16-6 lead with 1:56 left. Arizona would threaten but not score and the game ended by that same margin.

| Minnesota Vikings ..... | 3 | 3 | 7 | 10 | — | 23 |

In week 13, the Cardinals (6-5) visited Minnesota to face a 9-2 Vikings team that had won four straight and was returning home after three consecutive road wins. In a tight battle, Arizona outdueled the hosts for much of the afternoon and took a 19-6 lead with 4:37 to play in the 3rd quarter. However, the Vikings would outscore the Cards 17-3 the rest of the way and a go-ahead TD with 1:13 to play gave Minnesota a 23-22 victory. Arizona's defense limited the Vikings to 273 total yards (just 68 rushing) and sacked QB Sam Darnold five times. The Cards offense was again led by TE Trey McBride who finished with 12 catches for 96 yards and became the first tight end in NFL history to catch 12 passes in consecutive games. The NFL's least-penalized team, Arizona was flagged an uncharacteristic 10 times for 96 yards.

The Cardinals began the game by taking the opening kickoff and moving deep into MIN territory before settling for a 32-yard Chad Ryland field goal. It was the first of six AZ drives that would reach the red zone and one of five that ended with a FG. The ensuing Vikings drive would advance to the AZ19 before a 3rd down sack by DL L.J. Collier forced them into a 44-yard game-tying FG by Parker Romo. The next MIN possession ended on the first play when CB Sean Murphy-Bunting forced a fumble by RB Aaron Jones and DL Roy Lopez recovered at the MIN 19. However, a pair of penalties backed them up and Ryland's FG try from 45 yards was wide right. On the ensuing series, a 3rd down sack by LB Kyzir White forced a Vikings 3-n-out after which AZ took over at its own 16. QB Kyler Murray again marched the offense into the red zone and again it came away with a FG, this one a 31-yarder that made it 6-3 with 6:09 to go in the first half. By the 2:00 warning, the Vikings had it at the AZ29 and faced a 3rd-n-6; a sack by LB Mack Wilson made MIN attempt a 55-yard FG which Romo hit to tie the game at 6 with 1:12 before intermission. That was enough time for Murray to lead AZ 64 yards in 12 plays and Ryland's 24-yarder as the half expired put the Cards up 9-6 going into the locker room.

Minnesota opened the 3rd quarter by moving to the AZ 25 but Romo's 43-yard FG try was wide left. Ryland's 4th FG of the afternoon – this one from 40 yards out – capped the next AZ drive and put the Cards up 12-6 midway thru the 3rd quarter. Another Wilson sack contributed to another Vikings 3-n-out and after the punt AZ took over at its own 27. A defensive pass interference foul moved the ball 38 yards to the 15 and on the next snap, Murray found WR Marvin Harrison, Jr. in the back of the end zone. The game's first TD put the Cards up 19-6 with 4:39 to play. Minnesota responded with a TD drive of its own as Darnold took the offense 70 yards in 6 plays and capped it with a 4-yard scoring pass to TE Johnny Mundt. The next series ended when CB Byron Murphy picked off a Murray pass deep down the left sideline on 3rd-n-7 and the Vikings took over at their own 32. That drive would end with Romo's 31-yard FG that made it 19-16 with 11:08 to play. AZ then responded with a long drive that chewed up more than half of the quarter while reaching the MIN5. However, a false start and intentional grounding penalty backed them up and Arizona eventually had to settle for a FG that made it 22-16 with 3:20 to play. With just over 2 minutes remaining, the Vikings had reached the AZ33 where they faced a pivotal 4th-n-5. They picked it up with a 12-yard completion to WR Justin Jefferson and two plays later Darnold hit Jones out of the backfield for a 5-yard TD that gave MIN a 1-point lead with 1:13 left. Arizona's hopes would soon rest on a 4th-n-10 play from its own 30 but Murray's pass downfield was INT'd by CB Shaq Griffin to seal the game.

Seattle Seahawks 30, Arizona Cardinals 18

64,533 ■ State Farm Stadium ■ Dec 8, 2024

| | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Seattle Seahawks | 17 | 7 | 3 | 3 | — | 30 |
| Arizona Cardinals | 7 | 3 | 8 | 0 | — | 18 |

The Cardinals (6-6) and Seahawks (7-5) met in a pivotal week 14 showdown that would go a long way to deciding the division race. Seattle took advantage of two first quarter INTs, converting each of them into touchdowns en route to a 24-10 halftime lead. The AZ defense kept the Seahawks out of the end zone in the second half and had cut the deficit to 9 points late in the 3rd quarter. However, the Cardinals would get no closer and Seattle emerged with a critical 30-18 victory. It gave the Seahawks a 2-game division lead with four games to play and a season sweep of Arizona. AZ safety Budda Baker had a career-best 18 tackles and LB Kyzir White added another 13. RB James Conner had 122 scrimmage yards with 90 on the ground and TE Trey McBride led the team with 7 catches for 70 yards, all in the second half.

The Cardinals offense opened the game with the ball and also opened the scoring. After reaching the SEA41 in 6 plays, Kyler Murray launched a ball deep down the right sideline where WR Michael Wilson hauled it in for a 41-yard TD. The Seahawks responded on their first possession of the game by advancing deep into Arizona territory but Geno Smith's 3rd-n-goal pass from the 2 fell incomplete and Jason Myers' 20-yard FG made it 7-3. After a holding penalty on the 2nd play of the next AZ drive backed them up, LB Ernest Jones IV picked off a Murray pass on the next snap and returned it to the AZ19. On the very next play, Smith found WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba in the corner of the end zone for a 19-yard TD that put Seattle up 10-7. The 2nd play of AZ's next drive saw FS Coby Bryant step in front of a Murray pass and that takeaway set Seattle up at the AZ46. Five plays later, RB Zach Charbonnet punched it in on 3rd-n-goal from the 1 and Seattle led 17-7 with 0:16 left in the first quarter. The Cardinals offense responded by moving deep into SEA territory on the next drive, the biggest play of which was a 23-yard Conner run. The possession ended on Chad Ryland's 28-yard FG that trimmed the Seahawks lead to 17-10 with 10:53 to play in the 2nd quarter. After exchanging punts in the one score game, Seattle's offense had the ball later in the 2nd quarter and faced a 3rd-n-10 at its own 20 when Smith and Smith-Njigba connected on a 24-yard completion for a first down. Two plays later, Charbonnet exploded for a 51-yard touchdown run with 2:36 left in the 2nd and Seattle led 24-10 at halftime.

The teams traded punts to open the 3rd quarter and for AZ it was the kicker Ryland who handled the duties after punter Blake Gillikin exited with an ankle injury in the 2nd quarter. With 5:29 to play in the 3rd, Myers' 36-yard FG increased Seattle's lead to 27-10 and AZ needed a TD drive to stay in it. The Cards faced a 4th-n-3 at t their own 48 when Murray hit Trey McBride for 14. Six plays later on 3rd-n-goal from the 2, Conner caught a shovel pass from Murray and after the QB ran it in on the 2-point try, AZ had cut it to 27-18 with 1:05 left in the 3rd. Midway though the 4th – after the team's traded 3-n-outs – the Cards offense advances to the SEA21 but came away without points after Ryland's 40-yard FG try bounced off the left upright. Seattle took over ai its own 30 with 7:16 remaining and up 9. Its offense then took 5:20 off the clock and Myers' 35-yard FG provided the game's final points.

New England Patriots 17, Arizona Cardinals 30

| New England Patriots | 0 | 3 | 0 | 14 | — | 17 |
| Arizona Cardinals | 10 | 3 | 3 | 14 | — | 30 |

Arizona evened its record at 7-7 and ended a 3-game losing streak with a convincing 30-17 win over the visiting Patriots. RB James Conner led the way offensively with 110 rushing yards on 16 carries and a pair of TD runs and TE Trey McBride hauled in 9 catches for 87 yards. Defensively, AZ posted 2.0 sacks, 6 tackles for loss with a crucial INT and a huge goal-line stand. Third downs were also a key differentiator as the Cards were 10-15 (66.7%) while the Patriots were 0-6. Former Patriots kicker Chad Ryland was 3-3 on FGs (49, 35, 40) and 3-3 on PATs vs. his former team. The victory gave Arizona a win over all 31 other NFL teams at State Farm Stadium which opened in 2006.

The Patriots offense got the ball to open the game and moved to the AZ 34 but Joey Slye's 53-yard FG try was wide left. The Cards then moved deep into opposing territory themselves, thanks largely to a Kyler Murray completion to Marvin Harrison, Jr. that covered 23 yards to the NE 31 and set-up Ryland's 49-yard FG that made it 3-0. After the AZ defense forced a Pats 3-n-out, Conner exploded for 53 yards on the first play of the ensuing drive, taking it to the NE27. Later in the possession, WR Greg Dortch took it on an end-around to the 2 before fumbling into the end zone. Fortunately, RT Jonah Williams pounced on it in the back corner of the end zone for his first TD since the 6th grade. Down 10-0, a 50-yard Slye FG pulled the Patriots to within 7 with 2:01 left in the first half, capping off a 12-play, 48-yard drive. The Cards then quickly went 53 yards in 10 plays in the closing moments of the half and with :16 remaining Ryland's 35-yard FG upped the lead to 13-3.

The opening drive of the 3rd quarter ended in another Ryland FG, this one a 40-yarder that put the Cards up 16-3. The Patriots looked like they'd cut into that lead on the next series when they advanced deep into the AZ red zone. But the Cardinals defense rose to the occasion stopping back-to-back runs on 3rd-n-1 and 4th-n-1 from the 4. Shortly after the Patriots turned it over on downs, they appeared to seize momentum back with an INT on 3rd-n-6 from the AZ 8, but a roughing the passer penalty wiped it away. The next time the Pats offense got the ball, the Cards would take it away when Drake Maye's pass bounced from the hands of WR Kayshon Boutte and into the grasp of CB Sean Murphy-Bunting. The takeaway gave the AZ offense possession at the NE 45 with :31 left in the 3rd. A pair of 3rd down completions from Murray to McBride kept the drive going and Conner's 1-yard TD run put the Cardinals up 23-3 early in the 4th. Midway through the final quarter, the Pats found the end zone for the first time on 3-yard Maye completion to WR DeMario Douglas that made it 23-10. The Cards then marched 70 yards in 9 plays and Conner's second one-yard TD of the afternoon put AZ up 30-10 with 3:27 to go. A late Maye TD run from 5 yards out provided the game's final points.

Arizona Cardinals 30, Carolina Panthers 36 (OT)

| Arizona Cardinals | 0 | 17 | 3 | 10 | 0 | — | 30 |
| Carolina Panthers | 7 | 13 | 3 | 7 | 6 | — | 36 |

On a chilly week 16 afternoon in Charlotte, the host Panthers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions of the game to take a 17-point first half advantage and led by 10 midway through the 4th quarter. But the Cardinals fought back, ultimately sending the game to overtime on Chad Ryland's 58-yard FG as regulation time expired. On the 3rd possession of the extra period, though, Panthers RB Chuba Hubbard's TD run not only ended the game but also Arizona's playoff hopes as the OT loss coupled with a Rams win eliminated the Cardinals from postseason consideration. Playing without three starters entering the game, the Cardinals lost three more as RB James Conner and RT Jonah Williams exited with knee injuries as did LB Baron Browning (neck) and top special teamer Joey Blount (ribs). Before he left early in the 3rd quarter, Conner was having a career day with 117 yards on 15 carries with a TD and another 49 yards on 4 receptions; it allowed him to eclipse 1,000 rushing yards for the 2nd consecutive season and 2nd time in his career.

The Panthers' first offensive drive of the day consumed more than half of the opening quarter. On it, Arizona's defense appeared to send them off the field after a Bryce Young incompletion on 3rd-n-goal from the 8. However, referee Adrian Hill threw a flag for roughing the passer/body weight; it was one of 20 accepted penalties marched off by Hill and his crew on the afternoon, including 11 against Arizona. Given a new set of downs, the next play saw Hubbard run 4 yards for a TD run made it 7-0. The Cards answered with a FG on the ensuing drive. A Kyler Murray 14-yard scramble on 4th-n-3 at the AZ11 extended it and was followed by a 40-yard Conner run to the CAR30. Ryland's 48-yard FG ended the drive and pulled AZ to within 7-3 early in the 2nd quarter. The Panthers would storm right back thanks to two explosive runs on scrambles by Young. The first was a 34-yarder that moved the ball to the AZ26 and the other came two plays later on 3rd-n-7 from the 23 when Young weaved his way into the end zone. The Panthers led 13-3 after the PAT was missed but quickly got the ball back following an Arizona fumble on the next drive and took over at the AZ30. Four plays later, Young found WR Adam Thielen in the back corner of the end zone on 3rd-n-goal from the 8 and Carolina led 20-3 with 7:55 to play in the 2nd quarter. The Cardinals trimmed it to 10 on the next drive, moving 70 yards in 4 plays; Conner gained 36 yards on a screen pass to the 6 and on the next play he ran it in for a TD. Following a Carolina 3-n-out, AZ took over at its own 32 with 4:20 left in the first half and Conner literally took over. On a drive that would span 68 yards in 9 plays, Conner accounted for 62 of them on 7 touches (6-52 rushing, 1-10 receiving); it would end on Murray's 1-yard TD toss to RB Deejay Dallas with 0:07 left and Carolina's lead was just 3 at intermission.

The Panthers opened the 3rd quarter with a 29-yard Eddy Pineiro FG, but Arizona's Ryland answered with one of his own from 30 yards out and it was a 23-20 game entering the 4th. With 12:04 to play, the Panthers bumped it back up to 10 when Young found WR David Moore with an 18-yard TD pass. But the Cardinals continued to fight back. Filling in for Conner, RB Michael Carter picked up 18 yards on a reception that was followed by a 19-yarder from WR Greg Dortch. Later, on 3rd-n-6 from the 20, Murray kept it around the right end and that 20-yard TD run pulled the Cards back to within 3 with 6:56 to play. After the AZ defense forced a 3-n-out, the Cards offense got the ball back. With just over 3 minutes left, AZ faced a 3rd-n-11 from the CAR49 but Murray's pass down the right sideline was picked off by S Demani Richardson at the 14. The defense would again rise to the occasion, forcing a punt after which the Cards took over at their own 26 with 1:47 left and down 20-17. Murray would pass and run his way to the CAR39 and Ryland's clutch 58-yard FG tied the game on the final play of regulation. After the team's traded punts in overtime, Carolina took over at the AZ49 with 3:21 remaining in the extra period. Hubbard rushed for 28 yards on the first play and then ended the game with a 21-yard scoring run off the right side.

In a week 17 Saturday night game in Los Angeles, the Cardinals (7-8) faced the Rams (9-6) in a national-televised, prime time tilt. Arizona had been eliminated from playoff consideration the week before while LA could all but clinch the NFC West title with a victory. While the teams were in different positions in the standings, it was a hard-fought battle that wasn't decided until the game's final seconds. In the end, the Cards came up short when the ball didn't bounce their way but the positives were abundant. Despite losing both starting tackles the week before and star RB James Conner (knee) in the first half, the AZ offense was highly productive, gaining 396 total yards. Kyler Murray threw for 321 yards, spreading the ball among 9 different receivers. His two favorite targets were rookie WR Mavin Harrison, Jr. (9 catches for 96 yards) and TE Trey McBride whose monster game saw him eclipse 100 catches for the season after hauling in 12 passes for 123 yards with his first TD catch of the year. Defensively, AZ was outstanding, holding LA to 13 points, 257 total yards (68 rushing and 189 passing) and forcing punts on 6 of the 9 Rams possessions. Still, LA led 10-0 at halftime and was up 4 late in the 4th. In the closing minute and change, Murray marched the team to the Rams 5 before his pass to McBride in the end zone ricocheted off the TE and was intercepted to decide the game.

The low-scoring game began with punts on the first 5 drives of the game. Early in the 2nd quarter, the Cardinals began their 3rd possession with a 34-yard Murray-to-McBride completion and ultimately reached the LA 14. There they faced a 4th-n-1 and went for it but Conner was stopped for no gain. The game remained scoreless with 6:30 left in the first half when the Rams took over at their own 40. A 29-yard Cooper Kupp completion on the first play took it to the AZ31 and Kyren Williams' 1-yard TD run 8 plays later put them up 7-0 with 3:23 left in the 2nd quarter. On their next possession, Puka Nacua caught a pass on 3rd-n-10 from the LA43; while it was questionable as to whether it picked up the 1st down, officials moved the chains and a booth-initiated, inside-2:00 review never came. From there, the Rams moved into position for a long FG try and Joshua Karty's successful 53-yarder with 0:27 left put the Rams up 10-0 at halftime.

The Cardinals opened the 2nd half with the ball and took advantage of it. Murray methodically led a 13-play drive and completed 9 passes, none of which was longer than 14 yards. The last one was a 1-yard TD pass to McBride, the TE's first of the year on his 98th overall reception of the season. The PAT was blocked and the Rams led 10-6. The Cards defense then forced a 3-n-out after which AZ took over at its own 10. Murray orchestrated another long drive, this one covering 80 yards in 14 plays and ending on Chad Ryland's 28-yard FG that made it a one-point game a minute into the final quarter. On the following Rams drive, they moved 60 yards in 13 plays and Karty's 25-yard FG made it 13-9 with 6:33 remaining. With just over 3 minutes left, the Cards went for it on 4th-n-10 at the LA40. Under duress, Murray launched it deep to Harrison but the pass was intercepted by S Kamren Kitchens at the goal line. The Cardinals defense stepped up again, forcing a 3-n-out and after the punt AZ's offense took over at its own 36 with 2:01 left in the game. In 7 plays, the Cards quickly moved to the LA5 thanks to 4 runs covering 27 yards by RB Michael Carter, a pair of completions to McBride and one to Harrison. But on first-n-goal from there with 0:42 left, Murray's quick pass to McBride at the goal line deflected off the TE and CB Ahkello Witherspoon made a diving INT to seal the game.

San Francisco 49ers 24, Arizona Cardinals 47

| San Francisco 49ers | 3 | 14 | 7 | 0 | — | 24 |
| Arizona Cardinals | 3 | 17 | 6 | 21 | — | 47 |

The Cardinals (7-9) closed the regular season at home vs. the 49ers (6-10) in a match-up of teams who were both playing without injured key contributors and had been previously eliminated from playoff consideration. While San Francisco had an edge in most statistical categories, Arizona had a 3-0 advantage in takeaways and was penalized just once for 5 yards, compared to the Niners' 13 for 86. The Cards led by 3 at halftime (20-17) but outscored the 49ers 27-7 in the final two quarters to earn a 47-24 victory. QB Kyler Murray led Arizona's offense, throwing for 4 TDs and 242 yards with no interceptions or sacks. TE Trey McBride had 7 catches for 65 yards; WR Marvin Harrison Jr. had 5 for 63 and each caught a TD from Murray while WR Greg Dortch had the other two receiving TDs. With the win, Arizona earned a season sweep of the 49ers and doubled its win total from the previous year. McBride's outing allowed him to set the NFL record for catches by a TE through his first three seasons, breaking the mark set by San Fran's George Kittle.

The Niners opened the scoring when Jake Moody's 51-yard FG capped the game's opening drive. They had a chance to double the lead on their next possession but Moody's attempt from 47 yards missed wide to the left. The Cards took over but soon faced a 4th-n-4 from their own 43 and were lined up to punt. However, they faked it instead and DeeJay Dallas took the direct snap before running 22 yards to the SF35. That bit of chicanery set up a 51-yard Chad Ryland field goal that tied the game late in the first quarter. On the 3rd play of the ensuing series, CB Sean Murphy-Bunting picked off Joshua Dobbs pass on 3rd-n-8, setting the AZ offense up at the SF45. Seven plays later, AZ faced a 3rd-n-8 at the SF23 when Murray hit Dortch with a short middle screen that the speedy receiver took to the end zone. The TD put AZ up 10-3 early in the 2nd. Later in the quarter, San Francisco advanced deep into AZ territory when skirmishes broke out after consecutive run plays, both involving 49ers WR Jauan Jennings and different Cardinals DBs. The first involved AZ's Starling Thomas and led to offsetting personal fouls; the other resulted in both Jennings and Murphy-Bunting being ejected. When order was resumed, Dobbs ran it in from a yard away to tie the game at 10 with 5:43 left in the first half. Murray then completed 4 of 4 passes for 51 yards and ran twice for 15 yards on a drive that he ended with a 2-yard TD toss to McBride, making it 17-10 with 1:51 to play in the half. Dobbs then quickly moved the Niners 70 yards in 10 plays and tied the game at 17 with his 6-yard scoring pass to WR Ricky Pearsall with 0:16 left on the clock. That was enough time for Murray to complete a 25-yard pass to WR Zay Jones and a 9-yarder to Dortch, setting up Ryland's 49-yarder as the first half expired.

Midway through the 3rd quarter, Murray and Dortch connected on a 2-yard TD pass, making it 26-17 after the two-point try failed. With 4:49 to go in the 3rd, Dobbs found FB Kyle Juszczyk with a 36-yard scoring pass to pull San Francisco within 2. The Cards then chewed 5:33 off the clock with a 10-play, 70-yard drive that RB Michael Carter ended with his 4-yard TD run. Up 33-24, the Cards defense ended the next two 49ers drives with takeaways. First rookie S Dadrion Taylor-Demerson forced a fumble that fellow S Jalen Thompson recovered. Then CB Kei'Trel Clark notched his first career INT when he picked off Dobbs at the SF39. Two plays after the pick, Murray hit Harrison with a 12-yard TD pass and AZ led 40-24 with 5:47 to go. Just after the 2:00 warning, RB Tony Jones provided the game's final points when he exploded for a 46-yard TD run to make it 47-24.

NFC WILD CARD GAME

CARDINALS 30, COWBOYS 7

JANUARY 2, 1999
TEXAS STADIUM - (62,969)

Arizona's finest defensive performance of the season rewarded the Cardinals with their first postseason victory in 51 years (28-21 vs. Philadelphia in 1947 NFL Championship game) in their first postseason appearance in 23 years (1975) that came in a non-strike season. The Cardinals defeat the Dallas Cowboys 20-7 at Dallas Stadium, ending not only their playoff drought but their nine-game losing streak on the Cowboys home turf. It was just the second victory over Dallas in the last 17 meetings between the two teams. It was the first home-field loss for the Cowboys since 1983.

The Cardinals defense produced three interceptions, 15 passes defensed (six by rookie cornerback Corey Chavous), four sacks, four tackles for a loss, and allowed QB Troy Aikman to complete just 22-of-49 passes for 191 yards. Arizona's defense held the Cowboys offense to just 260 total yards on the day. Outside linebacker Jamir Miller led the defense with 15 total tackles and two sacks while defensive end Andre Wadsworth also collected a pair of sacks. Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams grabbed two INTs and safety Tommy Bennett recorded one.

It was the defense that turned the tide of the game early. After Arizona jumped up to a 7-0 lead, the Cowboys were poised to tie the game, facing a fourth-and-one situation at Arizona's seven-yard line midway through the second quarter. Cardinals LB Mark Maddox dropped Dallas RB Emmitt Smith for a one-yard loss on the play and Arizona added a 37-yard Chris Jacke FG later in the quarter to give the Cards a 10-0 lead heading into halftime.

RB Adrian Murrell raced 74 yards to the Cowboys three-yard line on the second play of the third quarter, followed by a 3-yard TD pass from Jake Plummer to Larry Centers that gave the Cardinals a 17-0 lead that was never threatened. Another Jacke field goal from 46 yards out capped the scoring for the Cardinals in the fourth quarter. The Arizona defense's shutout bid ended with 3:33 remaining on a six-yard TD pass from Aikman to WR Billy Davis.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

VIKINGS 41, CARDINALS 21

JANUARY 10, 1999
METRODOME - (63,760)

Arizona's playoff run ended in Minnesota with a 41-21 loss to the high-scoring Vikings who turned three Cardinals turnovers into 17 points.

After the Vikings drove 80 yards in 13 plays in their opening possession to take a 7-0 lead on RB LeRoy Hoard's first rushing TD, interceptions of QB Jake Plummer on the first two possessions of the second quarter quickly turned into 10 points for a 17-0 Vikings advantage by the time the Cardinals had run five offensive plays. Minnesota, fielding the highest scoring offense in NFL history up to that point, registered 416 total net yards (228 passing, 188 rushing), cracking the 400-yard plateau for the ninth time and the 40-point mark for the fifth time. The Vikings also converted eight-of-11 third-down plays.

RBs Hoard and Robert Smith caused the most damage, with the former tallying three TD while the latter accounted for 124 rushing yards. Record setting rookie WR Randy Moss posted the other Minnesota TD. Vikings safety Robert Griffith recorded both INTs for the Vikings. Cardinals Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams gave the Cardinals, trailing 7-0, early life with an end zone INT and 47-yard return on the first play of the second quarter to thwart a Minnesota drive that reached Arizona's seven-yard line.

Short yardage back Mario Bates scored all three Arizona TDs on one-yard runs to set the team postseason single-game rushing TDs record. Arizona held Minnesota sackless for the second consecutive postseason game and for the third time in four weeks. The Cards were flagged for a season-high 13 penalties. RB Adrian Murrell contributed 15 rushes for 62 yards and three receptions for 52 yards. The Cardinals finished the season with 10 wins for the first time since 1976 (10-4).

CARDINALS 30, FALCONS 24

JANUARY 3, 2009
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (62,848)

Playing their first postseason contest in a decade and first home playoff game since 1947, the Cardinals took on 11-5 Atlanta. The high-powered Falcons entered the game with the league's #2 rusher (RB Michael Turner) and the Offensive Rookie of the Year (QB Matt Ryan). But the Cards defense was sensational, bottling up Turner (42 rushing yards and 2.3 yards/carry were both season lows), harassing Ryan (2 INTs, 1 fumble and 3 sacks), and scoring points on its own with a TD and safety. The offense was also strong as Edgerrin James led a revitalized ground game while Kurt Warner and Larry Fitzgerald made big plays in the passing game. It all added up to a 6-point Arizona win before a raucous sellout crowd.

On the Cards first scoring drive, it was 3 James runs that perfectly set-up a flea-flicker. James took the hand-off, then flipped it back to Warner who fired 42 yards downfield to Fitzgerald who leapt between two defenders to come down with the ball in the end zone. Early in the 2nd, Atlanta got on the board with a 30-yard Jason Elam FG but the Cards answered quickly. On 3rd-n-9, Warner tossed a short pass to Anquan Boldin who turned upfield and raced 71 yards down the left sideline for the TD. The Falcons would come back. Turner's 7-yard TD run with 2:55 left in the 1st half capped a 14-play, 77-yard drive. On the 3rd play of the next drive, Warner's pass went off the hands of Jerheme Urban and was INT'd by Chevis Jackson at the AZ23, setting up a Ryan TD pass to TE Justin Peelle that made it 17-14 Atlanta at the half.

On the 2nd snap after intermission, DT Darnell Dockett made the game's pivotal play when he blew up a hand-off between Ryan and Turner. FS Antrel Rolle picked the ball out of the air and returned it 27 yards for the go-ahead TD. After the next two Atlanta drives went 3-n-out, the Cards took over at their own 24 with 10:31 to go in the 3rd. Through a mix of run & pass, including a 6-yard Warner scramble on 3rd-n-5, the Cards chewed 7:43 off the clock on a long drive that ended with Tim Hightower's 4-yard TD run. Rookie CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie ended the next series with a pick off Ryan. That drive ended with a Ben Graham punt that was downed at the ATL3 and on the next play, Antonio Smith sacked Ryan in the end zone for a safety. The Falcons scored on a 5-yard Roddy White TD pass from Ryan with 4:19 to go to trim it to 6 and AZ then took over at its own 20 with 4:19 to go. Two first downs forced Atlanta to burn all 3 timeouts. Then facing a 3rd-n-16 at the ATL46 with 2:17 left, Warner hit TE Stephen Spach with a 23-yard pass that effectively ended the game.

CARDINALS 33, PANTHERS 13

JANUARY 10, 2009
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM - (73,695)

In a Divisional Playoff match-up at Carolina, all the numbers were stacked against the Cards. They were 0-5 on the east coast in '08 and were facing the only NFL team that went 8-0 at home. Even before it was known that Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin would miss the game with a hamstring injury, few if any gave the Cards a chance against #2 seed Carolina. But when Saturday evening came and the game was played, it was all Arizona. The Panthers produced TDs on their first drive of the game and their last but in between the Cards scored 33 unanswered points. The defense forced 6 Jake Delhomme turnovers (5 INTs and a fumble) and the Cards got 23 of their 33 points off them. WR Larry Fitzgerald was again spectacular, finishing with a team playoff record 166 yards on 8 catches with a TD while the Cards held his Panther all-pro counterpart Steve Smith without a catch until the final minute of the third.

The Panthers took the opening kickoff to midfield and a 31-yard DeAngelo Williams run took it to the 9 before Jonathan Stewart punched it in. Later in the quarter, Fitzgerald's catch-n-run gained 41 on 3rd-n-2 and that led to a 3-yard Tim Hightower TD catch from Kurt Warner that tied it at 7. On the next play from scrimmage, DE Antonio Smith stripped Delhomme on a sack and recovered the fumble himself at the CAR13. That led to a 4-yard Edgerrin James run and a 14-7 score. The Panthers moved to the AZ15 on the next drive thanks to a 45-yard pass interference call but CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie picked off Delhomme at the goal line. Neil Rackers then extended the lead to 20-7 with FGs on the next two AZ drives. A Gerald Hayes INT halted Carolina's following drive on the first play. It was followed by Fitzgerald's 29-yard catch and pylon dive that made it 27-7 at intermission.

The only points of the 3rd quarter came when Antrel Rolle gathered in a Delhomme pass tipped by Rodgers-Cromartie and WR Steve Smith and returned the INT to the CAR26.That set up Rackers' 33-yard FG that made it 30-7. Arizona then ended the first two Panther drives of the 4th quarter with INT's by Ralph Brown and Rod Hood, respectively. Rackers fourth FG of the game made it 33-7 with 3:10 to go and only an 8-yard TD catch by Smith in the final minute made it 33-13.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

CARDINALS 32, EAGLES 25

JANUARY 18, 2009
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (70,650)

In a match-up no one foresaw, the Cardinals hosted the Eagles in the NFC Championship Game with the chance to advance to Super Bowl XLIII. Before an electric sell-out crowd, the Cards jumped out to a 24-6 halftime lead thanks to three Kurt Warner TD passes to Larry Fitzgerald against an Eagles defense that had not allowed a passing TD in 5 games. Philly then scored 19 unanswered points in the late 3rd and early 4th to take a 25-24 lead. The Cards, however, responded with a drive no one will soon forget. It was a 14-play, 72-yard masterpiece that chewed 7:52 off the clock and ended with Warner's game-winning TD pass to RB Tim Hightower. The TD stamped the Cardinals ticket to the Super Bowl that was made possible by another stellar outing from Fitzgerald. The all-pro WR topped 100 yards for the 5th straight game and tied the NFL record with 3 straight in the postseason with a 9-catch, 152-yard, 3-TD performance.

On the game's opening drive, the Cards moved 80 yards in 9 plays and opened the scoring with a 9-yard Warner-Fitzgerald TD connection. Philly came right back with a 45-yard David Akers FG but he missed a 47-yarder on the following drive. That gave Arizona the ball at its own 38 and on the first play the lead grew to 14-3. Warner handed off to J.J. Arrington who ran right, threw it back to Warner who then tossed it deep to Fitzgerald who hauled it in for a 62-yard TD. After another Akers FG, Warner then capped a 73-yard drive with a 1-yard pass to Fitzgerald that made it 21-6 with 3:06 in the 2nd. AZ successful executed a surprise pooch kick and recovery but the officials inadvertently misruled the ball dead. After a Philly punt, the Cards got the ball back at their own 16 with 1:31 to go and moved into position for a 49-yard Neil Rackers FG.

The Eagles cut the lead to 24-19 in the 3rd when consecutive drives ended with Donovan McNabb TD passes to TE Brent Celek (6 and 31 yards). With 10:45 to go, McNabb's deep pass deflected off the hands of CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie and into the hands of WR DeSean Jackson for a 62-yard TD that put Philly up 1 when the 2-point try failed. After the score, the Cards took over at their own 28 with 10:39 to go. Six plays into the drive they faced a pivotal 4th-n-inches decision near midfield. Hightower ran right for 6 yards to pick it up and later put it across the goal-line 8 plays later on a TD catch-n-run on 3rd-n-goal from the 8. Warner on the drive was 5-5 for 56 yards including the game-winning TD pass. He then tossed a 2-point conversion to Ben Patrick to make it 32-25. Philly's ensuing drive reached the AZ47 but on 4th-n-10 from there McNabb's pass fell incomplete and the game was over.

SUPER BOWL XLIII

STEELERS 27, CARDINALS 23

FEBRUARY 1, 2009
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM - (70,774)

Making their first-ever Super Bowl appearance, the Cardinals battled back from a 20-7 4th quarter deficit against the Steelers and took a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining. However, Pittsburgh responded with a game-winning drive and earned their 6th title thanks to a TD with 0:35 on the clock. After catching just one pass thru 3 quarters, WR Larry Fitzgerald finished with 7 grabs for 127 yards and 2 TDs. It allowed him to shatter the NFL postseason records and establish new marks with 30 catches, 456 yards, and 7 receiving TDs.

After Arizona won the opening toss and chose to defer, Pittsburgh marched downfield and Ben Roethlisberger appeared to score a 1-yard TD on a 3rd down scramble. However, when the Cards successfully challenged the spot, the Steelers came away with just a FG. After a holding penalty killed the ensuing AZ drive, the Steelers went 79 yards in 11 plays and took a 10-0 lead on a 1-yard Gary Russell run. On the next series a 45-yard catch-and-run by WR Anquan Boldin took it to the 1 and Warner hit TE Ben Patrick with a TD pass from there. The teams then traded punts but just before the 2:00 warning, Roethlisberger's pass was tipped at the line by DT Bryan Robinson and INT'd at the Steeler 34 by LB Karlos Dansby. With 0:18 left the Cards had advanced to the 1 and used their final timeout. What followed was the game's pivotal play. Warner's quick slant to Boldin was picked at the goal-line by LB James Harrison, who rumbled 100 yards down the right sideline as the half expired. After replay confirmation, the dramatic turn of events had put Pittsburgh up 17-7.

Arizona's opening drive of the 2nd half appeared to end on a Warner fumble but another AZ challenge again reversed the initial call and the drive instead ended on a punt. Pittsburgh then consumed most of the 3rd quarter with a long drive that was aided by several flags from referee Terry McAulay's crew. The 16-play drive ultimately ended in a FG that made it 20-7. With 11:30 to go, the Cards took over at their own 13 and went to the no huddle. The drive consisted entirely of 8 Warner completions for 87 yards and ended on a 1-yard Fitzgerald TD grab. After again trading punts, the Steelers took over at their own 1 and on the 2nd play, a holding call in the end zone resulted in a safety that trimmed the Pittsburgh lead to 20-16. Following the free kick, the Cards took over at their own 36 with 2:53 to go. After an incompletion, Warner hit Fitzgerald at midfield and the WR raced down the middle of the field with the go-ahead TD that covered 64 yards in all. The lead would be short-lived. Pittsburgh took over at its own 22 with 2:30 left and a holding penalty on 1st down backed them up to the 12. Two first downs moved them near midfield and a 40-yard completion to game MVP Santonio Holmes took it to the 6. Two plays later, Holmes came down among 3 defenders and tip-toed the sideline with the winning TD on a play that was upheld by replay. A last-chance Cardinal drive reached the Steeler 44 with 0:15 left but then Warner was ruled to have fumbled before passing and the Steelers recovered. The game ended without McAulay looking at the play.

CARDINALS 51, PACKERS 45 (OT)

JANUARY 10, 2010
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (61,926)

It was the highest-scoring playoff game in NFL history and certainly among the greatest ever. The Cards and Packers combined for 96 points, 13 touchdowns and over 1,000 total yards. While the offenses were explosive, it was the AZ defense that came up with the game-winning score on the first series of OT when CB Michael Adams sacked Aaron Rodgers; LB Karlos Dansby snatched the ball midair and returned it for a TD. It was one of three huge defensive plays by Dansby. Against the NFL's #2 defense, The Cards jumped out to a 17-0 early lead and led 31-17 early in the 3rd quarter. Green Bay then stormed back behind an inspired effort from Rodgers, tying the game at 38 and again at 45. But while the Packer QB was incredibly good, Arizona's Kurt Warner was even better and cemented his place among the league's greatest postseason passers. He threw for 379 yards and amazingly had more TD passes (5) than incompletions (4). Starting in place of Anquan Boldin (ankle), Steve Breaston had 7 catches for 125 yards and a TD while #3 WR Early Doucet was 6-77-2TDs.

Green Bay entered the game with an NFL-best +24 turnover ratio but the Cards converted two early Packer miscues. On the game's first snap, Dansby deflected a Rodgers pass that Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie INT'd. After Tim Hightower turned it into a TD, Dansby ended the next GB drive with a forced fumble of Donald Driver that Alan Branch recovered. Doucet cashed in on that takeaway with the first of his 2 TD passes that helped the Cards build a 24-10 lead. A Warner-to-Fitzgerald TD on the opening drive of the 2nd half made it 31-10 but the Pack scored quickly with two Rodgers TD passes and a successful on-side kick in between. A 42-yard Beanie Wells run led to another Fitzgerald TD catch but the Pack answered with a Rodgers scoring pass to James Jones that capped 5 straight TD drives to open the 2nd half. After Arizona's only punt of the day, GB tied it at 38 on a 1-yard run by FB John Kuhn early in the 4th. Warner responded with an 80-yard drive and put the Cards back ahead with a TD pass to Breaston. With 1:52 left though the Pack tied it again on Rodgers' 11-yard TD to Spencer Havner. At the end of regulation, Warner marched the Cards into position to win but Neil Rackers was wide left on a 34-yard FG attempt in the closing seconds. GB won the toss and got the ball first in OT. On the first snap, Rodgers had Greg Jennings open down the middle but overthrew him. Shortly thereafter, they had a 3rd-n-6 play at their own 24 when Adams and Dansby combined on the game-winning play.

SAINTS 45, CARDINALS 14

JANUARY 16, 2010
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME - (70,149)

Six days after out-dueling the Packers in an explosive Wild Card game, the Cardinals saw their season end in New Orleans against the #1 seeded Saints. RB Tim Hightower raced 70 yards for a TD on the game's first play from scrimmage but after that the Cards faced an uphill battle most of the day. The Saints scored TDs on 5 of their first 6 offensive drives, twice capitalizing on AZ turnovers that gave them short fields. They also took advantage of a depleted Arizona defense that began the game without starting MLB Gerald Hayes (ankle) and in the first quarter lost two more starters - CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie (knee) and FS Antrel Rolle (head).

After Hightower's TD run gave the Cards the early lead, the Saints responded with a 10-play, 70-yard drive that ended with Lydell Hamilton's 1-yard run. On the next snap, Kurt Warner hit Jerheme Urban on a 28-yard pass down the middle but Urban fumbled it over to the Saints at the AZ37. Drew Brees made the Cards pay 4 plays later when he connected with Jeremy Shockey on a 17-yard scoring pass. The next N.O. drive saw the Cards lose Rolle & Rogers-Cromartie and it ended when Reggie Bush reversed field on a 46-yard TD run that made it 21-7. Arizona then made it a one-score game when Warner led a 9-play, 80-yard drive and Beanie Wells scored from 4 yards out. However, the Saints kept their foot on the accelerator. One play after a 26-yard completion to Marques Colston, Brees connected on a 44-yard flea-flicker to Devery Henderson that made it 28-14. On the 2nd play of the ensuing AZ drive, Warner was INT'd by DE Will Smith at the line of scrimmage and then leveled on the return by a clean block from DE Bobby McCray. When Warner headed to the locker room to have his chest examined, Matt Leinart led the Cards into position for a FG but Neil Rackers missed from 51 yards out as the first half expired.

Warner returned to start the 2nd half but the Cards were never able to cut into the Saints lead. A 43-yard Garrett Hartley FG made it 38-14 and later in the 3rd, Bush's 83-yard punt return TD provided the final dagger.

NFC WILD CARD GAME

PANTHERS 27, CARDINALS 16

JANUARY 3, 2015
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM - (71,849)

The Cardinals finished the regular season 11-5, earning a Wild Card spot and trip to Carolina to take on the Panthers who captured the NFC South title by winning their last 4 games and finishing 7-8-1. Arizona had dealt with tremendous adversity all season, losing more than 20 players for more than 100 combined games due to injury and coming from behind in 9 of its 11 victories. But while they clawed back from a 10-point deficit to lead at halftime, this time they could not hold on. Arizona started its 3rd straight game with #3 QB Ryan Lindley (after injuries to both Carson Palmer & Drew Stanton) but had its hands full in both the run and pass games where they finished with just 27 and 51 net yards, respectively.

The Panthers jumped out to a 10-0 lead after they took advantage of outstanding field position on their first two series that resulted from a pair of AZ three-n-outs and short punts. The first drive started at the Carolina 48 and led to a 47-yard Graham Gano FG. The Panthers started their second drive at their own 43 and 8 plays later Jonathan Stewart scored on a 13-yard spinning run off the right side. Trailing by 10, the Cards were forced to punt on the next series but caught a break when returner Brenton Bersin mishandled it and Justin Bethel recovered at the Carolina 30. A 14-yard Larry Fitzgerald completion on 3rd-n-10 moved it to the 1 and led to Lindley's 1-yard TD pass to TE Darren Fells. It remained 10-7 after Gano missed a 43-yard FG try on the next series. Two drives later, the Panthers advanced to the AZ37 where they faced a 3rd-n-13. CB Antonio Cromartie picked off Cam Newton and returned the INT 50 yards to the AZ17 with 5 minutes left in the 1st half. Four plays later, RB Marion Grice scored from a yard out to put Arizona up 14-10 with 2:50 remaining in the 1st half. It was enough time for Carolina to move 59 yards in 9 plays and Gano's 39-yard FG made it a 1-point game at intermission.

On Arizona's first drive of the 2nd half, WR Michael Floyd appeared to have been interfered with on a 3rd down pass down the left sideline but it went unflagged and the Cards went 3-n-out. A short punt gave Carolina possession at the AZ39 to start their 2nd drive of the 3rd quarter. On the next snap, RB Fozzy Whittaker caught a short screen from Newton and took it 39 yards for a TD. It went from bad to worse on the ensuing kickoff when Ted Ginn fumbled inside the 10 and the Panthers recovered at the AZ3. The defense appeared to hold Carolina to a FG when Newton's 3rd-n-goal pass to TE Greg Olsen fell incomplete but SJ Boris Cheek questionably flagged Tony Jefferson for pass interference. On the next play Newton hit RB Mike Tolbert in the flat for a score; the 2 TDs in a 92 second span made it 27-14 Panthers. With 12 minutes to play LB Sam Acho hit Newton as he was passing and Rashad Johnson returned the empty-hand fumble to the AZ8. On the next play Lindley's pass intended for Fitzgerald was INT'd by LB Luke Kuechley at the 5. The game's only other points came in the closing seconds when punter Brad Nortman took an intentional safety by running out of the end zone.

CARDINALS 26, PACKERS 20 (OT)

JANUARY 16, 2016
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (65,089)

Meeting in the Divisional Playoff round, the Cards and Pack turned in one for the ages. The wild game featured 23 total points in the first 56:15 and then 23 more in the final 4:49. It saw the Cards come back from a 4th quarter deficit to lead late before the Packers completed a 41-yard Hail Mary as time expired to force overtime. But in the end, as it so often does, the game was decided by all-pro WR Larry Fitzgerald who cemented his place among the game's greatest postseason players. He caught 8 passes for a club playoff record 176 yards and a TD. His biggest plays came when AZ needed it most, including a 75-yard catch-n-run on the 1st play of OT after Aaron Rodgers had delivered a gut punch at the end of regulation.

The Cardinals struck first when Michael Floyd's toe-tapping catch of a Carson Palmer pass in the back of the end zone gave them a 7-0 lead. A 100-yard INT return TD by CB Patrick Peterson would have given the Cards a 14-0 lead but it was negated by penalty. Green Bay would then dominate possession thanks to back-to-back 17-play drives that consumed more than 15 minutes in total. However, each ended in FGs rather than TDs and AZ led 7-6 at intermission.

The teams then opened the 3rd quarter by trading interceptions. First S Rashad Johnson picked off Rodgers but 3 plays later Ha Ha Clinton-Dix returned the favor with one off Palmer. RB Eddie Lacy then reeled off consecutive runs of 14 & 61 yards that set-up an 8-yard TD pass to WR Jeff Janis. With the Pack leading 13-7, AZ marched to the GB10 but had to settle for a 28-yard Chandler Catanzaro FG that cut it to 3. The next Cards drive also reached the 10 but Palmer's pass to John Brown in the end zone was picked by CB Damarious Randall. After another Pack punt, the Cards took over at their own 20 down 3 with 10:53 to go. In 13 plays they reached the GB9 when Palmer's pass into the end zone was deflected by Randall but ricocheted to Floyd for a TD. After the Packers turned it over on downs on 4 passes, AZ took over at the GB24 with 2:38 to go. Catanzaro's subsequent 36-yard FG made it 20-13 with 1:55 to play. Needing a TD to tie it, GB faced a 4th-n-20 from its own 4 when Rodgers completed a 60-yard deep ball to Janis that took it to the AZ36 with :21 left. Three plays later they faced a 2nd-n-15 from the AZ41 and time for one heave into the end zone. GB's prayers were answered when Janis came down with Rodgers' pass in the end zone with no time on the clock and the stadium stunned. The crazy ending got crazier when referee Clete Blakeman had to re-do the OT coin toss because it didn't flip on his first try. AZ ultimately won it and started the extra period at its own 20. On the first snap, Palmer spun away from pressure before firing across the field to a wide open Fitzgerald. The veteran WR proceeded to weave his way all the way to the GB 5 on a 75-yard gain. Two plays later, a shovel pass to Fitz ended it.

PANTHERS 49, CARDINALS 15

JANUARY 24, 2016
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM - (74,294)

The NFC Championship Game featured the conference's top 2 seeds and league's top 2 offenses as the Cards (13-3) & Panthers (15-1) met in Charlotte with the dream of playing in Super Bowl 50. The dream quickly turned into a nightmare for Arizona. The Panthers scored on their first 3 offensive drives of each half and led 17-0 after one quarter, 24-7 at the half and ultimately won 49-15. They forced 7 Cardinal turnovers (4 INTs/3 fumbles) including 3 very costly ones late in the 2nd quarter when the Cards had a chance to re-claim momentum. It marked the 2nd straight year the Cards' season ended in Carolina and the loss denied Arizona the chance to advance to its 2nd Super Bowl in franchise history.

After a 45-yard Graham Gano FG put Carolina up 3-0, the next Panther drive started at the AZ49 thanks to a 32-yard Ted Ginn punt return. Five plays later, Ginn scored from 22 yards out on a reverse to make it 10-0. Arizona's 3rd straight drive ended in a punt but the defense had a chance to send the Panthers 3-n-out with a stop on 3rd-n-8 from the CAR14 . However, Newton hit Corey Brown with a 26-yard pass to the 40 and the WR broke one tackle to take it the rest of the way for an 86-yard score. Down 17-0 the Cards advanced to the CAR37. On 3rd-n-10, Carson Palmer was sacked by DT Kawann Short forcing a fumble that the Panthers recovered. After the AZ defense forced a 3-n-out, the Cards took over at their own 21 with 11:47 to play in the half. They would move 79 yards in 10 plays and David Johnson's 1-yard TD run made it 17-7. AZ then held Carolina without a 1st down and the ensuing punt was short. But as Patrick Peterson raced to catch the errant kick, he couldn't hold onto it and the Panthers recovered at the AZ46. Consecutive runs of 17 and 23 by RB Jonathan Stewart took it to the one and on 3rd-n-goal from there Newton was able to break the plane for a TD. On the next snap, Palmer's arm was hit by DE Charles Johnson forcing a fumble the Panthers recovered at the AZ31. Two plays later, though, Peterson INT'd Newton and returned it 72 yards to the 22 with :56 left. But on the very next play, Palmer's pass into the end zone was picked off by S Kurt Coleman allowing the Panthers to take a 24-7 lead into halftime.

Things got no better in the 2nd half for the Cards as another Gano FG and an 11-yard Newton run upped the lead to 34-7. Early in the 4th, Palmer's 21-yard TD pass to TE Darren Fells and a successful 2-point conversion made it 34-15 with 14:16 remaining. However, the next 3 AZ drives would end in INTs, one of which was returned 22 yards for a TD by LB Luke Kuechly that provided the game's final points.

RAMS 34, CARDINALS 11

JANUARY 17, 2022
SOFI STADIUM - (70,625)

Back in the postseason for the first time since 2015, the 11-6 Cardinals earned a Wild Card berth and traveled to Los Angeles to take on the division champion Rams (12-5). The teams split the regular season series with the road team winning each and were now facing off in the NFL's first-ever Monday night Wild Card contest. Arizona entered the game bolstered by its historic road success in 2021 (8-1 during the regular season) as well as by team captain DL J.J. Watt, whose inspiring comeback saw him return to action following a devastating shoulder injury that kept him out of the final 10 regular season games.

Unlike the regular season, however, this Rams-Cards match-up was dominated by the home team. LA's defense forced 3-n-outs on the first 4 Arizona possessions and in that time its offense found the end zone twice. A defensive score made it 21-0 midway through the 2nd and the Rams ultimately advanced on the strength of a 34-11 victory.

On its second drive of the night, LA produced the game's first points after a 10-play, 52-yard drive that ended on a 4-yard TD pass from Matthew Stafford to WR Odell Beckham Jr. The Rams stretched their lead to 14-0 on their next possession and it was another Stafford-to-Beckham connection that set up the TD. Facing a 3rd-n-2 at the AZ 33, Stafford hit Beckham for a 31-yard gain down the left sideline to the AZ 2. Two snaps later Stafford scored on a QB sneak. On the next Rams possession, Arizona's defense forced a punt that was downed at the AZ 1. A play later, it appeared the Cards had their first big gain of the evening when QB Kyler Murray threw a 22-yard strike to WR A.J. Green down the right sideline. However, following a lengthy review the play was ruled an incompletion, a reversal that proved costly. On the very next play Murray was under heavy pressure in his own EZ and flipped an underhand pass that CB David Long grabbed at the AZ 3 and took to the end zone to give the Rams a 21-0 lead that they took into intermission,

On the opening possession of the 3rd quarter, the Rams drove 75 yards on 8 plays, converting a pair of 3rd down attempts before Stafford connected with WR Cooper Kupp on a 7-yard TD to give LA a 28-0 lead. AZ's best drive of the evening came on the next possession, as Murray went 5-for-5 passing while directing a 12-play, 75-yard drive. After converting on 4th-n-4 from the AZ 44 with a 7-yard run, Murray hit WR Christian Kirk for a 23-yard gain to LA 14. Following a Rams penalty, RB James Conner ran it in from 2 yards out and Murray connected with WR Antoine Wesley on the 2-point try to make it 28-8 late in the 3rd quarter. But that was a close as the Cardinals would get. The Rams answered by going 50 yards in 7 plays, setting up a 37-yard FG by Matt Gay. Down 31-8, AZ looked poised for another TD when Murray connected with Kirk for a 16-yard play to the LAR 11 on 4th-n-10 but a holding penalty wiped out the gain. K Matt Prater then kicked a 55-yard FG – the longest in franchise postseason history – to make it 31-11 with just over 10 minutes remaining. LA was able to put the game away on its next possession, eating 5:52 off the clock with a 9-play drive that provided the game's final points on Gay's 46-yard FG.

HISTORY

FRANCHISE HISTORY

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 and in 1920 became a charter member of the National Football League, then known as the American Professional Football Association. The club holds the distinction of being the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence.

THE EARLY DAYS

The team boasts a colorful history. Fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club.

The franchise began as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's South Side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born.

Early owner Chris O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time following World War I.

The jersey color and the location of the field (61st and Racine) led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team disbanded.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations again in 1918. Following Armistice Day that officially ended World War I in November of 1918, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football landscape in America.

The Cardinals and Chicago Bears are the only two of the 11 charter members of the NFL still in existence. The Bears were originally based in Decatur, IL and known as the Decatur Staleys (after their sponsor, the Staley Starch Company). The team moved to Chicago in 1921 and was known as the Chicago Staleys for a year before becoming the Chicago Bears in 1922.

The colorful history of the Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League and the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation, began humbly in 1898 as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football as the Morgan Athletic Club in Chicago's South Side.

POST WORLD WAR I

Shortly after the Cardinals joined the American Professional Football League in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee, O'Brien lured great halfback John "Paddy" Driscoll to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football. He would coach the team from 1921–22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921–22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career in the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks.

In 1922, a team from Racine, WI joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year, the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park, which they would share with baseball's White Sox for 37 years.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL Championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record (the NFL did not begin postseason play until 1933).

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed legendary running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40–6 victory over the cross-town Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 combined record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals in 1932 for Jones' asking price of $50,000. After Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings, the franchise began a period of family ownership that continues to this day.

The team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field and the Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals lost their top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—to military service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, failing to win an outing in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

THE 1947 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

The 1947 Cardinals captured the Western Division title and took the NFL championship in a season that was bittersweet for the organization. Owner Charles Bidwill had been the club's leader since taking over as owner in 1933 and helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression." However, his death in April of '47 deprived him of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

Still, Bidwill earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was his unprecedented signing of University of Georgia All-America running back Charley Trippi for a then-unheard of $100,000 that finally put the Cardinals over the top.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Paul Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding Wisconsin fullback Pat Harder, Elmer Angsman of Notre Dame, and end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46.

Another great end, Bill Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Jimmy Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s, versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football. Also a running back, Goldberg had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, including a 31–7 trouncing of the hated crosstown rival Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles and incurred their first loss of the season. Afterward, they tragically lost rookie punter Jeff Burkett who missed the game and the flight back to Chicago because of an emergency appendectomy. After several days recuperating, the United Airlines DC-6 taking him home crashed in Bryce Canyon, UT, killing the young star, who was the NFL's leading punter at the time.

Under that pall, the Cardinals climbed to 7–3 but were in the throes of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7–3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns, including two by Trippi, and held the powerful Steve Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45–21 road win.

The victory deadlocked the Cards with the Bears and set-up a showdown in the regular season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field.

The biggest play of the game came on the first snap. Conzelman designed a pass play that would isolate Bears' linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with speedster Boris "Babe" Dimancheff. Because his wife was expecting, Dimancheff missed the entire week of practice. Despite never running it in advance, the play worked to perfection as Dimancheff raced down the center of the field and caught Christman's perfect pass in stride for a touchdown. The Cardinals also intercepted four passes off legendary Bears quarterback Sid Luckman, converting two into touchdowns en route to a 30–21 win. The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later (12/28/47) against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

At a bitterly cold Comiskey Park, pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles attempted to get better footing on the concrete-like playing surface by sharpening and filing their cleats. A succession of penalties opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale. Meanwhile, the Cardinals quietly had slipped into tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi. In the third quarter, Trippi returned a punt 75 yards for a touchdown. Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship Game record for rushing yards with 159. But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards. The Cardinals' 28–21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

The 1947 Cardinals won the NFL Championship with a 10-3 overall record. They defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21 at Chicago's Comiskey Park in the NFL's 15th title contest.

Marshall Goldberg sealed the 1947 championship game victory with a fourth quarter interception.

ON TO ST. LOUIS

Following her husband's passing in April of 1947, Violet Bidwill assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship, an appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7–0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first division title to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10–4 regular season record. The Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30–14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948. Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis a division crown, but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35-23, ended the Cards' postseason dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41–16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC Eastern Division title—with a 9–7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5–11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

ARIZONA

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7–4 record and a share of the NFC Eastern Division lead. But untimely injuries struck, and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first postseason berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records (since broken) in the team's first autumn in Arizona. All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles. All of those attendance marks, however, have been eclipsed since the team moved into State Farm Stadium.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals, and it was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

The 1995 season marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought. Under Head Coach Vince Tobin and led by former ASU quarterback Jake Plummer, the '98 Cardinals earned a Wild Card berth by winning their last three games in dramatic fashion and each by a field goal or less – a 20-17 overtime win at Philadelphia, a 19-17 home win vs. New Orleans, and a playoff-clinching 16-13 home win over San Diego. The final game ended when Chris Jacke nailed a 52-yard field goal as time expired to win the game before a sold-out crowd at Sun Devil Stadium. The next week saw the team notch its first postseason victory since 1947 with a 20–7 win over the Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The thrilling ride ended with a 41-21 loss at Minnesota in the divisional playoffs the next week.

The 2000 season proved pivotal to the Cardinals' franchise. On Election Day, November 7, 2000, voters in Maricopa County passed Proposition 302, the Tourism and Sports Initiative, to help fund a new stadium for the Cardinals, Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, in addition to providing revenue for Cactus League spring training baseball, tourism, and youth recreation. The 454,785 "yes" votes spelled a plurality of 33,123 votes (51.89 percent).

The attention of the sports world and beyond turned to Arizona safety Pat Tillman in 2002 when he quietly and nobly walked away from a lucrative career in pro football to enlist in the Army. Moved to action by the events of 9/11, Tillman joined the elite Army Rangers and, in April of 2004, was killed while serving in Afghanistan. His jersey number 40 became the fifth in team history to be retired.

In 2005, the Cardinals made NFL history by participating in the NFL's first-ever regular season game played outside the United States. On October 2, the Cards defeated the 49ers 31-14 before a crowd of 103,467 in Mexico City's Estadio Azteca, at the time the largest crowd ever to see an NFL regular season game.

The 2006 season marked the team's first at State Farm Stadium, recognized by BusinessWeek as one of the 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world. Since then, the world-class venue has attracted record crowds for the franchise and has allowed the team to sell out 144 games at the venue. On February 3, 2008, the stadium hosted Super Bowl XLII between the New York Giants and the New England Patriots.

The 2008 Cardinals turned in perhaps the most memorable season in franchise history, one that ended with the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance. Arizona qualified for the postseason by clinching its first division title since 1975 and first-ever NFC West crown with a perfect 6-0 divisional record. As the division champs, the Cardinals hosted their first playoff game since 1947 and defeated Atlanta 30-24 in the Wild Card round. Arizona then traveled to Carolina where they faced the heavily favored Panthers but came away with a stunning 33-13 victory. The Cards returned home the following week to host the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFC Championship game and won their first-ever NFC title by defeating the Eagles 32-25. The victory also secured a date with Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLIII from Tampa. Before what was then the largest audience in US television history, the Cardinals fell to the Steelers, 27-23. Down 20-7 entering the fourth quarter, Arizona made the biggest comeback in Super Bowl history, with a 64-yard touchdown pass from Kurt Warner to Larry Fitzgerald, giving the Cards a 23-20 lead with under 3:00 remaining. Pittsburgh responded with a 78-yard drive that ended with Santonio Holmes' tip-toe touchdown reception and the game's deciding score in one of the most exciting Super Bowls ever played.

An exciting chapter in franchise history began in January of 2013 when team President Michael Bidwill hired GM Steve Keim and Head Coach Bruce Arians nine days apart. Under the leadership of Bidwill, Keim and Arians, Arizona posted a 50-32-1 record, including postseason, which represents the most wins during any five-year span in franchise history. On January 1, 2018, Arians retired as the winningest head coach in club history. The 2015 season was a banner year for the organization as the team won the NFC West, set a franchise record for wins in the regular season (13) and earned the first postseason bye in team history.

A significant era in franchise history came to a close in 2019 when owner William V. Bidwill passed away in October, at the age of 88. His passing brought to an end a life-long association with the franchise, one that began as a ball boy in his hometown of Chicago and which spanned eight different decades.

Head Coach Frank "Pop" Ivy resigns with two games remaining ... Cards win both remaining contests as assistants Chuck Drulis, Ray Prochaska, and Ray Willsey assume coaching reins ... during the season, Drulis and his prize pupil, second-year safety Larry Wilson, perfected the safety blitz.

NOTES

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama LB E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State QB Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel RB Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards ... all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice ... Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive times to finish 7–9 ... return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and equals two NFL records ... Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

NOTES

The Cards, with the NFC Eastern Division title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23-7 halftime deficit to take a 27-26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field-goal try sails wide as time expires and Washington escaped with a 29-27 win and the division crown ... in the torrid comeback at Washington, QB Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half ... Cards finish 9-7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points ... Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating ... WR Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

NOTES

Though a 3-1 start looks promising, the Cards win only two of their final 12 contests to finish 5–11, spelling the end of Jim Hanifan's six-year (1980–85) tenure as head coach ... with former all-pro RB Ottis Anderson injured, RB Stump Mitchell averages 96.9 yards rushing in final nine games en route to 1,006 yards and a 5.5-yard average per carry despite starting just eight contests ... QB Neil Lomax is sacked NFC-high 61 times ... Yugoslavian K Novo Bojovic, signed by the Cards during mid-season, kicks a 40-yard field goal to give the Cards a 3–0 first-quarter lead Nov. 24 vs. N.Y. Giants, chases down the football, spikes it in the end zone, then watches with teammates as Giants score 34 unanswered points in 34–3 defeat at the Meadowlands.

NOTES

Encouragement from 4-0 preseason record and 2-0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4-12, the most losses in franchise history ... QB Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery ... Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting DT Eric Swann despite no college playing experience ... little-known Southern University walk-on CB Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1991 ... LB Eric Hill returns a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season-opener at L.A. Rams Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries.

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4-12 season ... defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) ... CB Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) ... Pro Bowl P Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

NOTES

A 5-3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7-9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job ... rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth ... defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 ... first-round draft pick RB Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game ... Pittsburg (Kan.) State rookie RB Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns ... Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) ... franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17-10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 ... Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17-10 victory Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

NOTES

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4–12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job ... defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries ... Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) ... low light of season at expansion Carolina Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest output in 40 years ... FB Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record ... Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

NOTES

Improvement from 4-12 to 7-9 record, underscored by an offense that jumps from 24th to 12th and a defense from 26th to 21st, highlight Vince Tobin's first season as head coach ... RB LeShon Johnson bursts for runs of 56 and 70 yards Sept. 22 at New Orleans—believed to be the longest touchdown runs on consecutive carries in NFL history—en route to franchise single-game rushing mark of 214 yards ... QB Boomer Esiason passes for 522 yards (third most in league history) in 37-34 overtime win at R.F.K. Stadium against Washington on Nov. 10 ... 0-8 N.Y. Jets secure the only victory of their 1-15 season with 31-21 win at Arizona Oct. 27 ... first-round draft pick, Illinois DE Simeon Rice, sets Cardinal mark and equals then league rookie record with 12.5 quarterback sacks.

NOTES

Team's first season under head coach Dennis Green was one of transition but also promise and opportunity...team entered week 16 of the regular season with a playoff berth and division title in reach before a three-point road loss at Seattle ended postseason hopes...Cardinals won two games by 24 points (something that they'd not done in over a decade) and also finished 5-3 at home for the first time since last playoff season of 1998... strategic but aggressive approach to free agency yielded several new starters, most notably DE Bertrand Berry who would prove to become the best free agent pick-up in team history by leading the NFC in sacks (14.5) and earning his first career Pro Bowl berth....an outstanding '04 draft class produced four full-time starters in WR Larry Fitzgerald, LB Karlos Dansby, DT Darnell Dockett and C Alex Stepanovich ...defense improved its overall rank from 26th at the end of '03 to 12th and didn't allow a touchdown in three games while allowing just one TD in three others...the offense was bitten early by injuries as RB Marcel Shipp suffered a broken leg in training camp that ended his season and all-pro WR Anquan Boldin suffered a training camp knee injury that caused him to miss the regular season's first six games.... in his second season in Arizona, Emmitt Smith led the team with 937 rushing yards and 9 rushing TDs...the offense struggled to find consistency and that led to numerous lineup changes throughout the year including three different starting QBs....S Pat Tillman, who left the Cardinals to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training prior to 2002 season, is killed April 22 in Afghanistan.

STEVE SCHOENFELD MEMORIAL PRESS BOX

The press box at State Farm Stadium is named in honor of Steve Schoenfeld, who covered the team and the NFL for The Arizona Republic from 1988 until 2000 when he was killed by a hit-and-run driver.

Schoenfeld worked in Tulsa and Dallas before coming to Arizona and spent the last few months of his life covering the NFL for CBS SportsLine. A tough, but fair, reporter and an eloquent writer, he was president of the Pro Football Writers Association from 1997-99, and his untimely death stunned the league.

Steve was a loving family man as well. He was devoted to his wife, Robin, and was a loving son, brother and uncle. He cared deeply about his friends, and he seemed to have thousands of them.

Said Republic colleague and current sports columnist Kent Somers, "Steve never met a stranger. He not only knew everyone, he had phone numbers for them, too – and didn't hesitate to call them. It's fitting the press box is named in honor of Steve, because to him there was no better place to be on a Sunday afternoon."

ABOUT STATE FARM STADIUM

State Farm Stadium is a prime example of sophisticated engineering, technology, and design. The venue features both a retractable roof and retractable natural grass playing field, setting an industry standard for design excellence and providing the ultimate in fan comfort. The field allows flexibility to transform State Farm Stadium from a football-ready field to an unrestricted stadium floor in just over an hour at the push of a button.

Because of the truly unique multi-purpose nature of the facility, State Farm Stadium is able to host some of the country's most high-profile events – including, most recently, the College Football Playoff (CFP) Quarterfinal matchup between Penn State and Boise State on New Year's Even in 2024. Last year also saw State Farm Stadium play host to the 2024 NCAA Men's Final Four. It marked the second time (2017) State Farm Stadium hosted the tournament, and it is the only venue west of Texas to host the event since 1995.

The versatility of State Farm Stadium was also on display in early 2025 when the venue hosted the Wild Card Playoff matchup between the Los Angeles Rams and Minnesota Vikings after the devastating wildfires that broke out in Los Angeles County in January. On the Thursday of that week it was announced that the scheduled Monday game would be moved from SoFi Stadium to State Farm Stadium. Despite the short turnaround, the venue hosted a sellout crowd of 64,515 as the Rams defeated the Vikings in the first postseason game in NFL history to be moved due to a natural disaster.

Since opening in August of 2006, the building has also hosted three Super Bowls, the 2015 Pro Bowl, the first-ever BCS National Championship game (Florida-Ohio State), Fiesta Bowls, international soccer matches, high school football championships, high school proms, monster truck and motocross events, trade shows and conventions and countless other events. In 2023 alone, State Farm Stadium hosted the kickoff of Taylor Swift's Eras Tour and Beyonce's Renaissance World Tour as the artists joined the list of notable musical acts such as The Rolling Stones, U2, Garth Brooks, Guns N' Roses and Metallica who have played the venue. In 2025 State Farm Stadium has hosted concerts by Kendrick Lamar, Morgan Wallen, The Weeknd and Post Malone along with the Quarterfinals of the CONCACAF Gold Cup.

Hosting some of the world's most high-profile sports and entertainment events has resulted in over $6 billion in economic impact for the state of Arizona.

On February 12, 2023 State Farm Stadium hosted its third Super Bowl when a record 115.1 million viewers watched the Kansas City Chiefs defeat the Philadelphia Eagles 38-35 in Super Bowl LVII. The venue also played host to Arizona's largest international soccer match in history as Haiti and Mexico took the pitch for the 2019 CONCACAF Gold Cup Semifinal.

State Farm Stadium also served as a critical site during the COVID-19 pandemic. The venue hosted three blood drives at the beginning of the outbreak and in 2021 it became one of the first, and most successful, mass vaccination sites in the nation.

UPGRADING THE NEST: Already considered one of the finest venues in sports, fans at State Farm Stadium were introduced to first-of-their-kind field-level seating experiences during the 2024 season. More upgrades were made in time for the 2025 campaign as the Cardinals re-shape the in-stadium experience in ways that re-defined the standards and expectations for high-end, premium spectator offerings not only in Arizona but across the sports landscape.

These innovative, premium products are characterized by two primary features. First, they offer some of the most unique, exclusive, comfortable, and convenient luxury experiences available in sports. And secondly, their proximity to the field – literally just feet away from the sidelines - means only the players in the game will be closer to the action.

East Side of Stadium at the 50-Yard Line

Casa Roja at the Fifty: New in 2025, the Cardinals are unveiling "Casa Roja at the Fifty," another exclusive collaboration with acclaimed restaurateur and hotelier Sam Fox, Arizona's visionary hospitality innovator.

Nestled beneath the stadium's east side at the coveted 50-yard line, Casa Roja at the Fifty redefines premium sports entertainment. This underground experience is accessible only to an exclusive set of ticket holders, with entry granted solely through one of the 500 premium seats positioned at midfield.

When descending into Casa Roja, guests are transported into a sophisticated oasis where modern Spanish design meets urban energy. The space features a stunning center bar offering a curated selection of signature cocktails, wines and beers. Multiple culinary stations showcase an all-inclusive, thoughtfully-crafted menu that reflects Fox's renowned culinary vision, providing ticket holders with an exceptional dining journey before returning to their prime midfield seats for unparalleled views of the action.

South End of Stadium

Casitas: Perhaps the most unique of the new offerings last season, the custom-built, field-level luxury casitas are designed specifically for State Farm Stadium and introduced a concept never before seen in the industry. The NFL equivalent of beachfront property, they sit just feet from the south end zone.

Casita Garden Club: The spacious 13,400-square foot club has the feel of an outdoor garden patio situated inside an NFL stadium. Located at the south end of field level directly behind the Casitas, this area spans the width of the south end zone. Its location on the field level just feet away from the home locker room offers an incredible, behind-the-scenes perspective as Cardinals players make their way to the playing field.

Field Boxes: Located on the east and west sidelines at the south end of the playing field, these private four and six-person field boxes offer the ultimate in terms of comfort and proximity to the action.

North End of Stadium

Morgan Athletic Club hosted by The Global Ambassador: In partnership with The Global Ambassador - Arizona's prestigious luxury hotel created by hospitality and restaurant innovator Sam Fox - this ground-breaking collaboration offers an unparalleled luxury experience at State Farm Stadium.

Part of the new luxury offerings available at State Farm Stadium in 2024, "Morgan Athletic Club" – which borrows from the Cardinals' original name when they were founded in 1898 – is a high-end club located at the north end of field level and just steps away from the playing field. Spanning nearly 12,500 square feet, its vibe is a throwback to that of a private, 1920s supper club with low lighting and a lavishly furnished moody lounge. Since its debut in December 2023, The Global Ambassador has quickly established itself as Arizona's boldest new luxury hotel. The Global Ambassador is internationally inspired and seamlessly blends exceptional hospitality, culinary artistry, and wellness experiences within one precisely curated destination.

Field Suites: Located near the 20-yard line and just steps from the playing field, Fans who choose this option can enjoy everything gameday has to offer with room for 12 guests as well as all-inclusive food and beverage.

Sideline and End Zone Seats: After enjoying all the perks and amenities of the Morgan Athletic Club, guests make a short walk to their amazingly comfortable seats either on the sideline or looking head-on at the action from the north end zone.

Tunnel Suites: All-inclusive food and beverage offerings are provided to members in this area that is located just steps from the back of the end zone and Morgan Athletic Club.

OTHER RECENT RENOVATIONS: In the years prior to the venue hosting Super Bowl LVII at the conclusion of the 2022 season, over $150 million in renovations occurred in and around State Farm Stadium.

Stadium Club Area Renovation ($28 million): In 2017, the Cardinals revealed the first part of a two-phase expansion and renovation of the Club areas on the east and west sides of the stadium.

In addition to enhancing and expanding the pre-existing areas, the project included the creation of "Flight Lounge" which provides an intimate bar setting and features different brands of wine each week. Another major addition was the high-end "Bubble Lounge," a full-service bar that specializes in champagne and wine and features a ticketed pregame brunch experience through kickoff and an upscale a la carte menu beginning with the second quarter.

That phase also included the renovation of the bar areas on the Club level, going from six beer taps to 16. The primary 50-Yard lounges now include large (12' x 60') videoboards to easily permit viewing of eight games at one time.

Completed in 2018, phase two entailed completely renovating the balance of the Club level. A highlight of phase two was "The Tail Feather," a new speakeasy style lounge and full-service bar that offers fans an electric, Art Deco atmosphere. Located on the northeast side of the stadium, "The Tail Feather" rivals the "Bubble Lounge" on the west side.

The phase two renovation also included new bars and food service areas in all four corners, new flooring and lighting, additional TVs, a new sound system and all new furniture.

A specialty lounge area, the "Bird's Nest," also has a new bar and food buffet, extensive millwork finishes and new furniture. Finally, all restrooms were completely renovated with new flooring, ceilings, lighting, wall tile, and a stone vanity.

New Parking Lot, Pedestrian Tunnel & Bridge, Security Structures ($28 million): The "Black Lot" which features 4,015 additional parking spaces, opened prior to the 2018 season. Located between 95th and 91st avenues along Cardinals Way, the lot has access to the stadium grounds via a pedestrian underpass and a pedestrian bridge.

The tailgating areas were also upgraded and permanent shaded structures were built for security checkpoints.

Stadium Loft Renovations ($17 million): In 2021, the Cardinals completed a two-year renovation of all 88 private lofts at State Farm Stadium. The improvements include enhanced cabinetry, flooring, furniture, appliances and finishes that complement the recently renovated Club spaces. The Loft level concourse was also improved with new flooring, restroom renovations, redesigned loft entryways and the addition of Arizona themed artwork sourced by local area artists.

ARCHITECTURE: World-renowned architect Peter Eisenman, in partnership with HOK Sport and Hunt Construction Group, created a state-of-the-art design that has already become a distinctive Arizona landmark. The stadium's exterior skin takes its design cue from the barrel cactus and features alternating sections of shimmering metal panels intended to reflect the shifting desert light alongside 21 magnificent vertical glass slots allowing fans a spectacular view of the horizon from any level of the interior.

RETRACTABLE FIELD: State Farm Stadium also features a unique rollout natural grass playing field, contained in a single tray weighing 18.9 million pounds (234 feet wide, 403 feet long). The first completely retractable field in the United States, it is positioned inside the stadium on game days to offer the preferred natural-grass playing surface for football and outside the stadium for the remaining days of the year to receive sunlight and watering. The field tray is powered by electric motors mounted on steel wheels riding on tracks embedded in the concrete floor and takes approximately 70 minutes to move completely. The flexibility of this unique design allows State Farm Stadium to serve as a true multipurpose venue featuring a 164,000 square-foot event floor for other events.

RETRACTABLE ROOF: Atop the stadium roof are two large retractable panels that open and close on an arc. The panels and much of the roof are made of a translucent fabric called Birdair that enables light to penetrate and gives the venue an open, airy feel. When closed it also allows for an air-conditioned environment during the hot months, but the roof can be opened during cooler times of the year to take advantage of Arizona's patented sunshine. The roof takes about 12 minutes to open or close.

MULTI-PURPOSE: Because of the truly unique multi-purpose nature of the facility, State Farm Stadium is able to host far more than just Cardinals home games. Since opening in August of 2006, the building has hosted three Super Bowls, the 2015

Pro Bowl, two NCAA Men's basketball tournaments, the first-ever BCS National Championship game (Florida-Ohio State), Fiesta Bowls, international soccer matches, high school football championships, high school proms, monster truck and motocross events, and a variety of trade shows and conventions.

During the COVID-19 outbreak, State Farm Stadium served a number of important function as the site of numerous blood drives, PPE (Personal Protective Equipment) drives, testing drives and as one of the nation's first, and most successful, vaccination sites. Early in the pandemic, one area hit particularly hard by the COVID-19 crisis was the local blood donation community, where the supply reached critically low levels. The stadium's size and the event's operational set-up ensured adherence to the necessary physical and social distancing guidelines while still accommodating the greatest possible number of donors. In April of 2020, the Cardinals and Project C.U.R.E hosted a PPE drive at State Farm Stadium to help meet the pressing need within the local healthcare community. On two separate occasions in May, the Cardinals and Dignity Health participated in the state's drive-through COVID-19 testing blitz in Orange Lot at State Farm Stadium.

In 2021, State Farm Stadium was also host to one of the first, and most successful, vaccination sites in the nation. Between January and April, more than 800,000 COVID-19 vaccines were administered at State Farm Stadium, which accounted for nearly 20% of the total doses administered in Arizona during that period. The site was so successful that President Joe Biden and Vice President Kamala Harris participated in a virtual tour on February 8 and the administration called the operation "an incredible model." Biden told Arizona Department of Health Services Director Dr. Cara Christ during the tour; "I got a call during the Super Bowl from the commissioner of football (Roger Goodell) offering us, the federal government, the 30 major stadiums. They're going to be coming to you to look at how you did it because you're doing such a great job."

In a given year, ASM Global (the building's operator) successfully books 225+ event days for gatherings large, small and in between.

HERITAGE AT SPORTSMAN'S PARK

"Heritage at Sportsman's Park" opened during the 2021 football season and was a $12M project as part of the $150M in renovations that took place between SB49 and SB57 and part of continued investment to make State Farm Stadium the most fan-friendly environment in the nation.

On game days, fans can purchase tickets for the "Cardinals Tailgate Party at Heritage Pavilion" and the venue is able to host additional events at Great Lawn on non-gamedays.

The Heritage Pavilion is a multi-level structure that provides fan comfort and convenience, featuring:

- Exclusive setting in private, shaded space
- Outdoor beer garden
- All-inclusive, high-end menu
- Beer, wine, well-liquor and signature cocktails
- Numerous TVs to catch "early game" action
- Private restrooms

BETMGM SPORTSBOOK AT STATE FARM STADIUM

BetMGM, a leading sports betting and iGaming operator, and the Arizona Cardinals partnered on the nearly 17,000-square-foot BetMGM Sportsbook that opened for the start of the 2022 football season. The milestone opening marked the first sportsbook at an NFL stadium.

The two-story sports and entertainment destination operates on both event and non-event days. The BetMGM Sportsbook, located on the north side of The Great Lawn, combines the energy and viewing options of a state-of-the-art sportsbook with the amenities of a world-class sports bar. Featuring dual entrances from both sides of The Great Lawn, guests can experience a massive video wall to watch games, enhanced gameday parking options, as well as both indoor and outdoor dining options. Sports fans can also place wagers at trading windows or utilize user-friendly betting kiosks conveniently placed throughout the space.

"The Arizona Cardinals and BetMGM are both committed to enhancing the gameday experience for fans in new and creative ways," said BetMGM CEO Adam Greenblatt. "The BetMGM Sportsbook at State Farm Stadium is one of the most unique and innovative additions to a venue that the sports and entertainment industry has ever seen."

The BetMGM Sportsbook at State Farm Stadium complements the BetMGM mobile app that launched statewide in Arizona in September 2021. The BetMGM Sportsbook is the latest phase of BetMGM's exclusive partnership with the Arizona Cardinals.

SPORTSMAN'S PARK

The area that surrounds and encompasses State Farm Stadium is known as Sportsman's Park. The 160-acre footprint includes carparks, grass areas and an abundance of trees and other landscape native to the area.

On-site parking accommodates 14,000 cars as part of an innovative site plan designed to create a truly unique tailgating experience for fans.

A tree-lined expanse of grass covering eight acres, the Great Lawn extends west from 95th Avenue to the Loop 101. The lawn stretches over 1,000 feet and 4.61 acres total, which is designed for use by fans while tailgating at games or to use during other activities outside the stadium. Surrounding the Great Lawn is a 50-foot wide promenade. In addition to the uninterrupted expanse of grass, the Great Lawn includes areas for vendors and musicians.

PAT TILLMAN MEMORIAL

The plaza surrounding State Farm Stadium is known as the Pat Tillman Freedom Plaza, in honor of the former Cardinals safety who was killed in action on April 22, 2004 while serving his country as a member of the elite Army Ranger unit.

Fans attending home games can visit the Pat Tillman Memorial located at the northwest side of the plaza. The memorial includes a large bronze sculpture of Tillman on the eastern side and a circular reflection pond on its western side.

The sculpture is approximately eight-feet tall, weighs over 500 pounds, and took nearly nine months to complete. After an extensive search, the Cardinals selected artists Omri Amrany and Gary Tillery to create the sculpture. The sculptors consulted with the team and Pat's wife, Marie, who worked to select the image of Tillman that would best convey his character and spirit. Serving as a backdrop to the sculpture is a nine-foot tall curved wall made of concrete that measures 42 feet across, symbolic of Tillman's jersey number at Arizona State.

The brimming pool of water on the western side consists of a large 60-foot circular pond made of black concrete and stainless steel. Intended to create a pool of tranquility, it has a surface area of 2,300 square feet.

To the west of the memorial is a grove of 40 Oak trees that symbolizes the jersey number Tillman wore as an Arizona Cardinal and the entire area is surrounded by a grove of Ash and Oak trees.

CARDINALS PRESERVE PAT TILLMAN'S LOCKER AT TEMPE FACILITY

On September 11, 2015, the 14th anniversary of the 9/11 terrorist attacks, the Cardinals unveiled the locker of former safety Pat Tillman at the team's Tempe Training Facility.

A new locker room was built as part of a two-year, $15 million renovation of the facility, but Tillman's locker was preserved to display in a glass enclosure between the weight room and cafeteria. Included in the locker are Tillman's jersey, helmet, shoulder pads and draft card, along with a description of his life and career.

"We've decided to preserve Pat Tillman's locker, and tell his story," team owner Michael Bidwill said at the unveiling ceremony. "Many of our future players, and even current players, may not know the stories of the Cardinals. But we wanted to tell the stories and talk about the history, the history of our organization and the history of Pat Tillman."

After a decorated career at Arizona State University, Tillman was selected in the seventh round (226th overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Cardinals and he played for Arizona from 1998-2001 before enlisting in the U.S. Army in 2002. He was killed in action in Afghanistan on April 22, 2004.

Tillman's No. 40 is retired by the Cardinals and he is a member of the team's Ring of Honor.

CARDINALS COMPLETE ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL YEAR IN THE COMMUNITY

The 2024 season marked another successful year for the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and its various community-based activities.

Cardinals players, coaches, cheerleaders, mascot Big Red, alumni and front office staff continued the organization's ongoing efforts of being a champion in the community. Throughout the 2024 season, dozens of different players, alumni and members of the Cardinals Women's club took part in different community events and appearances that impacted over 100,000 adults and children. The Cardinals also donated more than 1,000 pieces of merchandise and memorabilia throughout the past year.

In addition to Cardinals broadcasts, Pasch can be seen on ESPN calling NBA action as well as college football and basketball.

Joining Pasch for inaugural season as radio color analyst is former center A.Q. Shipley, a nine-year NFL veteran who played five seasons (2015-19) with the Cardinals. During his time in Arizona, Shipley appeared in 60 games and made 51 starts. Following his playing days, Shipley coached with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2021 as an offensive assistant. He also currently serves as a regular contributor on the Pat McAfee Show on ESPN.

A Moon Township, PA native, Shipley played 110 games (72 starts) during his NFL career with the Colts (2012, '14), Ravens (2013), Cardinals (2015-19) and Buccaneers (2020) after entering the league with Pittsburgh as a seventh-round selection in the 2009 NFL Draft from Penn State. He helped the Buccaneers win Super Bowl LV following the 2020 season.

Game-day programming begins four-and-a-half hours prior to kickoff on Arizona Sports, 98.7 FM with "Cardinals Early Bird," a half-hour look at the week of preparation including exclusive features, game previews and interviews with head coach Jonathan Gannon and his players.
